PERSONAL.

Miss Verna Geiss is visiting Miss Elsie Barr, in Tyrone. Mr. George Swabb, of Linden Hall, was in town on Friday last. Mrs. Sallie Kline is spending a week with friends near Bellefonte. Esq. Houseman publishes letters of administration on the estate of Daniel Horner, dec'd. Miss Ruth Millard, who has been visiting the Misses Alexander, left for her home Wednesday. Mrs. Dr. W. A. Jacobs and two children spent several days with friends at State College. Daniel Mitterling and wife, of Lucas, Ohio, are visiting relatives and friends in this section. Andrew Smith, of Salona, gave the REPORTER a call, and speaks of crops being fair in that section. Mrs. Adam Nearhood of this place, has been ill and bedfast greater part of the summer. Mrs. W. W. Bayard, of Washington, D. C. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Strohm, at Centre Hill. Messrs. George and Henry Goss, of Pine Grove Mills visited their parents, on Church street early in the week. Miss Mame Meyer joined a camping out party from Tyrone last Saturday. They are camping above Altoona. Misses Maggie and Pollie Montelius, of Piper City, Ill., and Miss Margaret Gast, of Millinburg, are visiting at Wm. Wolfs. Mr. D. H. Bell, a former resident of our valley, but now living in Reedsville, visited friends in this section last week. Mrs. George Hoffer, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Albert Mingle with her two little girls, of Bellefonte, are visiting in town this week. Our townsman, James Coldren, left for Hastings on Tuesday, where he has secured good employment with the coal company. Success to Jim. That staunch old Jacksonian Democrat, Daniel Bohn, of Harris, was in town Monday; he reports crops good up that way. Mrs. Madge Wakefield, nee Rishell, with her child passed through town on Monday evening's eastern bound train. She is visiting her brother Willis at Coburn. Professor George P. Bible, who holds the chair as Eleccionist in the Indiana, Pa., Normal, was around these parts visiting friends and gave us a handshake. Messrs. Walter and Fred. Berkett, of Chicago, are visiting D. J. Meyer's family. They were delegates to the Christian Endeavor convention recently held in New York. Honest John Stoner, of Millheim, gave the REPORTER a call. Mr. Stoner has been a successful farmer, and while well up in years is still active and full of business. Rev. John M. Watson, Superintendent of the Friends Indian Mission school, at Skiatook, Indian Territory, was the guest of Mrs. M. A. Ross, on Church street, on Monday. Messrs. John Foster and Willis McKee, both active members of the Society of Christian Endeavor at State College, favored the society at this place with their presence on last Sabbath evening. Mr. Perry McDowell and daughter, of Mackeyville, Clinton county, sojourned in town early in the week. Mr. McDowell is a staunch democrat and a live progressive farmer, being prominently identified with the political welfare and prosperity of his county for many years. Miss R. L. Irving, sister of Mrs. Rev. Eisenberg, arrived last week from Nagasaki, Japan, where she has been engaged in missionary work, under the auspices of the Reformed church in America. Leave of absence has been granted her for one year. We wish her a pleasant visit to her native land.

TO THE BEAR MEADOWS.

A Party Bent on Pleasure and Berries With a Hot Sun for Variety.

Representatives of a number of families took the cars from Centre Hall, Tuesday morning, for Linden Hall, thence to proceed by "steam dinkey" over the tramway to the Bear meadows. Station agent Catherman, was the getter up of the pleasure affair. It is needless to say none had overcoats nor shawls, for certain reasons, but lots of good things that make the back-bone of a picnic, and some had buckets in which to gather the elegantly flavored huckleberries from bushes, or trees, fifteen to twenty-five feet high, which grow in few other places but the Bear meadows, and for their excellency far exceed the ordinary whortleberry of the mountains. The distance from here to the meadows is about nine miles, of which four miles is by rail to Linden Hall and the rest of the way from thence to the meadows by "dinkey."

A Bellefonte Fire. About two o'clock Tuesday afternoon fire broke out on the roof of the foundry building of the Bellefonte car works and, being so far out of town, the fire had gained such headway by the time the engine got on the ground and the firemen got a stream of water on but it was impossible to do more than prevent the spread of the flames, and the large brick building was entirely destroyed, together with all the patterns, etc., it contained. The building belonged to Beaver & Gephart. The loss will foot up well on to $10,000; partly insured. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from the smoke stack of an adjacent saw mill.

Then and Now. Mr. Frick, sitting in his office on Saturday morning devising the means for resuming business in the Carnegie mills despite the stubborn resistance of striking employes, and thrusting aside all offers of compromise, conciliation or arbitration, was an object of unreasoning antipathy to thousands of persons in all parts of the country who esteemed him a hard task-master, standing too imperiously on the very edge of his right.

