PERSONAL.

George Meyer flits from Coburn to Tusseyville this week. Mr. John Weaver, of Spring Mills, was in town Tuesday.

William Holderman, of Linden Hall, was a visitor in Centre Hall last week. Mr. N. W. Ream, of Farmers Mills, made a business trip to Centre Hall on Saturday last.

William Wolf, of our town is attending United States court, at Scranton, as a juror. Ex-Sheriff Spangler is improving, but not yet able to leave New Berlin for his home in this place.

Miss Gertrude Spigelmyer. We are sorry to learn that Mr. John E. Krebs, of near Pine Grove Mills, is still seriously ill. An affection of the heart seems to be the trouble.

Mr. J. D. Gettig, of Linden Hall, was a visitor in Centre Hall, on Saturday. Mr. Gettig is one of Centre county's efficient pedagogues and was here in the interests of the local teachers' institute to be held in Centre Hall in a few days.

Simon Wolf returned home a few days ago from near Rebersburg, where he had been teaching school, and is now at the home of his mother, Mrs. Uriah Osman, where he is in very delicate health.

Mr. D. W. Reynolds, the gentleman who purchased and consolidated the Runkle and Spangler meat markets, is a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman, and as a citizen will be welcomed in Centre Hall.

LICENSE COURT.

THE LICENSE COURT IN SESSION LAST WEEK.

All old Licenses Granted by Judge Furst Along With one or two New Ones. Haag at last Receives License.

The license court opened its sessions last Tuesday morning, 1st inst., with Judge Furst on the bench. All applications were presented and many petitions and remonstrances were filed.

In the case of the Central Hotel, of Philadelphia, Peter Ashcroft, its proprietor, having died on the 22nd of February, Judge Furst ordered his widow to file a new bond and make application on March 26th.

On Saturday morning the court having duly considered all applications announced that the following had been granted: Daniel Garman, W. L. Dagget, George B. Brandon, Gottlieb Haag, tavern, and John Anderson, wholesale, Bellefonte.

D. L. Bartsches, Centre Hall, W. S. Musser, Millheim; J. L. De Haas, Howard; George E. Leister, G. A. Walther, James Passmore, Harry Wood, William Parker, Peter Ashcroft, Harry Simler, E. P. McCormick, and Tattersall Ingham, retail, Philadelphia; Thomas Riley, and A. C. Hicklen, wholesale, Philadelphia; Alois Kohlbecker, Millersburg; D. H. Ruhli, Spring Mills; N. W. Eby, wholesaler, Haines township; W. W. Rishell, Coburn; John H. Odenkirk, Old Fort; John G. Uzzle, Mary C. Nolan, Snow Shoe; John C. Mullinger, wholesaler, Pleasant Gap; Henry Robb, Walker township.

The following were refused: W. P. Breon and Thomas Gleason, wholesaler, Snow Shoe. The others were held over for further consideration until some time in the future when the court would make known its decision.

Slow Performance of Duties.

The recent heavy snow was cause for much complaint on the part of citizens of the town, owing to the non-enforcement of the ordinance compelling the cleaning of pavements and walks twenty-four hours after the fall.

At street crossings in town snow had drifted several feet in depth but was not removed and the citizens were compelled to tramp over the top. There was much indignation on the part of some of the citizens and all wondered whether some of the borough officials were in for ornaments or duty.

FIRE AT WOODWARD.

Bishop and Swengle's New Store Building Damaged by the Flames.

There was a slight fire at Woodward, in the new store building recently opened at that place by Bishop and Swengle. The fire started at two places almost simultaneously, in the ware house, and on the second floor, which is used as a hall, but owing to the great amount of snow on the roof and the timely help of citizens the fire was soon under control.

Rapidly Melting.

The deep snow which fell over a week ago was not a stayer. There was very little frost in the ground and it began melting very rapidly, and the greater part has already gone.

A Deep Cut.

To make room for spring stock on his counters, Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, is disposing of his stock of winter goods at cut prices, and they are cut deeply.

Every well dressed gentleman get his clothing from the Philad. Branch Bellefonte. They can fit you out in anything you want, at a bargain. You'll miss it greatly if you don't call to see his stock.

A WONDERFUL CASE.

A Philadelphia Man Living Seven Years With a Silver Lined Throat.

