

TO CELEBRATE.

CENTRE HALL TO LET THE EAGLE SCREAM ON THE 4TH.

A Meeting of Citizens to be Called On Friday Evening to Devise Schemes For the Proper Observance of the Fourth.

An effort will be made by the citizens of Centre Hall to appropriately celebrate Independence Day by a roaring big time, such as has never before taken place in this valley.

It has been several years since the day was appropriately observed in this valley by a large gathering and there is no reason whatever why it could not be successfully done this year in Centre Hall.

To further bring the matter into prominence and put life into the scheme, we are directed to announce that a meeting will be held in Squire Boal's office on Friday evening next, to which all are requested to attend to arrange in what manner the day shall be celebrated.

Committees will be appointed to take the matter in hand and you likely will be called upon to contribute a mite towards expenses incurred.

Open and liberal purse strings are what will be hoped for and necessary to make the day a success.

Centre Hall will celebrate and the eagle will make noise enough to be heard outside the state.

Attend the meeting on Friday evening, and give the scheme your aid. It is needed and all should be present.

HORATIO P. CADWALADER.

A Prominent Citizen of Tyrone and a Former Citizen of this Valley Dies.

Horatio P. Cadwalader died at the home of his son-in-law, John K. Ray, on Washington avenue, Tyrone, last Saturday night, at ten minutes of ten o'clock. He had been unwell for some months, but was only stricken down about two weeks ago, when paralysis of the bowels set in, and for eleven days he was unable to take food of any kind.

Mr. Cadwalader was born at Potters Mills, Centre county, Penna., seventy-six years ago. His wife preceded him to the tomb some years ago. He had been a very active business man and was connected with some of the largest manufacturing establishments in Pennsylvania.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning and his body interred in the cemetery at Spruceown, where his wife is interred. The funeral arrived by train Tuesday afternoon from Tyrone.

Whereas, It pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst by death during the latter part of winter, William A. Della M., Cora A., Katie S. Luse, Levi M. Ream, and Ellen Greninger, earnest, faithful, beloved members of our Sunday school, therefore

Resolved, That whilst bowing to our Heavenly Father, we yet would express much sorrow for the loss of those members in whom not only our Sunday school but the church also has been deprived of active and earnest workers.

Resolved, That to the surviving members of these once happy families, we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That this tribute of respect be recorded in the minutes, that a copy be sent to the bereaved families and that the county papers be requested to publish the same.

Church Dedication. The church recently erected by the Reformed congregation at Coburn, will be dedicated on the 12th of June at 10 a. m.

For the benefit of delegates and visitors to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, on June 21st 1892, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Chicago, from all principal stations on its lines, at a single fare for the round trip. The rate from New York is $20.00; Philadelphia, $18.25; Baltimore, $17.00; Washington $17.00, and other stations in proportion.

Prohibitionists' State Convention. The prohibition state convention held at the academy of music in Scranton, June 1, was an enthusiastic gathering, which included nearly all the leading lights of the party in the state.

He Opened the Safe. On Tuesday a Clearfield locksmith opened the safe in which Robert Taylor, the Phillipsburg hotel keeper, had placed his valuables before his death, which occurred nearly two years ago.

Blame it on the Empire. Bellefonte and Phillipsburg ball clubs played a game at Phillipsburg a few days ago, and Bellefonte got downed, now the Bellefonte papers can find no other reason for the defeat than that the empire roasted them.

A Jail Breaker Caught. On Saturday evening the police of Bellefonte, after a somewhat hard fight succeeded in capturing the notorious Henry Pennington, who, in company with a man named Times, broke jail in Bellefonte about a year ago.

Strawberry Social. The ladies of the Reformed church, of this place, will hold a Strawberry Social, in the rooms over Harper & Kremer's store, June 18th, 1892.

COBURN.

The Events of a Week Spicily Dished up by Our Correspondent.

Mrs. Elmer E. Cooney is spending a few weeks with her parents who live in Brush valley.

A cow belonging to T. W. Hosterman, our obliging postmaster, was killed on the railroad by the freight train on Monday last.

John Hosterman has taken a large bark peeling contract at Glen Union, for Beecher and Sober, and came home on Saturday in quest of more men.

Adam Kerstetter is at Lindale this week doing some repair work for Thomas Eisenhuth at his house which he recently purchased at that place.

C. P. Long, merchant of Spring Mills, shipped a car load of potatoes from this place last week. They are selling at twenty cents a bushel on track.