Mr. Frick, on Saturday evening lying wounded with knife and bullet, stricken down by the hand of an assassin, was instantly metamorphosed into an object of universal sympathy. The thousands who held him in esteem in the morning regarded him as a martyr at night. So much for the act of a madman. So easily is the public mind swayed from side to side in times of excitement, when men seem to forsake the guidance of reason and cool judgment.

Death of an Aged Lady. On last Sunday evening, about ten o'clock, one of Miles township's most aged mothers departed this life. Mrs. Sally Kramer, widow of John Kramer, died at her home, aged 88 yrs and 6 months. Thus has passed away the mother of one of the oldest, best known and respected families of Miles township. Her husband preceded her near three years to the other world aged was about 87 years.

Death of Mrs. Reifsnider. We regret to learn of the death of the wife of J. H. Reifsnider, Esq., at Millheim, on Saturday last. Mrs. Reifsnider had been ill for some time. She was a daughter of Joseph Kramer, of near Rebersburg, and aged 54 yrs 11 m. and 7 d's. She leaves a devoted husband and two children to mourn her demise, a daughter having preceded her to the other shore.

A Good Picture of Rev. Shannon. A good picture of the Rev. S. G. Shannon appeared in the Philadelphia Press of Monday, in connection with a sermon preached the day before on capital and labor which the reverend gentleman gave to his congregation in his usual attractive style. Bro. Shannon was formerly of Centre Hall and was born in this vicinity.

Fell From a Load of Hay. Frank Bowersox, of Ferguson, one day last week, accidentally fell from a load of hay to the barn floor and broke several ribs. Frank's sound Democracy will bring him all right again to be out in November and vote for Cleveland.

Basket Picnic. The Reformed Sunday school, of Centre Hall, will hold a basket picnic in D. C. Keller's grove on Wednesday, August 3rd, and a general invitation is extended to all the other schools.

Destroy Them in Time. Now is the time to cut Canada thistles before they go to seed. Don't fail to attend to this and be accused of being a negligent farmer.

Cottages For Mt. Gretna. Information as to renting of cottages for Mt. Gretna Farmers Encampment, August 7th to 25th, can be had of the editor of the REPORTER.

Harvest Over. Harvest is over and farmers were favored with good weather for gathering their grain into the barns.

JAMES GROVE.

An Aged and Highly Respected Citizen of Gregg Passes Away.

James Grove, one of the old landmarks, passed away on Sunday, at his home near Spring Mills, and was buried on Tuesday at the Union cemetery. Mr. Grove was the father of Thomas, A. J. and James Grove, and an old and respected resident of Gregg township. He was esteemed for his honest and upright life and Christian conduct. He belonged to the Reformed church and was a valued member of that denomination. He was a farmer by occupation, but for many years retired from active life. His age was about 84 years.

A Woman Not Afraid of Snakes. Mrs. Morris, of the east end of Brush valley, while out after huckleberries in the mountains, on Thursday of last week, came across two ugly rattlers, and instead of screaming or fainting, she gallantly gave battle and now there are two rattlesnakes less in Brush valley. The one reptile had fifteen rattles, and the other had lost its musical appendage somehow. The two snakes Mrs. Morris carried home as trophies, and Jasper Wolf finished the job by skinning them. Jasper is gathering rattlesnake skins in order to have a handsome pair of slippers made from them.

All credit to Mrs. Morris for her courage.

Luther Reunion. The Luther Reunion on the Susquehanna Heights, opposite Northumberland, Pa., will be held this year on September 1st. The president of Central Synod is authorized to extend a pressing invitation to its members to participate in the exercises. Among the speakers, two have been appointed from Central Synod. Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Northumberland to Bellefonte in the evening. Here is a rare opportunity for our Lutheran people to combine pleasure and profit. Let there be a large turn out.

W. E. FISCHER, President Central Synod.

The Hot Wave. The hot wave that was predicted beginning of last week as being on the way from the Mississippi valley and likely to reach us by the end of the week, came up to time, as predicted by the weather bureau.

The wave came on gradually—each day being warmer than the previous one, until Sunday when it was hotter than any day this summer, the air being over like without cooling influence; Monday was also hot, and until the spell is broken by cooling showers, fans, and shade, and less water will be in demand. The rain on Friday evening was of short duration, and kept vegetation fresh but did not have any cooling effect upon the atmosphere.

