

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JAN. 19.

RACKET STORE NEWS.

When U Visit Bellefonte

One of the places U should go to C is

THE RACKET

It is always an interesting store, and differs as much from any in the town or county of day and night.

KOM TO C US.

G. R. SPIGELMYER, SHER SPIGELMYER, JR.

PERSONAL.

—Prof. Crisswell, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

—Mr. Samuel Aikens, of Siglerville spent Friday last in town.

—Clem Deininger was in Bellefonte on Monday on business.

—Mr. S. H. Heckman, of Lamar, spent several days in town this week.

—Miss Flora Love spent several days with friends at Reedsville, last week.

—Jas. Potter of hardware fame at Bellefonte, was in Centre Hall on Tuesday.

—Mr. John W. Harter has the management of C. P. Long & Co's store.

—Miss Mary Goodhart visited friends at Salona, Clinton county, a few days ago.

—Mr. Sterrit McNitt, of Siglerville, Mifflin county, was in town on Monday.

—Frank Ross, who is taking a course at State College, spent Sunday in Centre Hall with his mother.

—Miss Emily Alexander, who had been visiting in Tyrone for several weeks, returned home on Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Harper, of Bellefonte, were among the visitors to Centre Hall on Tuesday.

—Prof. Neff, principal of the Millheim schools, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Neff, near Centre Hall.

—Arb. Katherman, who has been appointed to the position of extra agent on the eastern division, spent Sunday at home with his family.

—Mr. D. E. Bible, of Spring Mills, was a caller at the REPORTER office on Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. A. H. Harter left last Monday morning for his new place in the engine room of the Harrisburg electric light works at Harrisburg.

—Bruce A. Lingle, a former lad of near Centre Hall, but now living near Cherokee, Iowa, arrived here on Monday on a visit to his native home and his mother.

A Grand Success.

The organ recital, last Friday evening in the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, was a rich musical feast.

A Narrow Escape.

The other day while Paul Holloway, son of Rev. Holloway, of Millintown, was skating on the river, the ice he was on broke loose from the main body and started down the river with him.

Two Full Moons This Month.

The year 1893 opens with two full moons during the first month. The first full moon occurred on January 2nd, at 8h. 41m. a. m.

FARM'S INSTITUTE

DISTINGUISHED PERSONS WHO WILL ATTEND.

Topics to be Discussed. An Interesting Gathering For Farmers And All Friends of Agriculture.

The Agricultural Institute to be held at Centre Hall, Thursday and Friday, January 26 and 27, (Rebersburg 24 and 25) will be an affair well worth the attendance of every farmer and all others taking an interest in the important subject of agriculture.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

Sudden Death.

Mr. James Krise, of Millinburg, died suddenly on Wednesday night, of last week, while lying in bed reading a newspaper.

It Was Dark.

Last Thursday evening the colored gentry of Bellefonte sledged to Centre Hall and took charge of the hotel for the evening.

Supervisors Take Notice. Mrs. Annie Kelley, who sued the township in which the accident occurred in Montour county six years ago, by which her leg was broken, has had a verdict rendered in her favor at Danville for $2,250 damages.

Benefitted by the Cold.

We have had more sleigh bell music in the past five weeks than in any one year for ten years.

Will Furnish Music.

Dr. Hoesterman with lady and gentlemen assistants will furnish music for the evening sessions of the Farmers' Institute, 26 and 27.

Tax Collectors Notice.

After February 1st, 5 per cent will be added to all unpaid state and county taxes.

Lumber Wanted.

Wanted, in exchange for carts, buggies, spring wagons, road wagons, or repairing, hemlock, pine and oak lumber, suitable for building purposes.

An Every Day Story.

A wayward boy in Chester county killed his father and shot his mother and sister.

Subscribe for the REPORTER.

HOW HE COASTED.

A Fearful Descent Down an Icy Mountain Side.

A few days ago, after the ground had a smooth covering of ice from the sleet and rain that had fallen, while a freight was running down the mountain towards Tyrone, about one and one-half miles above the horse-shoe bend, the train halted in order to have a brake adjusted.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

Always Late.

