CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. AUG. 18.

NO EXTRAVAGANCE.

In speaking of the charges made by Tom Reed and other Republicans that this Congress was more extravagant than the Fifty-first Congress Mr. Crisp declared in his speech at Atlanta.

"The total appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-first Congress were $494,456,248. The total appropriations of the second session of the Fifty-first Congress were $541,230,672.

The total appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-second Congress were $509,701,380.

It will thus be seen that the appropriations of the Congress just adjourned were $12,245,131 more than the appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-first Congress, and $38,522,261 less than the session of Congress immediately preceding it, the second session of the Fifty-first.

We cannot with justice compare the appropriations of the session of Congress just past with those of the first session of the Fifty-first, for the reason that during the first session of the Fifty-first the Republican majority enacted laws which required us at the first session of the Fifty-second Congress to appropriate $79,529,602 more than they had to appropriate for. In other words, the laws they passed granting pensions and bounties and redemption funds, &c., for which the Democratic party is in nowise responsible, required us to appropriate this $79,000,000 more than they had to appropriate.

If you give us the credit for this, and we are certainly entitled to it, when it comes to the question of comparing appropriations, then the appropriations, of the session just ended were $66,282,470 less than was appropriated by the Republicans in the first session of the Fifty-first Congress, and $113,056,894 less than was appropriated by the Republicans at the last session of the Fifty-first Congress.

Thus the charge of extravagance against the first session of the Fifty-second Congress is without foundation. The figures are official. They cannot be accessible to all, and they cannot be denied or disproved."

When the wind blows over the oats stubbles the nights begin to get cool.

We do not know whether Mars is inhabited or not, but we do know that Cleveland is going to be elected president—we can see that far plainly without using a telescope.

THE ISSUE.

We expect this presidential campaign to do more to educate the masses upon the subject of the tariff than any dozen campaigns of the past. The tariff question will almost be the sole issue before the people, and the Democrats have entered the race in favor of tariff reform and will boldly go, before the American people denouncing protection as robbery and will be able to make the voters see it in that light by sound reasoning and everyday fact in whatever the farmer and working man purchases.

The protective tariff has bred millionaires by the scores and impoverished the masses by the thousands. This is not right, and the Democracy intend to make the wrongs of protection so manifest that the plainest laborer will see thro it.

CHEWING GUM.

The Republicans of one of the Cleveland districts have nominated for congress "BILL" WHITE, the greatest chewing gum manufacturer of the United States, who has made himself a millionaire in the pursuit of that industry. He is profoundly ignorant of everything save money making out of making gum.

There are "lots" of men, in both political parties, who are just as ignorant as this chewing gum man, who have the impudence to ask people to elect them as lawmakers.

IT IS A FRAUD.

In Centre county and all over the country there is complaint of stagnation in business, and the farmer has been subjected to almost ruinously low prices for his products. The election of Harrison and the McKinley tariff, was to bring about a different condition of affairs, prosperity for all was promised, but the opposite has come. Now don't the reader see that high tariffs are not calculated to help business and can't add one farthing to the price of the farmer's grain?

Where is the promised prosperity from the high tariff? Let the protectionists point it out now.

In 1888 Carnegie contributed $100,000 to the Republican campaign fund. In return the party gave him a high tariff that brought him millions at the expense of the people.

Fifty years hence people will look back and wonder that we could have the patience to travel at the rate of only fifty miles an hour, with all the noise fuss and smoke of steam engines, while they make three times the distance with clean cut electricity.

DID NOT WANT HARRISON.

Sixteen Republicans would like to see Harrison defeated. They think the good of the Republican party requires the defeat of Benny. Judge Gresham, it is reported, will favor General Weaver, the people's party.

Nearly two-thirds of the Republican Senators were opposed to the nomination of Harrison at Minneapolis. These are some of those who worked openly against him: Quay and Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Walcott and Teller, of Colorado; Jones and Stewart, of Nevada; Pettigrew, of South Dakota; Power and Sanders, of Montana; Washburn, of Minnesota; Dubois and Shoup, of Idaho; Squire and Allen, of Washington, and Stockbridge and McMillan, of Michigan; Casey, of North Dakota; Davis, of Minnesota, and Wilson, of Iowa, refused to do anything to help Mr. Harrison. Hale and Frye, of Maine, and Gallinger, of New Hampshire, preferred Blaine to Harrison, and their influence was exerted in that direction.

SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Smetzler Celebrate the 25th Anniversary on Monday.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzler celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage in a most appropriate manner.

Quite a number of their friends congregated at their home at about five o'clock to celebrate with them on this their anniversary, and make it an occasion long to be remembered.

Mrs. Smetzler had a bounteous repast spread upon a table on the lawn and the guests did themselves ample justice in storing away the good things provided. The table fairly groaned under its heavy load of eatables which bespoke much time in their preparation for this event.

