FARMERS MILLS.

George E. Royer has fixed himself permanently on the Zubler farm, near here.

Mrs. Cyrus Luse and son Will, of Tyrone, were visiting friends here recently.

William Weaver, sr., returned from Aaronsburg and now occupies his own home again here.

The live stock, farming implements, etc., of the late William Luse, sold at fair prices last Saturday.

James Beck has located in our village, and is ready to do all kinds of black smith work.

Christ Armbruster has rented the Ruble-Bitner farm, east of Linden Hall, and expects to flit there in the near future.

Our new miller, Mr. Finkle, seems to be the right fellow in the right place. His brother B., of Mifflin county, is assisting him in the mill.

Cyrus Luse, of Tyrone, arrived here last week to visit his many friends in this vicinity, and attend to some private business. Mechanics like him would be welcomed back any time.

A few more public sales, a lot of flittings, and the closing of our public schools in the township during this week, will put an end to a great deal of mud wading.

The burial of Katie Dashmer, two weeks ago, made the eighth new grave in this cemetery in but a short time, but all serious sickness is considered past, which greatly pleases all.

Considering the inclemency of the weather and the bad roads, the memorial services of the late William Luse family, on the 20th inst. was well attended, and Rev. Fischer surely did his part quite satisfactory to all concerned.

Entitled to Confidence.

Mr. J. D. Murray, Druggist, should have the confidence of this community, his calling is one of responsibility, very often precious lives are entrusted to his care; taking the agency for selling the celebrated Red Flag Oil should be a guarantee. It will do all that is claimed for it, and no remedy excels it for the quick cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, and all bodily pain Price 25 cents.

Warned In Time.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The Board of Health sounded a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree with proper precautions the disease can be prevented. Aged and enfeebled persons, in fact any one whose system is run down, require a healthy stimulant just now. The medicine faculty are a unit upon this point. Klein's "Silver Age" and "Dognese" type whiskeys which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the purest and best stimulants known. The most skilled practitioners in the country endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively. Major Klein also sells Guckenhelm's Flack, Gilson, Overholt and Bear Creek at $1 per quart or six quarts for $5. This establishment is headquarters for everything in the liquor line. Goods expressed everywhere. Send for Catalogue, mentioning this paper to: MAX KLEIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny City, Pa.

Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. $10,000 will be paid for a recipe enabling us to make Wolff's ACME BLACKING at such a price that the retailer can profitably sell it at 10c a bottle. At present the retail price is 20c.

This offer is open until January 1st, 1893. For particulars address the undersigned.

ACME BLACKING is made of pure alcohol, ether liquid dressings are made of water. Water costs nothing. Alcohol is dear. Who can show us how to make it without alcohol so that we can make ACME BLACKING as cheap as water dressing, or put it in fancy packages like many of the water dressings, and then charge for the outside appearance instead of charging for the contents of the bottle?

The Best Remedy III

In this world, says J. Hothorn of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koehn's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, and Weakness.

WEST BROOKFIELD, Quebec, Oct. 1, 90. The Pastor Koehn's Nerve Tonic I ordered was for a young lady of my household, who was almost useless to herself and others, owing to nervous prostration, sleeplessness, weakness, &c. &c. To-day there is quite a change. The young person is much better, stronger, and less nervous. She will continue to use your medicine. I think it is very good. REV. F. BARVIE.
