Mr. H. L. Harvey, candidate for the office of Associate Judge, was a caller at the REPORTER office last week, while in the vicinity looking up and building fences.

Mr. James Schofield, of Bellefonte, who aspires to represent old Centre's interests at Harrisburg next session was in town looking up his chances early in the week.

Mr. Geary Van Pelt, wife and son Harvey left on Tuesday afternoon for Slaterville, New York on their annual trip. Mr. Van Pelt never allows a year to pass by without visiting the scenes of his boyhood.

Miss May Miller, of Johnstown, daughter of J. K. Miller, dec'd., formerly of this place, is visiting her many friends and acquaintances in this section. May was a pretty little girl when the family left, and now we know that Johnstown cannot boast of a handsomer young lady.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Daniel Horner, a lifelong resident of Potter township, died at his home, beyond Tusseyville, on last Monday evening.

Mr. Horner, while engaged in the harvest field that morning, felt an attack of neuralgia in his face, and went to the house for rest. At evening he partook of his supper and then indulged in his accustomed smoke. Soon the neuralgic affection drew to his heart, and in two hours caused his death. Mr. Horner was a stout, hearty looking man, of sixty years, who had evident appearance of many years to live yet, but his case is another warning that in the midst of life we are in death. Mr. Horner was a good neighbor and citizen, and a devoted member of the Evangelical church.

He was a soldier in the late war, belonged to 210 regiment.

Precautions Against Sunstroke.

The state board of health in offering precautions against sunstroke, states that dark close fitting clothing and such as compresses the chest and neck, should be avoided during the heated term. For those obliged to work in the sun, light clothing and a straw or light hat, permitting free circulation of air, are preferable.

On very hot days one should drink frequently but in small quantities. A large amount of ice water, cold beer, soda water and other ice drinks entering the stomach is injurious.

Cold water, into which oat meal has been stirred, is a safe and refreshing drink. Water should not be drunk in considerable quantities at a lower temperature than spring water namely 56°. Immediate death is often caused by ice cold drinks. The immoderate use of alcoholic beverages is also dangerous.

The sleeping room should be ventilated and cool. Constipation of the bowels should be avoided. When overheated work slowly, frequently cooling the head, chest and back with water. Keep a wet cloth or green leaves in the hat on the head, frequently wetting them with water.

He Killed the Other One.

Tom Harter, of the Middleburg Post, in his last issue propounds an enigma which he would like explained. The other day while out hunting for woodcock he heard the peculiar locust like sound of the rattle snake and looking around he saw the snake coiled ready to strike and sounding its death alarm. He shot the head off the snake. He then discovered that the snake had not a rattle upon its tail wewerith to make the noise heard. The rattles had not been shot off either. It is a rather peculiar and yet doubtful tale, but can easily be explained. Tom shot the wrong snake and failed to hit the other one. No rattlesnake can give that peculiar sound without the machinery on the end of its tail.

Luther Reunion.

The Luther Reunion on the Susquehanna Heights, opposite Northumberland, Pa., will be held this year on September 1st. The president of Central Synod is authorized to extend a pressing invitation to its members to participate in the exercises. Among the speakers, two have been appointed from Central Synod. Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Northumberland to Bellefonte in the evening. Here is a rare opportunity for our Lutheran people to combine pleasure and profit. Let there be a large turn out.

W. E. FISCHER, President Central Synod. Bellefonte papers please copy.

Cherry Pudding.

To make the best cherry pudding take one teaspoonful of sugar, one of milk, two of flour, one egg, one and one-half tablespoonful of baking powder and two tablespoonfuls of butter. Put two teaspoonfuls of pitted cherries in the bottom of a buttered pudding dish, pour over the mixture and bake. Turn out into a warm platter, fruit side up, and serve with any sauce preferred. Red raspberries, and late peaches, can be substituted for cherries.

No Change in Living.

