RESENTS THE INSULT.

The Bellefonte Republican has sent fit to answer the insulting nonsense of wrothy master Rhone against the newspapers of our county, from which he has sponged hundreds of dollars of free picnic advertising for the purpose of private gain, and now calls the papers venal, mercenary, etc. As none of the papers received a cent except his personal organ, the Gazette, that prints his "pictet," we judge the Gazette must be the venal one in the lot for it gets pay—the others get none. The wrothy master in tying himself to Fiedler's coat tail, showed his usual lack of judgment, for such a team is showing its damaging effect among farmers, grangers, and the still larger class of outside circles whose presence is indispensable to make the picnic a success. The REPORTER originated the idea of the picnic and the location and gave it hundreds of dollars worth of free advertising, and is much grieved to see general dissatisfaction with an affair that should be pleasurable, and of interest instead of a gathering where fakirs fleece farmers—excuse the alliteration—the REPORTER is known to have been wide awake at all times in sounding the alarm when farmers were in danger of being victimized. The "venal" papers of the county did not mean that they should give hundreds of dollars of free advertising for any such purpose, and then be treated discourteously and slandered for it. But, the Republican need only consider the source; we only make the above remarks for the benefit of the Republican.

Bullragging and blackguarding in political campaigns, happily seems to be a thing of the past, and we will gladly endure the base ball instead.

Georgia has gone 75,000 Democratic and Florida 25,000. The Republicans have now dismissed the idea of breaking the solid south and are breaking on the homestretch.

THE NEW BALLOT LAW AN ELEPHANT.

We were of the opinion from the start that the new ballot law would be an elephant. Since the State officials and party leaders have examined it closely, this turns out to be correct. If it can be printed, the expense will be enormous, and it will require 400 tons of paper.

Chairman Reeder, of the Republican State committee, has been informed that the Pennsylvania official ballot, as finally decided upon by Secretary of State Harity, will be 52 inches long by 22 inches wide, and in the three columns will be given the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, People's and Labor Socialist tickets, the three latter in one column. Chas. H. Mullen, who is an extensive paper manufacturer, with mills at Mt. Holly Springs, Cumberland county, said this about the Baker blanket ballot: "There is no paper of that odd size, or enough paper to cut and print one-tenth the number of ballots, 52 by 22, that will be required in this State this year, and you can say for me that there is not product or stock enough in the markets of America to allow such a thing to be done."

Under high tariffs there is always vastly more work for the sheriffs than under a low tariff.

The only legitimate expenses of a candidate, as per the election laws, are for printing. Money spent to procure an office by any other means makes the candidate liable to a heavy penalty, and he will be disqualified from holding an office.

THE REPORTER'S CAMPAIGN SONG.

Air—My Country 'Tis of Thee.

Hail Cleveland! leader, he Next President shall be, For him Hooray.

He is the people's pride; From Maine to Texas' side, It's one great, loud acclaim, Cleveland shall reign!

Then join his army now, True honor's on his brow; A patriot tried.

Our land once did him trust, He proved honest and just; In great Columbia's chair— God's noblest man.

For union's toilers he Battled bold and manfully— Monopoly's foe.

Then by your leader stand, Uphold him hand in hand, Until November's day— His triumph crowns.

Hosts to Chicago went, 'T make Cleveland President, Amid great shouts.

So tax and tariffs high, No more the fat shall fry, From C'lumbia's toiling men, Cleveland will reign.

Erst in the chair he sat, Now hid by grandpa's hat,— He'll lift it off.

Then honor right and truth, Cleveland, wife and prattling Ruth, The white-house will adorn, Four good years more.

Next fourth of March will see, Pure reciprocity, Swap Ben for Cleve.

Grand free-trade it will be, Death kneel to monopoly, Justice to all—for sure, Cleveland will reign.

If the Republican statesmen of the better class keep coming over to Cleveland at the rate of recent fops, there won't be much good material left in the Republican party by the time the election comes off. The fellows that won't flop over are Dudley, Dave Martin, Quay, and that stripe.

Politics is quiet in Centre county, but the national, state and county nominees of the Democracy will have a handsome majority.

REVIVAL OF THE COUNTY FAIR.

A movement is on foot, we understand, to revive the county fair, which went out of existence some dozen years ago, from mismanagement.