The passenger trains the last several weeks have been late and it is seldom they arrive from the east on time.

Died at Danville.

Mrs. Jessie Beaver, wife of the late philanthropist, died at her home at Danville, on Sunday morning, Jan. 1.

Prices Up.

The cold weather has caused a jump in prices of food in the cities. Beef has advanced 40 cts. on the 100.

A Cold Ride.

On Thursday evening a four horse sled load of Centre Hall's young folks went to Millheim, where a magnificent supper had been prepared for them by landlord William Musser.

Dedication.

Governor Pattison and Ex-Governor Beaver will both be in attendance at the dedication of the new building in connection with the Pennsylvania State College.

Suffering Increased.

The continued cold weather has increased the suffering at Homestead and it is stated that nearly 300 people are on the verge of starvation.

For warm, comfortable and serviceable clothing.

—For warm, comfortable and serviceable clothing, and at the same time secure them at a low figure, go to Lewins, at the famous Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, and you will get just the articles wanted.

Is It Safe To Lick Postage Stamps?

Since the issue of the Columbian series of the two-cent postage stamps, which are of a color different from that of any postage stamps so far produced by the general post office department, the question, "Is it safe to lick postage stamps?" comes up with increased force of apprehension.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

Eraser Out of Place.

A little two and a half year old son of Aaron Harter, for about six months showed indications of something wrong by discharges of matter from his nose.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

All are Invited.

All friends of the interests of agriculture are invited to attend the sessions of the Farmers' Institute to be held at Centre Hall, 26th and 27th of this month.

Abandon Farming.

The economic society will abandon farming as unprofitable, and will dismiss about 300 laborers inside of a month.

Lost $100 in Stamps.

Last Thursday Senator Meek had $100 worth of postage stamps on his desk in the Senate chamber at Harrisburg, and shortly after the stamps were missing, having been picked up by some sticky fingered chap.

Home Talent.

Among the home helpers at the coming Farmers' Institute, 26 and 27 inst., will be Miss Marion Fischer, Miss May Rhone, Miss Maggie Hanna and John Keller.

Report Untrue.

The report of the destruction of Greenwood furnace by fire, turns out to have been untrue.

HERE AND THERE

NEWS ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Not on the Program.—State College Students' "Horse-Play" at a Concert.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

How Mingle Succeeds.

There are various methods employed to bring about success in business. Mingle has relied on but one method.

Thus far the following able speakers have promised to be present and deliver addresses upon topics mentioned:

Dr. Atherton, president of State College, topic —

Prof. Burkhout, State College, "Insects and their Relation to Plants;" "Forests and the Farmer."

Gen. Beaver: "Reform in Road-making;" "The Legal Aspect of the Repeal of the Fence Law of 1700."

Hon. Gerard C. Brown, of York, Friday: "The Potato Crop;" "The Farmers' Interest in Legislation."

Dr. Calder, of Harrisburg, Thursday and Friday: "Essentials for a Good Crop;" "Fruit Growing for Profit;" "Educating Children to Become Farmers."

Jas. McCracken, of Jefferson county: "How to Destroy Canada Thistles;" "Sheep for Profit."

D. F. Fortney, Friday afternoon: "What Legislation Does the Farmer Need?"

Prof. C. R. Neff, Friday evening, "Geology in Relation to Farming."

Hon. M. Whitehead, Washington, D. C., topic: "Farmers to the Front;" "The Old and the New Agriculture."

Besides these there will be essays and recitations by our home talent, music, question box, etc., to lend variety and interest to each session.

Three sessions each day—morning, afternoon and evening.

These meetings will be interesting to all farmers especially.

Don't miss a good thing.

Evening Services.

Rev. Eisenberg commenced a series of evening services, in the Reformed church on last Tuesday evening which will be continued during the entire week.

A Neat Sum.

