Must Haul the Water.

Water is so scarce along the main line of the P. R. R. that the company has been obliged to put engines to pumping the liquid at Thompsettown and the Cove, and use empty oil tanks for the carrying of water daily to points along the line where it is badly needed.

Approaching Wedding.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Anna M. Odenkirk and Mr. W. Frank Bradford, on Wednesday November 16th, at twelve o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Odenkirk, at the Old Fort. About one hundred have been invited.

Hand in the Rolls.

While feeding a steam corn husker in Woodward township, Clinton county, on Friday, C. J. Wetzel, a young man from Look Haven, got his hand in the rolls and the machinery had to be broken before it could be gotten out. Later the physicians found amputation necessary.

A New Physician.

Centre Hall is having a new physician in the person of Dr. McGehehen, from the western part of the state, he having purchased the property of John F. Alexander, who intends removing to California.

HOW IT WORKED.

THE NEW BALLOT LAW EASILY UNDERSTOOD.

The New Manner of Voting is Efficient and Little Trouble to the Voter.

The new Baker ballot law which was put in force at the election on Tuesday, worked satisfactorily and the voter in the borough and township experienced little difficulty in properly casting his ballot.

For weeks and months the papers have given much space to the enlightenment of the voter in properly preparing his ballot and there were few who did not understand it, but for this provision was made.

For the borough the polling place was changed from the school house to the sitting room of the hotel. The room was cleared of furniture and the booths and guard rails erected. Voting began early and by ten o'clock in the morning about one-half of the registered voters had cast their ballots.

The north precinct of the township erected their booths and voting paraphernalia in the dining room of the hotel.

Voting was brisk at the two polls in town, and elsewhere in the county, on Tuesday. The day was fine, farm work generally attended to, and people evidently were brought out by the new ballot, to see how the thing worked anyhow. The new law, instead of deterring voters, had the opposite effect, and curiosity prompted voters to turn out, and go through the much talked of operation of voting the big ticket. Voters generally got along well in fixing their marks, and seemed rather pleased with the method.

Licensing Engineers.

The question of licensing engineers is being so agitated in every state in the Union that within a short time, for the protection of human lives, it will be impossible for any one untried without passing a rigid examination and obtaining a license. Stephenson's Illustrated Practical Test has been published to aid engineers preparing to pass such examination; and as it embraces all the questions asked on the Boiler, Pump, Engine, Dynamo, Corliss Engine, &c., it has already met with such a demand that it is now in its fourth edition. This work, which only costs one dollar can be obtained of the publisher, Walter C. Kraft, 70 La Salle Street, Chicago.

Killed a Four Prong Buck.

The hunting party from Boalsburg numbering eleven, which included Cyrus Goss and D. L. Bariges, hunted last week at Stone Creek, Huntingdon county, succeeded in bringing down a large four prong buck. The deer was a large one and when dressed weighed over two hundred pounds, and was killed by a ball from the rifle of Cyrus Goss. The party saw several but Cyrus was the only one of the party who succeeded in bringing down any venison.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

A distressing accident occurred at Jersey Shore late Saturday afternoon, resulting in the instant death of a two-year-old boy at the hands of his father, Joseph Sessman. The latter was handling a revolver supposed to be empty and playfully snapped it at his son, repeating the operation several times. Suddenly the weapon was discharged and a bullet passed through the child's heart. An investigation will probably be made.

Deaths.

One the 25th ult., at her home near Penn Hall, Mrs. Mary A. Goss, aged 78 years, and 17 days, remains were interred in the cemetery on the 28th ult. The deceased was the wife of the late John Goss. On the 26th ult., Miss Catherine E. Musser, of the township, aged 37 years, 1 month and 21 days.

The Mother is Dead.

Mrs. Grundy, the woman who shot and killed her drunken husband near Osceola a short time ago, is dead: Her twin babies died last week and now the mother has followed her little ones. Four deaths were caused in this instance by a drunken man's brutality.

Will be Glad for a Remittance.

THE REPORTER having labored earnestly and faithfully for a Democratic victory, and which has now been achieved, we would remind all our readers who are in arrears that we will be all the gladder to have each one make us a remittance of amount due.

Admitted to Membership.

Four persons were admitted to membership in the Lutheran church last Sabbath by confirmation, by Rev. Fischer the pastor.

—A complete stock of boots and shoes can always be found at Mingle's shoe store, Belleville.

AROUND AT 92.