Mifflin County Democrats. The Democratic County Convention at Lewistown, made the following nominations on Monday: For Congress, James M. Goodhart, of Lewistown; State Senate, Dr. V. I. McKim, of Burnham; Assembly, H. J. Fosnot, of Lewistown; Prothonotary, Joseph Baird; Register and Recorder, S. D. Coldren; District Attorney, M. M. McLaughlin; Poor Director, Joseph M. Fleming. W. W. Trout was elected county chairman, and Dr. B. A. Biglow and W. W. Troxell State delegates.

James M. Goodhart is a native of our valley, and a brother of William Goodhart, and Commissioner George Goodhart. He would make a good congressman.

Ex-Sheriff Lingle. Ex-Sheriff J. J. Lingle, died at his home at Bellefonte on Monday evening. He was elected sheriff in 1850, and was a popular officer, and has held the esteem of the people of Centre county ever since. He was an old and valued friend of the editor of this paper. Previous to his election he was a practicing dentist. Many will regret Mr. Lingle's demise. His age was about 78 years.

Cattle Killed. Saturday evening's train killed two head of cattle on the road running through Kurtz's farm. The cattle belonged to Samuel Durst who occupies an adjoining farm.

Dwelling Under Roof. John T. Lee's new dwelling is now under roof, and bids fair to be one of the most showy on Church street. John has great mechanical taste, and knows how to plan a house.

Lewis' stock of spring and summer clothing is unequalled in the county. He has a larger stock than ever to select from and of latest styles and cuts. The prices never were as low.

The corner-stone of the Presbyterian church to be erected in Reedsville was laid with appropriate services on last Saturday afternoon.

It is a positive fact that you can buy the best goods for the least money at the Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte.

DEATH OF REV. HOUSE.

Rev. G. W. House Suddenly Expires of Heart Failure.

Rev. George W. House, formerly the esteemed pastor of the Methodist charge, of Centre Hall, died at Woodland, Clearfield county on Thursday of last week. The deceased was seventy years of age, forty-three of which have been passed in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church. He had been in good health and was in charge of a church in Woodland when this sudden attack of heart failure ended his long and useful career. The Rev. Mr. House just moved to Woodland from Milesburg to take charge of his congregation in April. His wife and five sons survive him. Dr. John A. Bouse, of Chambersburg; W. A. and George Bouse, of Tyrone; A. Newton Bouse, Saxton, and Harry J. Bouse of Snow Shoe. Four brothers also survive. The remains were taken to Tyrone, and the services and interment were held there. The deceased was an earnest worker in the cause of Christ, and throughout his whole life has had but the one aim, to preach the gospel, and so live that men might say of him that he walked with God. While the bereft ones are sorrowing over their loss, they can rest assured that he has only gone to receive the reward to the righteous of which he has so often spoken to his flock.

Marriage Licenses Granted. Following is a list of marriage licenses granted during the past week. Daniel W. Gordon, and Annie B. Keller, both of Spring twp. W. T. Fisher, and Carrie Fisher, both of Snow Shoe twp. Theo. A. Cramer, and Annie B. Eiters, both of Snow Shoe. Edward E. Gill, and Ella E. Puff, both of Pleasant Gap. Fred C. Hartman, and Mary C. Mining, both of Wolf's Store. R. W. Colyer, of Tusseyville, and Lizzie M. Burns, of Saultsburg, Pa. John R. Eckly, and Eliza J. Heaton both of Boggs twp. Time Mertens, of Ashcroft, Pa., and Adlie Dewart, of Phillipsburg. Mike Dolynaczki, of Canaster's Mines, and Susana Sili, of Phillipsburg. Carl D. Motz, and Mertie E. Wolf, both of Woodward. Chas. E. Hopkins, and Carrie M. Pletcher, both of Howard. Albert Clark, and Esther White, both of Rush twp. Lewis D. Orndorf, and M. E. Weaver, both of Woodward.

A Healthy Town. Centre Hall's elevation is 500 feet above Bellefonte. This accounts for our remarkably healthy locality—pure mountain air, and purest mountain water. Epidemics have never yet halted in our town, and as our climatic situation is never likely to change, we will ever be sure of its healthfulness continuing. We venture the assertion that no town in the state can show a record of fewer cases of sickness than Centre Hall, taking the last quarter of a century.

Mifflin County Republicans. The county Republican convention was held in Lewistown on 19th, and the following ticket was placed in nomination: Congress, H. J. Culbertson, with the privilege of choosing his conferees; senator, J. M. Woods, with the same privilege; assembly, J. H. McClintic; prothonotary, L. Webb; register and recorder James Wilson; district attorney, A. W. Porter; poor director, G. C. Milligan. William Stevenson was chosen delegate to the next state Republican convention. The candidates, with the exception of Mr. Culbertson, are friends of E. W. Wood, the Republican leader of Mifflin county.

