THEY ARE HUSTLING.

Applicants for the Postoffice Springing Up Every Day.

Since the government passed into the hands of the Democrats, and a the table of a god. change will be made in the pestmentership at Centre Hall, the applicants for the same are becoming numerous, and new ones are heard of almost every day. The number of those who have already filed their claims with congressman Kribbs, number about eight, and each one is assured that his claim is the best and that he shall have the pleasure of handing out the mail to his competitors. A great rivalry exists between several of the candidates and they are losing much sleep over the appointment.

As the appointment, according to the rule of President Cleveland which allows officials to fill out their full terms, will not be made until July, several months intervene before the political plum will be knocked off the tree, and the boys are causing themselves much needless early anxiety. They had better keep on their pants yet awhile, or the early trouble will incapacitate them from serving in the official position as postmaster.

Died at Boalsburg.

Mr. Wash Williams, a highly respected citizen of Boalsburg, died at his home on Tuesday evening from a complication of diseases. He had not been in the best health for some time, but was not confined to his bed and was able to teach school up to Friday. His sickness assumed a serious turn on Saturday and he gradually grew worse until Tuesday evening, when the end came. He had long suffered from diabetis, but stoically withstood the ravages of the disease until his demise. Mr. Williams was one of the oldest school teachers in the county and was very popular.