A large county like Centre, rich in its agricultural, mineral, and lumber interests, should, and can support a creditable fair, under proper management. The movement now on foot, contemplates the location at Hunter's park, on the Buffalo Run railroad.

A fair, to be a success, must be run with a view to please the public by legitimate attractions, and should be conducted by men of fit qualifications, and devoid of petty spite and a low disposition of grab.

There are few, if any counties in the state, without a county fair, and this county should not be without one.

If a few more men like Judges Gresham and Cooley and ex-Attorney General McVeigh quit the G. O. P., it won't have any leaders worth speaking about except the Martins, Quays and Dudleys.

The people of the Mifflin congressional district, if true to themselves, will elect W. W. Trout as their next congressman. He is a common man, of common sense, and will vote in the interest of the masses if elected.

WHICH HORN.

Every protection paradox presents a sharp-horned dilemma.

If the tariff is not a tax how can it produce revenue?

If taxing an article tends to make it cheaper how does it enable the manufacturer to pay higher wages?

If the tariff has raised wages, thus adding to the cost of production, how can prices be lower?

When the price of farm produce went up under McKinleyism how could the cost of living go down? Now that the price of foodstuffs is going down is the cost of living rising again?

If our imports have increased, as the Protectionists now boast, how has the tariff secured the home market to our manufacturers or protected wage-earners against the competition of pauper labor abroad.

If our manufacturers can, as the statistics show, produce many staple articles more cheaply than they can be made abroad why do they need a high tariff?

If high tariffs make high wages why are wages in Germany and in France so much lower than in England?

Finally, as we have often asked without an answer, if the foreigner pays the duty why did McKinley leave the Treasury so short of money?

These questions present several interesting dilemmas. Which horn of them will the protectionists choose?

As the cool winds of Autumn begin to whistle through the shoddy-made clothing of the poor man and give him an idea of the cold comfort his McKinley taxed clothing will give him this winter, he will think more than once before he votes the Republican protection ticket. It is a ticket that makes the manufacturers rich but it affords no protection to the working man or his wife and children against the bitter weather.

Judge Paxson's charge to the Allegheny county grand jury, on Monday, defining the crime of treason, is clear and unmistakable and has made the Advisory Committee of Homestead look pale. Setting up an opposition government, resisting the legal officers, is treason and punishable by a fine not exceeding $2000 and imprisonment not exceeding twelve years. The members of the advisory Committee and the leaders of the strike may now wish they had not been in it. Judge Paxson also says in his charge that the millionaires had a right to employ Pinkertons to protect their property.

In the city of Ayer, England, the corner stone of the memorial library, presented to the town by Carnegie, was laid. Thus free trade England gets the benefits of Carnegie's millions wrung from the tariff taxed people of the United States.

Whitelaw Reid is being made rather uncomfortable these days by the publication of the malignant political and personal attacks he made when a mugwump in 1872 and earlier on the historic chieftains of the Republican party. He spared neither Lincoln nor Grant, Logan nor Colfax, Blaine nor Conkling, Garfield nor Henry Wilson. The Tribune, with Mr. Reid as editor had all the unsavory news and comments going about these gentlemen, and its files are passing the scrutiny of searchers after lively reading. Mr. Reid is one of the elements in this contest that will lose Harrison many votes.

Sixty Million Bushels of Wheat.—A Bushel for every inhabitant of the United States. The Kansas Crop of '92.

Never in the history of Kansas has that state had such bountiful crops as this year. The farmers cannot get enough hands to harvest the great crop and the Santa Fe Railroad has made special rates from Kansas City and other Missouri River towns, to induce harvest hands to go into the state. The wheat crop of the state will be from sixty to sixty-five million bushels and the quality is high. The grass crop is made, and is a very large one; the early potatoes, rye barley and oat crops are made and are all large. The weather has been propitious for corn and it is the cleanest, best looking crop to be found in the country to-day. Cheap rates will be made from Chicago St. Louis and all points on the Santa Fe east of the Missouri River, to all Kansas points, on August 30 and September 27, and these excursions will give a chance for eastern farmers to see what the great Sunflower State can do. A good map of Kansas will be mailed free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago Ill., together with reliable statistics and information about Kansas lands.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not unholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, a blanket, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as it is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L.