Mr. and Mrs. Smetzler received many pretty and useful presents from their friends.

The calthumpians serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Smetzler in the evening and only ceased their racket after receiving an invitation to come and partake of refreshments provided for them.

A Little Girl's Experience In a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at J. D. Murray's Drugstore.

The examination of the stomach of Mrs. Charles W. Swengle, of Snyder county, whose death occurred on July 24, was concluded by Dr. Leffman, of Philadelphia, and strychnine found.

The Buffalo Strike.

The latest reports from the trouble at Buffalo state that the strikers control the yards, and every form of lawlessness was resorted to by the switchmen. General Doyle ordered out the guards. The sheriff's deputies were beaten and driven off. Hundreds of loaded freight cars were burned.

Two regiments of militia have been called out.

Should be Cut Down.

The weeds by the side-walks and the pike through town should be trimmed before the picnic. The rains of the summer have caused the stones to appear on the road.

Potatoes Likley to be Scarce.

The crop of potatoes this year, it is thought, will not be up to an average crop and there is a probability of them being a scarcity on the market.

Mrs. Amelia Zettle, wife of Peter Zettle, of Sober, died on Saturday at the age of fifty-seven years and twelve days. On the day previous to her death in attempting to cross a fence, she fell to the ground sustaining internal injuries from the effects of which she died the day following. She was a member of the Evangelical church for many years. Her remains were interred in Paradise cemetery on Tuesday. She leaves a husband and two grown up daughters to mourn her demise.

Never get jealous over your fellow man's prosperity—it tends to help you, at least it does you no harm. What can be more unmanly than to desire to see none prosper but yourself.

Uphold the agricultural interests of the county and you do more for the general prosperity than by any other method. The farming interest is the backbone of the country.

FAILURE OF THE STRIKE REMEDY.

The annual money loss from strikes is greater than the average yearly losses from floods and shipwrecks. Some less expensive way should be devised of settling quarrels between those who buy it. There is, perhaps, something grand in the idea of calling out an army to remedy the grievance of a single workman; but it is financially ruinous, and therefore ineffectual. The theory that the injury of one laboring man is the concern of all, though it is true, does not justify, in the attempt to remedy the injury, a course of action which would require greater sacrifice upon the part of thousands than was originally imposed upon a few persons. Such a remedy is worse than the disease. The outbreak at Homestead, for example, was brought on by a trifling cut in the wages of a few persons. Before it shall have been concluded, the plan of settlement involving a lockout, strikes, riot, bloodshed, stoppage, litigation and intervention of the military will have cost more than $1,000,000. The fruitless Building Trades' strike just ended in New York has cost $1,200,000.

It doesn't pay either the party that succeeds or the one that loses. And the loss inflicted incidentally upon the general public is so grievous, so irreparable and so undesired as to generate a continually growing distrust of the capacity of the Powderlys, Gomperses, O'Donnells and other professional leaders of labor organizations for safe and prudent management. They possibly mean well, but they are over-weighted with responsibilities to which they are constantly showing themselves unequal.—Philadelphia Record.

The New York World recently published a list of 500 strikes against wage reduction in protected industries since the McKinley bill went into effect. The list occupies ten columns of the World, and its magnitude is astounding even to those who have always held that protection simply affords employers opportunities for robbing their workmen as well as the consumers of their products. The World, in commenting on its exposure of the swiftness with which protected manufacturers took advantage of the possibilities for reducing wages opened up by the McKinley bill, says there "has been no instant of time since the McKinley Tariff act went into effect that there has not been in progress somewhere within the United States a strike against a proposed reduction of wages in some protected industry." This is a startling statement, but the World has shown by the record that it is literally true.

During the epidemic of flux in this county, in 1888, I had hard work to keep a supply of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand. People often came ten or twelve miles in the night to get a bottle of the remedy. I have been selling patent medicines for the past ten years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhoea and flux than any other medicine I have ever handled. J. H. Benham, Druggist, Golconda, Pope Co., Ill. Over five hundred bottles of this Remedy were sold in that county during the epidemic referred to. It was a perfect success and was the only remedy that did cure the worst cases. Dozens of persons there will certify that it saved their lives. In four other epidemics of bowel complaint this remedy has been equally successful. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. D. Murray

A newspaper that publishes a falsehood for political effect, knowing it to be such, loses its own self-respect and the confidence of intelligent readers. So says the Altoona Tribune, and the REPORTER would add the claim that some set up, "there is no honesty in politics," is a lie, and the man who practices it—and there are only too many—is a public enemy, and honest in nothing else.

Next summer's crop of candidates will be a large one—judging from the buds already out. Gosh what a chance there will be to make and break promises!
