Festival and Picnic at Spring Mills on Last Saturday.

For several weeks prior to July 29th and 30th Centre Castle had begun making preparations for a grand picnic and festival at Spring Mills. They probably should have begun several weeks earlier in order to be prepared had there been more favorable weather. As it was, there was more bustle and confusion than ought to occur in a well organized affair. However, taking everything into consideration, the affair was much more of a success than any one anticipated. On account of the rain on Friday evening, many of the Eagles folded their wings and gave up the ghost. Many of them consoled themselves by saying that the rain was much better for them than the festival, and nothing was done to further the interests of the affair until the afternoon arrived which seemed to have some effect in making things appear more like a picnic. The afternoon train brought some thirty Sir Knights from Bellefonte Castle. Later on, Madison Castle arrived, together with members from Millheim Castle. The Sir Knights made a fine appearance when they came on the ground. After marching around through the grove for a short time they halted at the north-west part of the grove where addresses were made by Sir Knight Alexander, of Bellefonte, and Sir Knight Aurand, of Madison Castle. Then a paper entitled "Knights of the Golden Eagle," was read by Sir Knight Tobias, of Millheim Castle. The Knights then broke ranks and went among the large crowd that had collected by this time. Supper was prepared by the ladies of Spring Mills and at which about one hundred persons were fed. The Knights from Bellefonte went home in the evening train, just as the people from the country began to come in, and by eight o'clock there was as large a crowd of people in Spring Mills as has been there for several years. Nearly all who came were hungry and the ice cream, candies, melons, etc., stood no show against them and before the evening was over the Knights had practically sold everything they had to sell. The gross receipts were about $110. Scott Eby's museum was also on the ground but his receipts were small, only $11.80, while Sir Knight Baer did a fair business with a target gun. Considering the uncertainty of the weather and the trouble caused by the rain, the affair was a grand success and everybody who was interested in the affair was satisfied. Much work was done by the ladies of Spring Mills, to whom much credit is due for their unselfish labor in behalf of the Castle of Spring Mills. Despite seemingly unfavorable conditions, the affair as a whole was a complete success.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. John Stover, formerly one of our townsmen but now from Berrysburg, Pa., was home with his mother a few days. He left for Berrysburg on Wednesday morning. Messrs. Harry Allison and C. F. Loncè left Spring Mills on Monday for Elmira, N. Y., where they enter the Elmira Business College. The cause for stopping the evening train to Coburn has been the subject of some speculation. No doubt it is only a result of the discontinuance of the station trio, which disbanded at the close of the spring term of school. Prof. J. M. Runkle, a student in the Theological Seminary at Lancaster is assistant in the Spring Mills Academy. The number of students is considerably less than there were during the spring term.

Was It Poison?

Mrs. Charles W. Swengle of Franklin township, Snyder county, died suddenly on Saturday morning, July 23, under suspicious circumstances. From the Middleburg Post of the 28th inst. we condense the following report:

On the morning of the 23rd she informed the hired girl that she was suffering from neuralgia and thought she would take a powder. She went up stairs and soon the girl heard a fall and a call summoning her. She found Mrs. Swengle on the floor writhing in agony. She lifted her into bed and called Mr. Swengle, who went to Middleburg for Dr. Hassinger. The doctor arrived about an hour and a half after she had taken the powder. The symptoms indicated strychnia poisoning. The doctor asked how many powders she had taken and she answered "One." She suffered intensely and died five minutes after the doctor's arrival.

The husband said he had got three morphine powders and two grains of strychnia to poison a weasel, at G. M. Shindel's drug store the previous evening. Dr. Shindel, on being interviewed, said Mr. Swengle had purchased two grains of strychnia but no morphine. He labeled the package with skull and crossbones and cautioned Mr. Swengle in its use. Swengle stated that his wife assisted in setting the poison for the weasel the night before and that he had taken one of the morphine powders. At 3 o'clock Saturday morning, when he and the hired boy got up, he pointed to the packages on the table and said: "There I have brought some poison to kill the weasel." When asked where the other powders, the balance of the strychnia and the speak used for setting the poison were, he could not find them.

Suspicion was so strong that Mrs. Swengle's stomach was removed Saturday afternoon and sent to Philadelphia for analysis. Mrs. Swengle was a daughter of J. C. Schoch, present prothonotary of Snyder county. She was universally loved and respected. She was aged 21 years, 3 months and 27 days.

Performed an Operation.

Dr. Lee, of Madisonburg, a few days ago, assisted by several other physicians, performed an operation upon a child, between one and two years of age, belonging to Frank Emerick, of Gregg township, which is likely to prove a success. The little one had an enlargement below the breast bone of considerable proportions. The operation proved it to be a sack containing water, from which ten pounds of water, or nearly half a bucketful, was tapped. The child now presents a natural shape, and is lively and seeming well. Should the sack again fill with water, it will be again tapped and the sack removed!

Luther Reunion.

The Luther Reunion on the Susquehanna Heights, opposite Northumberland, Pa., will be held this year on September 1st. The president of Central Synod is authorized to extend a pressing invitation to its members to participate in the exercises. Among the speakers, two have been appointed from Central Synod. Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Northumberland to Bellefonte in the evening. Here is a rare opportunity for our Lutheran people to combine pleasure and profit. Let there be a large turnout.

W. E. FISCHER, President Central Synod.

New For Old.

Mrs. Polly Royer's new house on the site of the one destroyed by fire, at Rebersburg, is up and under roof. On the lot adjoining where Harter's store was burned at the same time, a new building is also up and will be under roof in a few days.

Rain.

On Monday night a regular old style Pennsylvania rain set in, which lasted over Tuesday. A "Pennsylvania rain" is broad, and wide, moderately wet, full of corn and other grain, and helps the springs and wells amazingly.

A Very nice Orange Ice.

A very nice orange ice is made in this way: Put a quart of water and three fourths of a pound of sugar in a porcelain-lined sauce-pan over a moderately hot fire. When it has boiled ten minutes, remove it from the fire and let it stand until it is perfectly cool. Squeeze the juice from a dozen oranges and four lemons. Rasp the rind with a lump of sugar, and after the juice of the lemons and oranges has been strained add it, together with the lump of sugar, to the boiled sugar stirring all thoroughly together, freeze the same as ice cream.

A New Centre.

Swartz has been opened there—the whole giving the point all the appearance of a new town, which deserves a postoffice.
