A LEVER IN A HOTEL.

He is Employed to Cook for One Hundred and Twenty-Five People.

Leprosy, the most hideous form of disease, accepted with resignation by the fatalistic millions of Asia, but viewed with loathing and horror by the inhabitants of Europe and America has obtained such a foothold in Philadelphia that it may, unless vigorous action is immediately taken, taint the blood of the western hemisphere. For months a Japanese in the advanced stage of this dread disease, with putrid sores on his hands and limbs, has been preparing the food for 100 odd guests at the Peabody hotel in that city. With the flesh already decaying on his hands he has mixed the flour for bread and pastry consumed by the patrons of the house, and has bathed his putrefying body in the baths used by the guests.

At a meeting of the board of health Tuesday Major Veal, the health officer of the city, stated that on last Wednesday he received information from the office of the guardians of the poor that a Japanese, calling himself John Wing suffering from a disease supposed to be leprosy, was detained at their office. Medical Inspector Taylor examined the case, reported it to be leprosy, and the man was sent to the municipal hospital. It was learned that the man's name was Charles Wing, and that since last September he had been employed as cook at the Peabody hotel, Ninth street kept by Dr. R. S. Paine.

COOKING FOR 125 GUESTS.

Major Veal continued: "Charles Wing has been suffering with leprosy for several years. His hands are and have been full of sores and his feet and legs are in a putrid or decaying condition. I have the evidence of three or four witnesses who have seen him preparing food, cutting and carving and cooking meats, preparing the filling for and stuffing poultry, mixing flour and making bread, cakes and pies, and doing all kinds of cooking for the 125 guests. At times his feet and hands have been so sore that he has been compelled to sit upon the table where he mixed the flour. Dr. Paine treated him with steam baths, and used the same boxes for other persons. He was not paid wages, but received treatment for services as cook.

The board of health referred the matter of closing or quarantining the hotel to the sanitary committee, to act as it deemed best for the health of the public. The members of the board were surprised that the hotel, which is operated to some extent as a sanitarium, had sheltered so many guests. The health officer was instructed to prosecute Dr. Paine to collect a fine of $50 for not reporting a case of leprosy under his treatment, as required by the act of assembly.

A Full Equipment.

The REPORTER office received a full and fine equipment of job type of the latest styles and designs, for the execution of all kinds of job work. All old type has been thrown out and their places supplied with new, and we now have a modernly equipped office. Work will be executed with neatness and dispatch. We carry in stock a fine line of wedding invitations, wedding envelopes, cards, letter and note heads, etc., etc., and guarantee our work to be strictly first class.—If in need of anything enumerated give us a call, and we will gladly quote prices.

A good deal too much is being said about the gift by Mr. Jay Gould of $10,000 to Presbyterian Church extension.

Dr. Parkhurst advises that the donation be refused until Jay Gould explains how he makes his money. That's drawing it fine. Let Jay Gould send his donation down here to Centre county, and we will find Presbyterian, or other churches, that will accept it without asking questions.

COBURN.

A Fistic Encounter Between Two Amazons, People Coming and Going. The Finances of the Township in Good Shape.

Jacob Evert moved into Emanuel Kerstetter's house on last Tuesday.

Mr. Haslett has removed his clothing store, to more congenial climes.

Mrs. J. F. Garthoff spent a few days with friends at Poe Mills, this week.

James E. Harter has received his furniture, and will occupy the house purchased by his father of W. H. Kreamer, on Thursday.

Rev. Finkbinder, of the Evangelical church, commenced a series of meetings on Monday evening, to continue all week, and perhaps longer, if it proves a success.

The auditors of Penn township met on Monday to audit the accounts of overseer of poor, and supervisors, respectively. They found the finances of the township in a good condition.

The corpse of the three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, was brought to this place from Fishing Creek, Columbia county, Pa., and interred in the cemetery at Millheim on Tuesday.

Mr. J. I. Forster, who for several years was in the employ of Joseph Kleckner as bartender at the hotel here, spent a few days with friends at this place. He is now located in Philadelphia.