The Watchman in speaking of the death of Dr. J. H. Pierce, of Philadelphia, who died recently in a Philadelphia hospital, where he had gone for treatment, says few people who knew of the venerable Philadelphia physician, realized the trying conditions under which he had lived for seven years previous to his death.

From the time he was honorably mustered out of the army, in 1865, where for three years he had served as lieutenant and surgeon, he had suffered, more or less, with a throat affection. Finally it developed into cancer of the larynx and as it became necessary to have an operation performed the doctor entered a dispensary of his brother, the eminent specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., under whose care he remained until discharged with the cancer removed, but after having undergone one of the most remarkable operations known to the medical fraternity.

His whole throat had been cut out and in place of the gullet a little silver tube had been substituted. This tube carried the food over the opening to the wind-pipe and on into the stomach and for the past seven years it has done duty of a natural throat for the physician.

Of course it necessitated his taking soft foods, at all times, and the operation destroyed the faculty of speech, though he was able to articulate without voice.

Persons who attended the Hopkins trial in '90, will remember his testimony as given in a peculiar hissing sound though every word was audible and distinct.

Dr. Pierce was an Englishman by birth. A man of marked ability in his profession and with a constitution which certainly must have been a marvel for endurance and elasticity.

A HAPPY MAN.

Judge Furst Grants Gottlieb Haag License for the Cummings House.

Gottlieb Haag is the happiest man in Centre county—happier than if it were a bouncing boy baby or twin girls.

He was granted a license last week, for which he sighed and dreamed and pleaded for two years, with a mile of signers at his back.

Gottlieb keeps the Cummings House in Bellefonte and his patrons could get a good meal there, but nothing to wash it down with, and what signifies a good meal to the modern epicure unless he can "take a little" to prepare the way for his going down, and a little more thereafter to keep it down when it is down?

As one of Gottlieb's warm friends expressed it, he is so glad he dances on one leg. Mr. Haag will undoubtedly endeavor not to overstep the bounds of the law and thus retain the good will of the court.

A Dazzler.

In the electricity building at the Columbian exposition there will be 40,000 panes of glass, or more than in any other exposition structure. This building will be especially conspicuous at night as, owing to its extensive glass surface, the brilliancy of its electrical exhibit will be strikingly visible from the outside.

The administration building requires only 4,500 lights of glass, yet it will present finer artistic effects in glazing than will any other structure. The climax of ornamental glazing will be seen in a great ceiling sash in the mammoth dome, 200 feet above the floor of the rotunda. This will have 150 lights of many different sizes and of beautifully contrasted colors.

Dot.

Thompson, of Milroy advertises in REPORTER for girls to work in the woolen mill.

Geo. Meiss advertises that all in debt shall call and settle before April 1—after that he will do business on cash only.

Pleasant Gap is reported to have some scarlet fever and diphtheria cases. Potter Audit, next Monday.

The REPORTER hopes all who have failed to do so will pay up before April 1.

Reward for his Capture.

The Clearfield county Commissioners have offered a reward of $150 for the capture of Steve Kordiak, who shot and killed John Brown, at Aimsville, a couple weeks ago. There has been no clue to Kordiak's whereabouts as yet and the chances for capturing the fugitive are not very bright.

A Novel Race.

A novel race is proposed by some wheelman of Williamsport. The proposed course is between that city and Lock Haven, and the race to take place when everything is favorable.

Elmer E. Shaffer, of Williamsport, is spoken of as the wheelman, and the horse is to be the best animal to be found in the county.

When you want a shoe that will give you satisfaction both in price and quality, go to Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte. He guarantees all goods sold and you get a genuine article.

Elisha Campbell, of Millheim, is not improving from his pneumonia, as yet.

"Cap." A. C. Mingle.

The above is an excellent likeness of Mr. A. C. Mingle, who was elected Chief Burgess of Bellefonte, at the spring election a few weeks ago, by a majority of 36.

"Cap." as he is familiarly known, was born in Aaronsburg, and is a son of the late H. A. Mingle, who died about one year ago in Aaronsburg. His boyhood was spent in Aaronsburg, residing with his father, when he received a position with Mr. Wm. Wolf, at Centre Hall, which he occupied for several years, resigning to accept a position in Bellefonte, where in the course of a year or so he opened a shoe store.