By means of the very successful organ recital given at the Presbyterian church at Bellefonte last Friday evening, over $550 was cleared which goes for the benefit of repairing the church.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the Democratic Electors of the borough of Centre Hall, Centre county, Pa., that a nominating convention will be held in Esq. Boal's office on Saturday evening January 28, 1893, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of making nominations to be placed upon the official ballot to be voted February 21st 1893.

Died at Bellefonte.

Evan B. McNight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNight, of Bellefonte, died on the evening of the 4th, at the residence of his father.

A Narrow Escape.

A saw log, which was being skidded down the mountain, got out of its course and dashed through the house of William Rockey, in Sugar Valley.

Re-opening.

The newly repaired Evangelical church at Zion will be re-opened to the worship of God, Sunday, Jan. 29. Rev. Benfer, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Finkbinder, of Millheim, will preach on this occasion.

For Rent.

A two-story dwelling house and lot, with stable, etc., at Centre Hall station is for rent. Possession given at any time. Apply to F. Kurtz.

Prices Reduced.

C. P. Long is selling winter goods at reduced prices to reduce the stock to get ready for spring goods.

Union County Deaths.

In Millinburg, on the 5th of January, Joseph Gotshall, aged 50 years, 1 month and 15 days.

In East Buffalo township, on the 58th of December, Luther Kuhns, aged 25 years, 8 months and 27 days.

At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Rothermel, Lewisburg, on the 27th of December, Mrs. Hannah Hillbish, relict of Jacob Hillbish, de'd, aged 87 years.

In Lewisburg, on the 6th of January, George W. Procter, aged about 68 years.

In Lewisburg, on the 9th January, Margaret M., relict of James M'Creight aged 77 years. Interred at Buffalo X Roads.

In Hartley township on the 10th of January, John Lucas, aged about 82 years.

Covers All.

The great Columbus Blizzard Storm Coat, $10.00

The great Reciprocity Overcoat, $10.00.

The great Protective Tariff Suit $10.00.

The great Free Trade Suit, $10.00.

Children's suits and overcoats in endless variety.

MONTGOMERY & Co. Bellefonte

Sleighing Good.

Good sleighing on a little snow is a rare thing—but we have had it all the same for nearly three or four weeks.

Energetic and Prosperous.

The Centre Hall REPORTER, Frederick Kurtz, proprietor, has entered on its 66th volume. It was never more prosperous in its history, or displayed more energy.—Williamsport Times.

Death of a Well Known Physician.

Dr. Allport, a well known physician of Phillipsburg, died on the 7th. He was highly esteemed in the town and vicinity, and was prominent in a number of orders.

Candidates for County Superintendent.

The candidates for county Superintendent will be Prof. C. R. Neff, Sup't. Gramley, Prof. Rothrock, of Boalsburg, and Prof. Andrews of Phillipsburg.

Send Him Around.

Where is the fellow who predicted this would be a mild winter? Send him around to the REPORTER office, we have a fifteen inch cake of ice for him to sit on and reflect.

—Bed blankets $1 per pair at C. P. Long & Co.

—A well-fitting suit to a great extent helps make a man. Give Lewins at Bellefonte your order for a fine suit and you will not be amiss.

How a Mother Saved Her Boy.

Little Robert Fry lives at Silver Lake; his mother and father love him with parental devotion; he is a bright little fellow.

GRAIN MARKET.

Table with 2 columns: Grain Name and Price. Includes Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Barley, Buckwheat.

PRODUCE AT STORES.

Table with 2 columns: Produce Name and Price. Includes Butter, Eggs, Lard, Shoulders, Ham, Tallow, Potatoes, Sides.

LADIES', MISSES'..... AND CHILDREN'S

COATS

at great reductions.

Muffs, Clouds, Boas, Leg-gins and seasonable goods in great variety.

FUR RUGS, TABLE COVERS.

Lace and Heavy Curtains and the little sash draperies.

Try Hayne's wood gloss and save money.

A fine line of

MEN'S NECK WEAR

Night Shirts, Etc.

Garmans.