CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JAN. 26.

COAL FAMINE.

From all parts of the country come complaints of a coal famine. Coal is hard to get and families and industrial establishments are put to great inconvenience thereby. Centre county is no better off. It is anthricite coal that is hard to get.

What's the matter?

Is this a pinch of the coal combination with some ulterior purpose in view?

There is enough of coal in Pennsylvania for a thousand years, and it never was hard to get.

There are thousands of hands ready. to mine it, as always. There is no explanation, as yet, why coal can't be had.

One, and the only reason given, is that cars are scarce. That's too thin. The principal use for cars was to transport coal, and since hardly any is going over the roads, what are these cars being used for ?

There is some object in all this, and we are inclined to believe it is to hurt others than the coal lords and railroad companies.

A legislative investigation of this pinch might not be out of place, and the REPORTER wou ld advise it.

THE WHISKY trust pool is going to divide its effects and wind up. Whiskey has had fellows in the pool every day, with a winding gait, and caused the winding up of many a poor fellow.

Hill, who is as black as coal, with teeth as white as snow, lay on a cot with his ear and forehead swathed in bandages, and told the story of his wild ride. He said he jumped on the engine at Elizabeth while it was rapidly moving. "I was out of a job and busted," said he, "and wanted to get to Chester to get work at moulding. When de express come along I shouted to my pal dat I was gone to take a flyer on de cow catcher. He said he was gone ter work de freight. I hadn't no time for slow travel, so just as de locomotive come bilin' along, I dived for de cowcatcher and caught de flagstaff and jerked myself on to de pilot. I just braced me feet in de bars of de cowcatcher and wrapped me arm around de flagstaff an' let er go."
