DIRECTORS SECURING TEACHERS FOR NEXT TERM

The Directors Elect Two Instructors But Are Equally Divided On The Third And a Deadlock Is the Result.

The school Directors met in session several weeks ago and got the accounts of the schools in shape for the auditors, and the statements of same have been placed in public places of the town.

WHEN YU

Are all done talking—age before beauty, U kno—the Racket, a fat and saucy youngster, a little more than 3 years old, has a word to say:

The first day the store was opened the low prices plainly marked on every day necessities were in marked contrast to the price you had been paying for similar or inferior goods.

One Price to All....

No discrimination, no tricks, no misrepresentation—was another point. Have we faithfully carried this out? We are willing to let U answer.

Still Another Point.....

Which we think we have established beyond the shadow of a doubt—is that while the prices asked U are uniformly as low as U can find the same goods anywhere in the United States, the quality is first class and up to the standard. This admitted we propose to

His announcement appears in another column.

MRS. JACOB RIPKA.

Death of the Estimable Lady on Last Sunday Evening.

The death of Mrs. Jacob Ripka occurred on last Sunday evening at about ten o'clock, at her home at the upper end of town. She had been ill for several weeks previous to her death with a low stage of typhoid fever and was at once confined to her bed. Brain fever set in and she became delirious and remained in that state for one week until her death. Medical assistance was of no avail and on Sunday her death was expected at any time, but it was not until the evening that the vital spark fled, and she breathed her last.

She was a member of the Lutheran church, and was highly esteemed by all with whom she was acquainted.

She was aged 58 years, 7 months, and 2 days. She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Miller and a sister of Jeremiah Miller, of this place. She leaves a husband and a young son to mourn her loss.

Her funeral took place the following Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from her late residence, and was largely attended. Interment was made in the cemetery at this place, her pastor Rev. Fischer, officiating in the services.

Skipped by the Light of the Moon.

Millheim evidently is not a good show town, or the people only appreciate first class shows, as the following clipped from the Journal will show: a minstrel troupe came to Millheim on Monday morning and billed the town with small dodgers announcing their show for that evening. The people who happened to catch sight of the flyers judged the show by the bills and the troupe was not patronized at all. Their treasury was bankrupt and they skipped their hotel bill. They removed their baggage from the town hall in the still hours of night by means of a plank which they set up against the outside, climbed in through a window and lowered their satchels with ropes. In their hurry to shake off the dust of this borough from their feet they forgot one of the violins which is in possession of landlord Miller who thinks the instrument is worth the amount of his bill.

Must be Stopped.

Complaint has been made to the council by citizens of the hauling of rubbish, debris, etc., to the excavation near the foundry buildings, owing to its close proximity to buildings in the neighborhood and the danger of a fire therefrom. All the rubbish will be removed and burned by the street commissioner, and no deposits will be allowed there in the future. Parties, too, have been in the habit of cutting sod from various parts of our streets and this also will have to be stopped. Even if grass does grow on our streets the town takes pride in it and don't want it ruthlessly dug up. Do you hear?

The Drowsy Men Shaken Up.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad officials are making a determined effort to ascertain whether the night operators and watchmen employed on their leased lines are paid for sleeping or attending to their duties. It is said that a number of officials on Saturday night started out on a tour of the Wyoming division. At Penn Haven all lights were put out on the engine and train and in this manner they steamed into all stations along the line, except at Mud Run, without employees discovering it. All except the Mud Run man are said to have been discharged.

How He Got Rid of Them.

A merchant doing a large business in a town in the eastern part of the State had a number of bad accounts on his books. He also had space in the town newspaper, and one day he came to the conclusion that he would advertise and offer at public sale to the highest bidder these accounts. This he did and before the day of sale all the parties had called and paid their bills. The scheme was perfectly legitimate and he succeeded in getting all of the bad accounts.

A Holiday for October 12.

The senate Wednesday passed its joint resolution authorizing and directing the president to issue a proclamation recommending to the people the observance, in all their localities of the 40th anniversary of the discovery of America by public demonstrations and by suitable exercises in their schools and other places of assembly on Wednesday, October 12, 1892.

Pennsylvania Band Tournament.

The second annual tournament of the Pennsylvania Band Association will be held at Ridgway next week, beginning on 19th. Great preparations for the event are being made and a large attendance of bands is expected. Twenty bands have already entered for the contest. Prizes will be given for the best appearance and music.

Next.

The next President will be nominated next week at Chicago, and be inaugurated next March of next year. "Now mind I tell you."

STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

Trustees Elected for the ensuing Three Years—Faculty Give a Reception.

State College Commencement exercises are being held this week and the number of visitors in attendance is greater than any year heretofore. The trustees elected for the ensuing three years for the Pennsylvania State college, are:

Andrew Carnegie, Pittsburg; Hon. George Hood, Indiana; H. V. White, Bloomsburg; Cyrus Gordon, Clearfield, and Joel Herr, Cedar Springs. About four hundred were in attendance at the armory dinner on Tuesday addressed being delivered by Hon. John A. Woodward, Hon. Francis Jordan, Hon. Samuel Downing, West Chester; President George A. Atherton and others. An exhibition drill under the new tactics was given in the afternoon. The address before the alumni was delivered by Hon. William U. Hensel. His subject was "Ideal in Oratory." The faculty gave a reception in the armory in the evening.

Returned Home.