Nearly a Century Old, But Able to Do a Day's Work.

Centre county is noted for its longevity among its citizens and there are several who have passed the century mark, and many more who bid fair to pass the one hundred mark. Among the latter is Mr. Jonathan Tressler, of near Linden Hall, who, though in his ninety-third year, is still in excellent health and shows no sign of decay in any of his faculties from his greatly advanced age.

Mr. Tressler is still able to do a day's work, and on last Friday, while a mason was building a wall on his farm, nearly two miles from Linden Hall, he mixed the mortar, carried it to the mason, and assisted in handling very heavy stones, and did it as easy as many fifty years younger. Mr. Tressler is a Democrat and on Tuesday voted for Cleveland and Stevenson.

A TRAGEDY IN TYRONE.

William Anderson, a Cook, Tries to Kill His Employer and Himself.

About three o'clock on Friday afternoon an attempt was made at murder and suicide at the Boyer House at Tyrone. Harvey Boyer, the proprietor, had occasion to reprimand his cook, William Anderson, colored. A short time afterward while Mr. Boyer was reclining on a sofa, Anderson entered the room with a revolver in his hand and shot Boyer in the right arm near the shoulder and in the left arm near the wrist.

At this juncture William Brumbaugh, a lad in Mr. Boyer's employ, came on the scene and hurled a monkey wrench at Anderson's head. Anderson attempted suicide by shooting himself, the ball entering above the left eye. He dropped to the floor and begged to be allowed to kill himself. He was placed under arrest at once.

The revolver was of small caliber, consequently the injuries to both parties are not serious. It was evidently Anderson's intention to kill both Boyer and himself. He had been drinking.

Water Scarce.

Water is so scarce at West Moshannon, Clearfield county, that one man has had another arrested for stealing water from his well. It appears that one well had been supplying the whole community with water and finally, owing to the supply being inadequate to meet more than the wants of the family owning the well, it was locked up. A neighbor broke open the lock and took what water he wanted, declaring at the time that he might as well languish and die in jail as die for want of water.

Fire Put Out With Cider.

Baker's Summit, near Altoona, is without water for more than absolute necessity. When fire broke out in the residence of George Croft Monday afternoon it looked as if the place was doomed. A bright idea struck Croft. He remembered some barrels of cider in the yard. A bucket line of neighbors was formed between the cider barrel and the blazing roof of his dwelling. Three barrels of No. 1 cider did the business and the fire was gotten under control with comparatively little loss.

Death Near Penn Hall.

On Saturday the wife of Mr. Ivy Bariges died at the home of her husband, near Penn Hall, after an illness of several weeks. She was interred the following Tuesday forenoon.

Plant Walnuts.

An exchange is of the opinion that a farmer can make no better investment than to plant a few acres of ground with walnuts. In twenty years an acre of walnuts will be worth $10,000.

Will Rebuild.

Jenkins Brothers & Lingle have commenced work to rebuild their rolling mill which was destroyed by fire, at Howard, about one month ago.

Shipped a Car Load of Cattle.

On Monday morning stock dealer D. C. Keller shipped to Philadelphia markets by freight, a fine car load of cattle.

Bull's-Head Flavoring Extracts, so highly concentrated that only a teaspoonful is used to the quart, are the best in the market. The quality is excellent, and the price only 10 cts.

BELLEVILLE FENCIBLES.

The Survivors Held Their First Reunion Last Friday Night.

An interesting occasion among the soldiers was a reunion of the surviving members of the Belleville Fencibles, held Friday evening in Belleville. The Belleville Fencibles was a military company organized years before the late rebellion and was composed of young men of the first families of Belleville. For this reason they were universally termed the "kid-glove" company. Ex-Governor Curtin was the captain of the company. When the war broke out and President Lincoln called for three-months' volunteers the Belleville Fencibles, one hundred strong, was the second company to reach Harrisburg on its way to the national capitol. It served for three months, at the expiration of which time it disbanded as a company but all the members, with a few exceptions, re-enlisted and served through the war. The reunion held here was the first of the kind ever held.

The meeting was called to order by Colonel George A. Bayard and an organization effected by electing Robert Valentine president; James H. Rankin, reading clerk, and C. P. Stonerod, secretary. About twenty-five of the original one hundred members were present. Interesting speeches were made by ex-Governor Curtin, E. C. Humes, John Hamilton, W. C. Heine, General Curtin, Robert Valentine, James Harris and Captain Curtin the evening's reunion terminating with a grand banquet. Members of the company were present from Chicago, Washington, Altoona, Tyrone and other places. Meyer's orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Sudden Death.

