SPRING MILLS.

A Few Interesting Items From The Lively Town.

> No organ grinders yet,--no summer.

Our aged townsman, Mr. James Grove, was seen fishing again last Monday.

Mrs. Edwin Ruhl is quite sick, as are also Charles Dillet's little boy and and Mr. James Beatv.

M. Shires was the first arrival on the new evening train, and Orris McCormick and William Snyder were the first to leave Spring Mills on that train.

Some of the people of this town are continually on the run; if you meet them don't be alarmed, its only a 'Long."

There are at present two beggars in town. One begging for a carpet for the M. E. parsonage; the other for the windows of the new Reformed church. A man coming into the hotel last Wednesday looked over the register and noticed "Wednesday, May 18th." 'was spelsht du das?" he asked. Wednesday, was the reply. Is don so en mon ?" and D.
