CAUGHT BY THE TUMBLING SHAFT,

A Serious Accident to William Kuhn near Linden Hall.

AN EARLY MORNING SUICIDE AT BELLEFONTE. Alexander Hoover Deliberately Fires Ball Into His Brain at the Bellefonte Depot on Saturday Morning.

A COOL SUICIDE.

Bellefonte was thrown into an excitement on last Saturday morning by the sensational manner in which a self murder was committed at the Bellefonte passenger depot, by James Alexander Hoover. Hoover was a man aged about forty years, and had been working in a lumber yard near Pittsburg until July last, when he was injured about the head and breast by having a pile of lumber fall upon him. He recovered from the effects of his injuries, but the accident left his mind place protruded about two inches from in an affected state and to this cause the shaft. When Mr. Kuhn stepped can be attributed his rash act.

Hoover had gone to the depot and purchased a ticket for Tyrone, intending to take the 5.35 train, and while waiting on the train he approached William Reasner, the night watchman, and requested of him a chew of tobacco. Reasner has but one arm and he told Hoover to get the tobacco from his coat pocket. In the pocket was a 32 calibre self-acting revolver which Hoover pulled out and began examining it, at the same time plying by the spike, and Mr. Kuhn may also new feature is a special winter course Reasner with questions concerning it, when he placed the weapon to his right temple and pulled the trigger, burg the same day. sending the leaden messenger on its errand of death into his brain, and he fell to the depot platform. Death ensued in about one minute after the firing of the ball. The suicide occurred about 5.45, before the arrival of the train. A crowd quickly gathered and an undertaker was summoned, who took the body to the home of the parents with whom Hoover still resided. His father, David Hoover, resides near Roopsburg. His body was prepared for burial and the funeral took place on Monday afternoon.

The suicide was sudden and deliberate. Hoover was in a good humor a deed. He was unmarried.

A Bear Attacks a Man. Daniel Weaver, who lives at the foot of the mountain in Lancaster valley, Armagh township, came near being killed by an infuriated she bear last Saturday evening. Mr. Weaver's brush just back of his stable and supposing they were worrying some cattle running at large he went out to see about the matter not thinking to take any fire arms along; he pushed through the brush right into the embrace of the ferocious animal. The bear at once commenced clawing him, having the man almost at her mercy, but fortunately the dogs kept up their attack and after a severe tussel he succeeded in freeing himself. He was fearfully torn, his entrails being exposed from the wound, and his arms dreadfully mangled. It is hoped he may recover. The bear escaped.-Free Press.

Important to Supervisors.

Judge Woodward, of the Luzerne Courts, recently gave an important decision relating to a common abuse of Road Supervisors. He decided that a Supervisor could not be paid for work owned by themselves.

The opinion filed by Judge Woodward has evidently been considered and prepared with care, and as there is no appeal to the Supreme Court in such cases, his judgment will stand

The decision is in complete harmony with both the letter and spirit of our laws which forbid public officials from contracting with themselves profiting their own delegated authority.

A Thing of the Past.

Prof. David M. Lieb, who has been at the head of the public schools in Bellefonte since 1878 and who resigned his position a short time ago on account of declining health, died last Fribay morning , aged about 36 years. His death has cast a gloom over Bellefonte, where the deceased was held in the very highest esteem because of his excellent christian character and general worth as a citizen.

The Columbian Postage Stamps.

Postmaster General Wanamaker has signed a contract for the new issue of what will be known as the Columbian series of postage stamps. The stamps will be of the same height as the present issue, but will be twice the width. and the illustrations will include various scenes connected with Columbus' voyage and discovery. The new stamps will be ready about January 1st.

Not To Be a Hard Winter.

This will not be a severe winter, says the sign-observing oldest inhabitant, for the big brown caterpillars are all brown, having upon them no brown stripes, indicative of the amount of severe weather and the time when we expect it.

The Happy Boy.

Chestnuts are ripe and the street boy is happy. He will do five dollars worth of hard work and miles of walking to gather in five cents worth of chestnuts a day. But it makes him sleep well with a good appetite thrown in when the day is over.

Behind the Times.

Down in some parts of Texas there is a drought and low waters, and people are praying for rain. Up here in our fast town it is different,-when there is a dry spell and low water some folks cuss the water company. Texas is fifty years behind the times.