Miss Kate Musser a maiden lady, aged 37 years, who resided with her mother, Mrs. Elias Musser, at the toll-gate half way between Millheim and Spring Mills, died suddenly of heart disease on last Sunday afternoon, about one o'clock. She had walked across the pike to the other building belonging to the toll property for a glass of water and on her return dropped dead in the middle of the road, where she was found lying on her face about five minutes afterwards. Miss Musser was a conscientious member of the Penns Creek Lutheran church and had in the forenoon attended communion services. Upon her return home she prepared dinner for herself and brother, her mother having stayed at a neighbor's house. She seemed to be feeling well and her sudden demise was a severe and unexpected shock to the family.

The funeral took place from the house of mourning yesterday forenoon, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Wolf. The remains were interred in Heckman's cemetery, a large concourse of relatives and friends being present.—Millheim Journal.

The Troublesome Reply Postal.

The new "reply postal" cards are giving no end of annoyance to postal authorities. They are double the size of the ordinary card, one-half of which is used to send a message, and the other half to make the reply. A half perforated line indicates where they should be folded down before mailing, and also where the receiver should tear the cards apart. They are bulky and hard to handle.

Advertisements.

Michael Moyer advertises in another column a farm, two miles east of Centre Hall.

F. B. Stover advertises real estate of Samuel H. Stover, deceased, in Harris township.

John Kline advertises notice of application for a charter for the Pleasant Gap Lutheran congregation.

C. P. Long, the enterprising Spring Mills merchant, advertises his prices in another column—he believes in advertising.

The Clara Price Monument.

As the traveller passes over the turnpike from Snow Shoe to Karthaus, and when within a mile of the latter place, he will see at the roadside a marble tablet, upon which is inscribed these words: "This is where Clarinda Price was murdered while defending her honor November 27th, 1889." In the cemetery, above Karthaus, can be seen the beautiful monument erected to her memory.

It Is Reliable.

Hardly had the signal service flag denoting rain been hoisted to the pole, on Monday morning, when it began to rain, a slow steady down pour, for which every one has hoped and looked for several weeks. Strange to say no grumbling was heard but it was agreeable to all.

A Needed Rain.

On Monday morning a much needed rain began falling and continued all day and far into the night. The rain first began as a slow drizzle and then heavier. Many cisterns in the valley were replenished and the water famine was stayed for at least a short time.

Snow Storm.

Wednesday after all the good news had come in it began to snow in the afternoon. Perhaps can go up salt river in sleds.

DAILY WEATHER REPORTS NOW.

The Signal Service Flags Now Flying From the Staff.

The signal service pole is now in place and the daily reports of the weather indications are received at Centre Hall every morning and by means of the flags the probabilities for the next twenty-four hours are made known to the surrounding community.

The pole which is about fifty feet in height was erected on Monday morning at the corner of the alley at Dauberman's furniture store, and a flag was at once hoisted giving the weather indications as received by telegraph from the United States weather bureau. Mr. J. S. Dauberman will have charge of the service. The flag staff is high enough to be seen throughout the immediate vicinity. About eight o'clock each morning he receives the daily report by wire and by means of different flags hoisted, makes public the probabilities for the day.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Mrs. Kate Voneida of Kansas, Formerly of Union County, Burned to Death.

The following account of the awful death from burning of a former Union County lady we clip from the Hiawatha Kans., Journal of the 27th ult:

Mrs. Kate Voneida, wife of Samuel Voneida, who lives a half mile east of town, was the victim of an accident last Saturday morning, in which death resulted the next day. She was cooking apple butter in a large kettle outdoors, when in some way her dress was caught in the fire. No one was near but the oldest daughter and the young children. The girl ran out with a bucket of water and a piece of carpet, but was unable to extinguish the blaze until nearly all of the clothing was burned from her. As soon as help could be obtained, it was discovered that she was horribly burned and could not possibly live. She was conscious up to the time of her death, which came about six o'clock Sunday evening. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. L. Countermine officiating. Mrs. Voneida was a daughter of John Shadel, and sister to James Maurice, Miss Lizzie Shadel and Mrs. B. N. Zimmerman, of this city. She came from Cowan, Union county Pa., with her husband about seven years ago. Eight children and a husband are left to mourn her loss. At the time of her death she was thirty-eight years old.