L. Moir, our perambulating rag dealer lost a valuable horse last week. The animal in some manner broke one of its legs, and then had to be killed as a consequence.

Penns. Pine and Elk creeks were greatly increased in volume by the recent heavy rain. The temporary bridge across Pine creek, constructed by the Meyer Bros. was carried away by the waters.

Samuel Gray, the boy who was hurt on Decoration day by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge, was taken home to his parents, who live at Watsontown, and is at present in a very precarious condition.

A. J. Campbell spent Sunday at home with his family. He had been to Oxford, Chester county, in company with C. K. Sober, the world renowned trick shot, who gave an exhibition of his skill at that place last week at a fair.

A few weeks ago we had stated that Luther Guisewite had purchased Alexander's timber tract near the tunnel, but such had not been the case. Meyer Bros. have since bought it, and have commenced cutting already. Guisewite however, has purchased 4000 acres in little Sugar Valley, and will move his mill there some time this week.

The school directors of Penn township met on Monday last, to have their annual settlements. The finances of said Board are in good condition, over $200 being in the hands of the newly elected treasurer; although the rate of taxation had been reduced to one and one-half mills during last year.

In view of the increased appropriation it is to be hoped that the present board of directors will see fit to remodel some of our school houses, which are in a dilapidated condition, purchase school apparatus, and increase the salaries of their teachers materially.

Halt Rates to Chicago via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the benefit of delegates and visitors to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, on June 21st 1892, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Chicago, from all principal stations on its lines, at a single fare for the round trip. The rate from New York is $20.00; Philadelphia, $18.25; Baltimore, $17.00; Washington $17.00, and other stations in proportion.

Married On Sunday. Last Sunday, at about noon, Rev. Fischer officiated at the ceremony at the Lutheran parsonage at Centre Hall, which united in marriage Mr. J. Frank Smith, of Tusseyville, and Miss Lizzie Hosterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hosterman, of near Centre Hill.

A Birthday Party.

On last Friday, May 27, Mr. O. K. Love, of Tusseyville, reached the fifty-third mile stone in his journey of life. His amiable wife and daughters thought it would be pleasant to give him a surprise party.

Things were all prepared at neighbors houses, and Friday at noon, Mr. Joseph McClellan came in a buggy, and informed Mr. Love that he was to go along to Centre Hall, as they had some business with Squire Boal, that was to be settled that afternoon to which Mr. Love, not knowing anything about the party, consented, and they drove off.

No sooner had they started, than relatives, and neighbors, to the number of fifty-two took possession of the house, bringing all kinds of presents with them.

When Mr. Love returned about five o'clock. He was very much surprised to find a large gathering of people at his house. He was so much surprised he hardly knew what to do, but finally concluded the best thing to do was to make the best of it, so he went and shook hands all round.

Then supper was announced, and all wended their way merrily to the dining room, and partook heartily of the sumptuous feast of good things spread before them.

Following is a list of presents received; Mr. John Slack, pair slippers; Miss Arabella Slack, fine shirt and three collars; Mrs. M. Wagner, fine shirt; Mrs. Maggie Barr, pair suspenders; Miss Bertha Love, three pair socks; Mrs. Mary Whithill, fine shirt; Mr. William Boyer, pair silk hose and handkerchief; Mrs. Christ Meyers, outfit shirt and spool thread; Mr. and Mrs. William Goheen, two pair linen towels; Margaret and Matthew Goheen, whisk; Harry Frontz, china cup and saucer; Mr. Joseph McClellan, pair fine shoes; Miss Mary McClellan, handkerchief; Mrs. Strom, shirt; Mrs. P. Jordon shirt; Mrs. Swartz, fine straw hat; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hartman, shirt; Mrs. Annie Rossman, 25 cents; Mr. David Kerr, one dollar; Miss Anna Love one dollar; Mr. Shadow, one dollar; Mr. Samuel Swartz, foot rule; Mrs. Susan Fleisher shirt and pair suspenders; Elmer McClellan, shirt.

Sharon Schwenk met with an accident on Monday by which he was nearly killed. He attempted to ride a fractious horse without a bridle, only having the halter on. The animal became unmanageable in some way and Mr. Schwenk was thrown violently upon the ground and trampled nearly to death, his right arm being broken at two places and his face, neck and breast horribly bruised.—Sugar Valley Journal.