After an absence of over five weeks, the editor of this paper, and wife, arrived home last Tuesday morning, having accompanied the National Editorial Association across the continent, with California as the objective point. The trip covered over 11,000 miles. Going, the territory passed over embraced Ohio, Indiana, central Illinois, Missouri, central Kansas, south eastern Colorado, central New Mexico, central Arizona, all along the great Santa Fe route, and over every part of California. Our homeward route took in Oregon on both sides the mountains, southern Idaho, and thro Utah by the Union Pacific route; thence by the Rio Grande Western through northern Colorado, southern Nebraska and Iowa to Chicago our starting point, via the C. B. & Q. road, thence home.

Stabbed Himself 17 Times.

Peter Schmidt, "Dutch Pete" who committed suicide a week or more ago by drowning himself in Elk creek, near Center Mills, had made several previous attempts at suicide but was unsuccessful. At the hotel at Madisonburg, he was found by the landlord in a room, where he had attempted to take his life with a pen knife and had stabbed himself seventeen times in the breast, but not striking a vital spot either time. His breast presented a horrible appearance from the wounds. When he left the hotel it was supposed he had enough of suiciding, but it was only to complete his purpose in the waters of Elk creek.

Change of Appointments.

The arrangements for the corner stone laying of the Bellefonte Lutheran church not being perfected, the announcement made last Sunday is hereby recalled and there will be services at 10 a. m. at Centre Hall Lutheran church and at Tusseyville at 2 p. m. The corner stone will however, be laid the following Sunday, June 26th. As I am invited to preach on that occasion the appointments in Georges Valley and at Farmers Mills are recalled for that date. W. E. FISCHER.

The Women Need Not Obey.

The general conference of the Methodist Protestant church has stricken the "obey" from the marriage service. The matter came up in the consideration of the report of the committee on ritual which submitted a form of service for the public worship, marriage ceremony etc. When the marriage ceremony was reached it was moved that the word obey be stricken from the service. The vote was 55 to 26 in favor of striking out the word. The women delegates voted for it.

Another Swindler.

A mean scamp travels about falls sick at a farmer's house, writes a prescription for some medicine which he asks the farmer to sign in order to make sure that it will be sent to his house. The traveler gets better, concludes not to send for the medicine, keeps the farmer's name and the next thing the farmer knows he has a note to pay. Don't sign your name to papers for strangers.

Strawberry Social.

Don't forget the Strawberry Social to be held in Harper and Kreamer's hall, on Saturday evening, by the ladies of the Reformed church. It is for a good cause and deserving of your assistance.

Bucknell University.

Commencement exercises at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, begins on Friday, June 17th and closes Wednesday, June 22nd. This is the 42nd annual commencement at that institution and will attract much interest.

HERE AND THERE.

HAPPENINGS OF MORE THAN USUAL INTEREST.

Krumrine & Weaver's Steam Tannery at Rebersburg Destroyed by Fire on Last Friday Night.

The town of Rebersburg was again visited by the fire demon last Friday night, and Krumrine & Weaver's large steam tannery was completely destroyed.

The fire was first discovered by Willis Weber, who lives near the tannery, and he had arisen from bed going to the kitchen when he saw flames issuing from the bark shed. Willis at once gave the alarm and soon had the town aroused. The flames were beyond control when assistance arrived and in a few minutes the buildings were a mass of seething flames, and attention was given to adjoining property.

It is supposed the fire originated in the bark shed from an overheated elevator box used for conveying the ground bark. The tannery had been in operation the day previous and to the overheating of the journal the fire is attributed. The tannery was operated by steam and was a well equipped plant.

There was not a large amount of stock in the buildings, but what was there was destroyed, the flames spreading so rapidly that nothing could be saved, the books even being destroyed.

Krumrine & Weaver have $5,500 insurance on the property, which amount however does not cover their loss sustained.

NO FOURTH.

No Attendance at the Meeting Called for Friday Evening.

In the REPORTER last week we had been requested to call a meeting of the citizens on Friday evening, in Boai's office for the purpose of celebrating the Fourth of July. Friday evening passed and so has the intended celebration at Centre Hall. It does not seem that Centre Hall wants a big time on that day, and no one attended the meeting. There will be no demonstration in the valley on that day and Bellefonte and Philipsburg both having a big time on the card for the day, our people will take these in, or if not, will go off by themselves and open a keg of nails.

Married at Bellefonte.

On last Thursday evening, Mr. Archibald Allison and Miss Rachael Humes were united in marriage at the residence of the brides' mother at Bellefonte, by Rev. George Elliot. Archey is a Penna valley boy, but has for several years past been connected in business enterprises in Bellefonte. Those of Penna valley to attend the nuptials were Mr. Ed. Allison, Miss Lillian Allison, of Pottery Mills and Honorable William Allison and family, of Spring Mills. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable presents.

Children's Day.

Children's Day was observed in the Lutheran church last Sunday in a highly interesting and entertaining manner. The service was held in stead of the regular evening service. The altar and chancel rail had been profusely decorated with flowers and potted plants and presented a most beautiful appearance. The service was composed of recitations, responsive readings, solos, and choruses, and the audience room was well-filled. The part taken by the little ones was well rendered.

Purchased at Milroy.

We are informed that Mr. William Camp, lately connected with the furniture establishment has purchased the undertaking and furniture establishment of his father Mr. John Camp, at Milroy, and has already taken charge of same. The family will continue to reside in Centre Hall however until the fall before removing to Milroy.

Making Improvements.

Councilman John Lee is engaged at present in building an addition to his residence. The house occupied by him has been moved back on the lot and a new building will be erected in front. He has a force of workmen engaged and will rapidly push it towards completion.

Cure for "That Tired Feeling."

In most instances this condition of the body known as "the tired feeling" is nothing less than the result of overloading, and if some of these people would tackle a wood pile or put in ten hours at sweat-producing labor, the patent medicine man's vocation would be almost gone, while that "tired feeling" would change to one of hunger.—Independent.
