

THE TITLE "The Plumed Knight," so frequently and so admirably used by thousands of enthusiastic partisans in speaking of the late James G. Blaine, was bestowed upon that popular American statesman by Robert G. Ingersoll in Cincinnati seventeen years ago. Col. Ingersoll, then a delegate from Illinois to the Republican National Convention, made the speech putting in nomination Mr. Blaine for the office of President. This was the first convention in which Mr. Blaine was named for that office, and he attained 285 votes on the first ballot, against 123 for Oliver P. Morton, 113 for Secretary Bristow, 99 for Roscoe Conkling, 61 for R. B. Hayes (afterward installed as President), 58 for Gov. Hartman, 11 for Gov. Jewell, and 3 for W. A. Wheeler (afterwards installed as Vice-President). This was in part what Col. Ingersoll said: "James G. Blaine is now, and has been for years, the bearer of the sacred standard of the Republican party. I call it sacred, because no human being can stand beneath its folds without becoming and without remaining free. For the Republican party to desert its gallant leader now is as though an army should desert their General upon the field of battle. Like an armed warrior, like a plumed knight, James G. Blaine marched down the halls of the American Congress and threw his shining lance, full and fair, against the brazen forehead of the defamers of his country."

A New License Bill.
Representative Mansfield, of Beaver, has introduced a bill in the legislature providing for elections on the license question, drawn by ex-Chief Justice Agnew, provides for the first election to be held on the third Tuesday of February after the passage of this act, and every third thereafter. The voter shall cast a ballot containing the words "license" or "no license," to be placed in a separate box, counted and returned to the court. In the county or city voting no license, the court shall refuse all applicants. In the event of a city within a county voting one way and the county the other, the court may grant license in the division voting for it, but not in the other. The act does not repeal any special law now existing which prohibits the sale of liquor, and excepts special license to druggists to sell for medicinal purposes. Sales in districts where a majority has voted against license shall be punished according to the general law for sales without license. Officers convicted of neglect to perform their duty shall be liable to a fine of $100 and imprisonment.

A Little Girl's Experience In a Lighthouse.
Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew rapidly until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at J. D. Murray's.

The Railroad Company's Exhibit.
The Pennsylvania Railroad company will have a number of unique relics on exhibition at the World's Fair. Among the articles so far collected is a section of rails from the Old Portage road by which the trip over the mountains was made when the great canal was still in existence. They also have the original pencil drawing of the entrance to the old Allegheny tunnel at Gallitzin, which was made in 1852, before any trains were run through it. The company has five acres of space at the fair. There will be considerable rivalry between it and the Baltimore and Ohio.

Anti-Option.
This bill, last week passed the senate by a vote of 40 to 29. Mr. Cameron was against the bill, and Mr. Quay paired in its favor. The affirmative vote in the senate consisted of 27 Republicans and 13 Democrats, and the negative vote of 9 Republicans and 29 Democrats. It is believed the secret motive back of the bill is to give the great flouring mills and elevators of the West an advantage in handling wheat by shutting out operations on the exchanges, which held the prices up. The advocates of the bill, however, vehemently deny this, and claim the bill will have the opposite effect and benefit the farmer.