Rev. W. H. Dill, the president of the defunct Clearfield and Houtzdale banks, has removed with his family from Clearfield to Philadelphia, and in speaking of this removal the Philadelphia Ledger remarks that William H. Dill's bank escapade doesn't seem to have interfered with his style of living quite as much as it did with that of some of his creditors. The immense amount of elegant furniture taken to his new home in Philadelphia created many comments.

A County Official in Trouble.

W. A. Mosher, a Lock Haven merchant, came to Williamsport on Sunday in search of his wife, and finding her at a hotel with A. W. Brungard, district attorney of Clinton county, caused the couple's arrest. They both waived a hearing and were released on $500 bail. Brungard and Mrs. Mosher came to Williamsport together and were staying at the hotel.

WHERE TO CAMP.

Romantic Mountain Scenery—Rippling Hills—Pure Air.

People desirous to enjoy the pleasures of camping out, have fresh air, eyes to feast on unsurpassed mountain scenery with its beautiful laurel and other flowers, fresh water brooks that go laughingly through mountain gaps, should pack up tents and other needed luggage and put them on board the cars for Centre county. We have all the above requisites to make camp life enjoyable, and many more right here, and you can reach lovely spots in our beautiful valleys and mountains without number, that will afford you more satisfaction and pleasure, with added health, at a trifling cost, than can be had at any of the fashionable, sweltering, expensive seaside resorts.

Three or four weeks put in camping-out furnishes you real enjoyment without the restraint of fashion, style and gew-gaw of the high-toned watering place.

Yourselves and little ones can romp and roam at will, pick berries, flowers, bathe in the fresh water streams, lie in the cooling shades of the forest trees, and have it all free of expense.

Any portion of Centre county is easily accessible by rail, and lovely camping spots can be found in scores of places distant from or convenient to the railroads; where you can have the dailies and express packages delivered morning or evening, and where visiting friends can find you, and partake of a treat in camping out.

If you do not wish to set up your own tent and find your own grub, farm houses, in our rich and beautiful valleys can be found that will give you good, wholesome board and clean bed for one-fifth the charge of a seaside resort.

There is a charm in camping-out in the mountain districts that none of your fashionable resorts can have. The one is all nature, the other all artificial and withered imitation of real nature.

Yes, come to our mountain districts for healthful enjoyment and pleasure, all the better if you conclude to do your own housekeeping—tent-out. A month in this way is cheaper than a week at the big resorts. Pure water, from the fountain head, berries fresh off the bushes, flowers crisp and lovely, cultured by nature, birds wild to sing your native song from the green foliage around you, fish playing in the laughing brooklets, and an appetite that princess never enjoy—these are some of the good things on the bill of fare to the camping-out families.

Centre county, in her romantic mountain ranges and beautiful dales, dotted with happy farm homes, can fill the bill for the summer months, to all pleasure seekers, amid quiet, and removed from annoyance.

Dog Days.

The season of the year commonly known as the "dog days" is now upon us. It was reckoned by the ancients as the period of greatest heat in summer and so named because in the latitudes of the Mediterranean this period nearly corresponded with that in which the dog star rose at the same time with the sun. To this conjunction all antiquity, and all the later followers of judicial astrology, ascribed a malignant influence. The heliacal rising of the dog star is a very definite phenomenon; its precise dates cannot be determined, and owing to the precession of the equinoxes it does not now occur till about August 10, when the greatest heat of the season is about over. So uncertain is the time that the ancients indiscriminately ascribe the evil influence to Sirius and Procyon (the largest stars respectively of Canis Major and Minor,) though there is several days' difference in their heliacal risings. The modern almanac makers sometimes reckon the dog days from July 24 to August 24, and sometimes from July 3 to August 11.

Centre County at the Fair.

Our county will make a show at the Chicago Columbian Exhibition, in 1893, in various departments. For the agricultural exhibits the editor of the REPORTER has been requested, and consented to gather of our cereals for an exhibit. Of course we will prepare the best our soil produces, from our best farmers, of each kind of grain, in various stages down to the sacker article, to prove that Centre county farms and farmers stand second to none.

Centre county in her agricultural, mineral, and fancy departments, is able to make as good a display at the World's Fair as any county in the state.