Miss Elsie Geiss, of Centre Hall, who has been teaching the Liberty school, had no school last week, nor this week thus far, on account of sickness. We hope she will soon be able to again resume her work in the school room.

The elite of this place and a number from a distance had a fashionable hop at the residence of W. O. Rearick, on last Thursday evening. The worshippers of Terpsichore tripped the light fantastic toe until the wee sma' hours of the night.

Another fistic encounter took place on Saturday evening. This time it was between two Amazons, one a middle-weight champion, the other a light-weight champion, Marquis of Queensbury rules. Only one round was fought—time being called, the light-weight falling to come up to the "scratch," the heavy-weight was declared the winner.

The Public Schools to Celebrate the Discovery of America.

Perhaps to the general public the most interesting suggestion made at the recent meeting of the National Education Association of the Department of Superintendence, was in the form of a resolution introduced by Hon. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education. The resolution calls for a celebration of the discovery of America by the public schools of the whole country. The date selected is October 12th, 1892.

The resolution has the endorsement of the Department of Superintendence. It asks the teachers and school officers to do all in their power to make the celebration a success, and invites the co-operation of the newspapers. The various State Superintendents of Education will form a general committee on the subject by which an executive committee of five will be appointed to arrange a fitting programme for simultaneous school celebration. The movement is a good one, and Columbus was he living would doubtless feel more honored by the praises of the millions of public school children, than even by the magnificent buildings and stupendous exhibition now being prepared in Chicago. The interest in the celebration would be enhanced by inviting parents to participate in a part of the exercises.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them ever time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits J. D. Murray Druggist.

Charles L. Smith.

Charles L. Smith, a hotel keeper of Middleburg, Pa., weighed 375 pounds before the sickness which ended in his death.

Charley Smith was well known through Centre and Union and many other counties, on account of his ponderous form. He was a wholesale dealer, traveling with a team. He was highly intelligent, very sociable, and a gentleman. In politics he was a Democrat and well booked upon political topics. He had hosts of friends. Peace to his ashes.

Warned in Time.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The Board of Health sound a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree that with proper precaution the disease may be prevented. Ages and unfeeling persons, very any one whose system is run down, require a healthful stimulant just now. The medical faculty are united upon this point. Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquenne" rye whiskey, which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the most excellent stimulants known. The most skilled practitioners in the country endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively. Major Veal also sells Guckenheimer, F. C. H. Gibson, Overholt and B. R. Cramer at 21 per quart or six quarts for $5. His establishments are headquarters for everything in the liquor line. Goods expr. saved everywhere. THE Philadelphia Press, Daily, Sunday, Weekly.

A FAMILY PAPER Which is Clean, Unsensational and just the paper FOR THE AMERICAN HOME.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and national news is covered with a routine carelessness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.

The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as (financial) and railroad experts in Chicago and the West who keep the paper more than abreast with events.

The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.

In politics the Press knows no other master than the people and the past year has seen as has been seen before, the market fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself up to the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issue but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions and the rights of one class over another are neither recognized nor supported.

Advertisements of Help Wanted, Business Opportunities, Real Estate, etc., may be inserted in The Press for One Cent a Word.

THE WORLD FOR 1892.

"The most energetic, resolute and relentless journal in America when it sets out to accomplish any great object; I can testify to its humanity, comprehension and persistence."—GAIL HAMILTON.

We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friend a piece of good news: The World intends to aid and will elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1884.

Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of Tariff Reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, the World will be foremost in his support. The next President must be a Democrat.

But while doing this the World will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. The World never colors news; it photographs events.

The World is now printing an average of over 300,000 copies a day. It has made a net average gain of 26,000 a day during the past year. It will circulate next year, on the basis of this increase only, at least 120,000,000 copies of the abridged, strongest and best Democratic newspaper printed.

The World is recognized as a distinctive Newspaper of the People. It believes that to be the highest journalism, which is dedicated to the public service.

The World puts heart and conscience into its work and with brains. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unswerving of mystery, the detector and the terror of Crime, the friend of the friendless, the help of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the People, it gives back to them freely whatever service its influence and its resources enable it to render.

With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, the World wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year and confidently bids them to expect from it during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished.