Octogenarian Twins. On Tuesday last was the eighty-first birthday of the widow of Michael Ney and the widow of Michael Frank, of Aaronsburg, these two ladies being twins, and both still in fair health for such an advanced age. Both have resided in the same vicinity all their lives.

Erecting a New Barn. Reuben Harter, who resides on a farm near Coburn, has a crew of carpenters at work erecting for him one of the largest barns in Penns Valley. The dimensions are 110 by 50 feet.

Repair Your Hydrants. If your hydrants are leaky have them repaired at once, as in case of a scarcity of water all leaky hydrants will be shut off from the main. Now is the time to look after hydrants.

A Success. The Jack-Frost ice cream freezer advertised in the REPORTER, actually produces ice cream in less than one minute, with scarcely any turning. We have one and find it so on trial. It's no humbug.

Mr. Enoch Sweeney and daughter, of Altoona, are visiting friends and relatives in this place. Mr. Sweeney thirty years ago, was a citizen of our town, but latterly has lived in Boalsburg and Altoona.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Miss Bertha Love After a Few Days Illness, Suddenly Expires.

Miss Bertha Love, eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver K. Love, of Tusseyville, died on last Saturday morning, after a few days illness. Miss Bertha was with the family of Dr. Dale at Lemont, and on Monday morning complained of sore throat but was not considered serious. On Friday at her request she was brought home to her parents at Tusseyville. Saturday morning she suddenly grew worse and a doctor was sent for at once, but she rapidly sank, and before the doctor reached her home she had breathed her last, her death being caused by quinsy. Bertha was a highly esteemed young lady, and had many friends, who with heartfelt sorrow followed her to her last resting place. The funeral which was held on Tuesday morning, was largely attended, the Lemont Sabbath school, of which she was a member, attended in a body, six young ladies, classmates of Bertha's acting as pall bearers. She was a faithful member of the Evangelical church, always anxious and willing to do her duty, and has early in life been called home to receive her reward.

HOW HOT IT WAS. Reports From Different Localities as to the Intense Heat.

Our weather searcher gathered the statistics of Sunday and Monday's heat from different localities and reports as follows: Potters Mills: All fired hot. Georges Valley: Danner awer es wor hees. Tusseyville: It was hot as blazes. Centre Hill: Whew, hot as t hunder. Earlystown: Gosh but it was warm. Dan. Hess, Linden Hall: It was boiling hot. Agent Gilliland, Oak Hall: Hot-ter'n Africa. Odenkirck, Old Fort: It beat all. Pealer, Spring Mills: Enough to roast a fellow alive. Poe Valley: So berdnakt hees wars sel lewe net. Lady, Boalsburg: It was just too hot for anything. Lady, Zion: It almost roasted me.

Potato Freak. A queer freak of potato growth was brought to this office, by Henry Hoffman, tenant on Kurtz's farm near this place. It consists of a new potato growing from inside of an old one, found in his cellar. The new chap getting large caused the parent to split sides to give it room to spread, and it now shows the shape of a perfect human face—skull, forehead, eyes, nose, cheeks and chin. It is quite a curiosity, really.

On Saturday last our excellent neighbor, D. J. Meyer, passed his 49th milestone, and the family with a few immediate friends celebrated the event by an elegant dinner. Dave is getting a little silvery around the edges, but he has the vigor of youth about him yet sufficiently to make him seem good for forty more years, which we trust he may attain. He has had his ups and downs like all we mortals here below, but he always manages to "keep up."

Meeting of Insurance Company. At a meeting of the directors of the Centre Hall Insurance Company on Tuesday, the losses on the Presbyterian parsonage at Pine Grove, and Mr. Garner of State College, were promptly adjusted.

Death of Wm. Shafer. Wm. Shafer, for over forty-five years a citizen of Aaronsburg, died a few days ago, aged 75 years. He was a plasterer by trade, and for thirty years a member of the Evangelical church.

Something Wrong. All over the country laboring men's wages are going down, and the millionaires are getting richer. There must be something wrong about the high-tariff, it was to have the opposite effect.

Veteran Club. The Centre county Veteran Club will hold its annual campfire and picnic at Centre Hall, September 16th.

COURT PROCLAMATION—WHEREAS THE Honorable A. O. Furst, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 42nd Judicial district, consisting of the counties of Centre and Huntingdon, and the Honorable Daniel Rhoades and the Honorable Thomas F. Riey, associate Judges in Centre, having issued their precept bearing date the 28th day of July, 1892, to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and general Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and commencing on the 1st Monday of August, the 22nd day of August, 1892, and to continue two weeks. Notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertain to be done, and those who are found in recalcitrance to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre County, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just. Given under my hand at Bellefonte the 28th day of July in the year of our Lord 1892 and the one hundred and fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States.