That he is very popular is evidenced by the fact that he was elected Chief Burgess of Bellefonte by a majority of thirty-six on the Democratic ticket, while the borough usually gives about 200 Republican majority. The odds were heavily against him, but he won in the face of them. This office to which he was elected is the first for which he was ever a candidate.

ABANDONED THE PHONE.

The Telephone Line Between Millheim and Coburn abandoned Owing to the Excessive Rents.

Millheim has abandoned its telephone line to Coburn, two and a half miles, on account of the excessive charge made by the telephone skinner, $150 per year, for a single phone.

Going to Stock the Streams.

A number of Centre Hall's anglers have made application to the state hatchery for trout fry werewith to stock several of the streams on this side the county, Pine, Penns and other creeks. This is a proper move and the stocking should be repeated every year, so as to keep up the supply of this most delicious of all table fishes.

Cheap Horses.

Horses are not bringing big prices at the public sales, and the demand for the animals is not brisk. Prices have not been so low for many years. The street car service, into which thousands of horses were annually pressed, kept up the demand for horses, but now electricity is fast taking the place of horse-flesh for running the street cars.

DOINGS OF COUNCIL.

First Meeting of that Body With Newly Elected Members.

On Monday evening the newly elected borough officials were sworn into office by Squire Boal, in his office in the bank building.

The new council then organized by electing J. F. Alexander president of the body, and R. D. Foreman secretary.

For Street Commissioner two applicants were presented, William Flory and Charles Arney. On second ballot Charles Arney received the majority of votes cast and was appointed.

The retiring members of the council were D. F. Luse, Jacob Ripka and Ezra Krumbine, who were succeeded by D. L. Bartsches, E. G. Van Pelt and J. F. Alexander.

Dr. A. G. Harter Claims his Bride.

On last Thursday at high noon a quiet wedding took place at the downtown residence of our old friend and fellow citizen, Captain J. W. Gaugler.

Another Fatal Burning Accident.

Rachel a little daughter of Lewis Bluebell, residing at Frenchville, near Philadelphia was standing by the fire-side reading a newspaper on last Thursday afternoon. The paper happened to catch fire, which in turn set fire to her apron.

Cut Down Prices.

Lewins, at the Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte, has made a big reduction in prices on all winter goods. An overcoat or warm suit of clothes can now be secured at cost.

Sick Horses.

Many of the horses in this county are suffering from a disease that affects the spine and paralyzes the hind legs of the animal. Quite a number have died so far this winter.

State College's Report.

We are in receipt of a copy of the report of the authorities of Pennsylvania State College for the year 1901. The volume is complete and comprehensive and gives the reader a clear idea of the practical work done by that institution.

A World's Fair Club.

A World's Fair Club was organized recently in Millheim with quite a large membership, and more new members being added.

Remodeled the Interior.

Mr. D. W. Reynolds has remodeled the interior of Spangler's meat market and has placed therein the large refrigerator from Runkle's market.

The reason we lead the shoe trade is because we best satisfy the people for a genuine bargain.—Mingle, Bellefonte.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Next Sessions of the District to be Held in Centre Hall.

At the last session of the local teachers' institute held at Pine Grove Mills, it was decided by the committee to hold the next meeting at Centre Hall, on March 18th and 19th.

The following committee on arrangements and entertainment was appointed: J. D. Dauberman, James Gregg and Miss Maggie Hannah. James Gregg, S. D. Gettig and Hiram Grove were appointed committee on programme.

These sessions are a source of much good to the district teachers and we earnestly look forward to a good attendance by all the teachers.

A Handsome Funeral Car.

J. W. McCormick, undertaker, last week had conveyed from the station to his stable near Dallas street, one of the handsomest funeral cars we have ever seen. It was built by the Riddle Coach and Hearse company, of Ravenna, Ohio, and is an excellent specimen of fine workmanship.

Sheriff Ishler was in town Wednesday on legal business, but found time to look in at the REPORTER office.

Mrs. Annie Van Pelt has been at New Berlin the past week, helping to wait on her father, ex-sheriff Spangler, who is lying ill at that place.

Mr. J. C. Runkle, of Centre Hill, was a caller at this office Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Runkle will make sale of stock, implements, and household goods, March 30th.

Our old friend George Reber, formerly of Miles township, living near Millinburg the past year, has made sale of his effects, and on Thursday, 10th, passed through here on the west bound train, to seek his fortune out there.