Had Two Sun Strokes.

Editor and Postmaster James A. Fiedler, of Bellefonte, accompanied Co. B., N. G. P., to Homestead, was unfortunate enough to receive two sun strokes at Homestead, and was brought to his home at Bellefonte. He fell suddenly from the first stroke received and severely skinned up his face and head. Jim went to the scene of the strike and got struck.

Mr. Harry Yearick with his wife and two sons, of Philadelphia, visited during the last week Mr. W. B. Mingle's family. Mr. Yearick is engaged in the retail coal business in the city of brotherly love and has made a success of life.

SPRING MILLS.

Installation of Officers of K. G. E. and Other Interesting News.

Dr. D. M. Wolf will open the academy next Monday.

E. F. Smith, a former resident of this town, but now of Decotah, Ill., is at home with his father at present.

Mrs. Dillet had a large basket standing against the stovepipe on the second floor of her house. She hasn't any more. No great damage was done.

A party of tenderfeet, from Bellefonte, stopped with landlord Ruhl for supper on last Sunday. They were a real good looking crowd and got along in this metropolitan city all right only one of the gentler persuasion insisted that C. P. Long's store was the railroad station.

At the recent installation of the officers of Centre Castle, No. 169, K. G. E. the installation was performed by District Grand Chief J. H. Woomer, assisted by Sir Knights, Hartman, Wiser and Tobias from Millheim. The following is a list of the officers for the ensuing term: Noble Chief, D. H. Ruhl; Vice Chief, J. W. Baer; Post Chief, W. Wirt; Representative to Grand Castle, J. I. Condo.

The Grim Reaper.

Again the grim reaper of death has entered the quiet circles of Rebersberg. His stroke took effect in the person of Mrs. Harriet Brungart, wife of Samuel Brungart. For several months past the good sister suffered of heart disease and paralysis. Of late her condition apparently improved, but a sudden change took place and on last Wednesday morning, July 6th at fifteen minutes of eleven o'clock, she was called home. She entered the portals of the eternal world with a joyful assurance of divine acceptance. The interment took place on Friday morning at the St. Luke's Lutheran church, Rev. J. M. Rearek officiating. Many friends and relatives were present to witness the last and solemn ceremonies over the departed.

Mrs. Harriet Brungart was a noble woman, an excellent wife and mother, and a faithful and devoted church member. When well her seat in the St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran church was never vacant. By her death we suffer a loss that will be greatly felt in the community and in the church. She leaves a son and a husband to mourn her death. Her age was 61 years, 4 months and 10 days.

Harvest.

Harvest is about over in our valley. Some parts of the county being earlier the work was finished some days ago. The grain crop will be a good average one in the county and throughout the state. Most of it is in the barns in good condition, the weather having been favorable.

The hay crop was large and has all been stored away in excellent condition. If the oats, corn, barley and potatoes do not meet with some unforeseen damage, there will also be an abundant crop of these. Altogether 1892 will gladden the heart of the hard working farmer with plenty.

Union County Deaths.

Died at his home in East Buffalo township, on Thursday evening, July 7th, Captain Jacob Gundy, aged 84 years, 6 months and 23 days.

In Millburg, on the 14th of July, Catharine S. relict of George Gutelius, dec'd., aged 82 years, 6 months and 27 days.

Stone Crusher Doing Fine Work.

The stone crusher in use by the turnpike company at the foot of the mountain, has succeeded in chawing up a big amount of stone for repairs on the turnpike at that place. It is a vast improvement on the old way of breaking stone.

Punishable by Fine.

There is a law punishing profanity at 62½ cents for each oath. The other day two persons were arrested at New Castle, charged with using profane language. One paid $13.40 and the other $15.70. The law might be enforced in this place with good effect.

$2600 Insurance.

The Grange Insurance Company has adjusted the loss on the Gentzel barn, in Nittany Valley, recently fired by lightning, and pay $2600 insurance on same.

Isn't This a Little Strong.

A Lancaster county farmer owns a pair of horses which are so well broken that they will pull a harrow regularly across a field from morning until night without a driver.—Exchange.

Our Life is In the Balance.

A Chicago man recently saved his life by carrying a roll of one hundred dollar bills inside his vest when a bullet came that way. Yet there are people who neglect so simple a precaution.

HOME READING FOR FARMERS.

The Pennsylvania State College Establishes Two New Courses in Agriculture.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania State College, held last week, two matters of special interest and importance to farmers were acted upon.

It was decided to institute a Course of Home Reading in Agriculture essentially on the plan of the Chautauqua Reading Circle. By this means it is designed to bring within easy reach of every farmer in the State the best and latest printed information bearing upon his profession.

The College volunteers to aid in the formation of local reading circles or clubs and to co-operate with farmers' clubs, granges, alliances, and any other farmers' organizations or any individual and outline a course of reading embracing such subjects as soils, soil fertility, fertilizers, crop production, stock breeding, stock feeding, veterinary science, farm drainage fruit and vegetable growing, injurious insects, etc., all treated in a thoroughly practical manner.

It will also seek to help the club or individual to a better understanding of the subjects treated by answering as far as possible by mail all questions pertaining to the subjects in the course.

By an arrangement with the publishers the College is able to procure for the reading circles the books needed at the wholesale price.

The course is open to all, both young and old, without charge except the actual cost of the books and this need not exceed six dollars for one year.

Arrangements were also made for a winter course of twelve weeks in Dairying, both for the home dairymen and creamerymen or cheese factorymen, in which instruction in such subjects as the breeding, feeding, and management of the dairy herd, its diseases and their treatment and dairy chemistry. A large part of each day, however, is spent by the student in the creamery under instruction of an expert butter and cheese maker in acquiring a thorough knowledge of the practical details of the work.

Students are admitted to the Course without examination and free of charge.

The short Course in Agriculture and the regular College course are to be continued as before.

Anyone wishing further information should send to the Professor of Agriculture at State College, Pa., for circulars giving full particulars.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah Stover, wife of William Stover, of Aaronsburg, died on Thursday morning at two o'clock, of typhoid fever, after an illness of five weeks. Mrs. Stover was a daughter of Emanuel Ettinger of Aaronsburg, and a sister of Mrs. Harry Foster of Harrisburg, and of Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Stover was a devoted wife and mother, and a consistent member of the Lutheran church, of which she became a member in her early life. She was held in high esteem by all her neighbors and large circle of friends and acquaintances for her kind, genial and Christian bearing at all times. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter to mourn her departure. Her funeral on Tuesday last was attended by a large concourse of people. Her age was 65 years, 10 months and some days.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. S. A. Brew Crushed by a Pile of Logs Rolling Upon Him.

Mr. S. A. Brew, of Bellefonte, and well known all over this county, met with a sad accident which cost his life. Mr. Brew was in a lumber operation at Cedar Run, in Lycoming county, where, unfortunately, a pile of logs rolled upon him crushing him to death. This was on Thursday of last week. We knew Mr. Brew well; he was highly esteemed as a citizen of Bellefonte. His age was about 70 years. He leaves a wife and five children.

Odd Fellows at Boalsburg.

Rev. Miles O. Noll, of Bellefonte, on last Sunday evening, preached in the Reformed church at Boalsburg a sermon touching on the work, aims and mission of Odd Fellowship.

He chose for his text: Matt. 22: 37-39. The sermon was unique and of exceptional power, and evidenced not only thorough mastery of ideas but diligent research.

The lodges, besides Boalsburg, represented were Centre Hall, Pine Grove, State College, Bellefonte and Lemont.

Prof. P. S. Meyer was organist for the occasion who was assisted by the choir of the Reformed church.

Married.

At the Reformed parsonage, by Rev. S. H. Eisenberg, on last Sunday evening, Mr. Adam N. Neese and Miss Blanche L. Korman, the former of Spring Mills, Pa., the latter of Georges Valley.

Plasterers at Work.
