ANNOUNCEMENT.

SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce that Geo. B. Crawford, of Gregg, will be a candidate for Sheriff, subject to Democratic rules.

REGISTER.

We are authorized to announce that W. J. Carlin, of Rebersburg, will be a candidate for Register, subject to Democratic rules.

TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce that John F. Potter, of Boggs twp., will be a candidate for Treasurer, subject to Democratic rules.

JERRY RUSK'S SUCCESSOR.

Uncle Jerry Rusk's official successor in the Agricultural department, Secretary Morton, who is a practical farmer, declares that he can husk more corn in a given time than any man west of Missouri river. "I think nothing of husking 200 bushels in a day when the weather is propitious," he says: In a "shucking match" with ex-Senator Van Wyck, of Nebraska, a few years ago, Mr. Morton claims to have beaten his rival badly in a scratch of six hours. The prize in that contest was a sorrel colt, which the secretary still possesses.

GEN. HASTINGS.

It looks to us as if there was a quiet effort being made in certain Republican quarters to prevent the nomination of Gen. Hastings for governor. It is not a Democratic fight, but as the General seems clearly to be the choice of the rank and file of his party, we are anxious to see whether the machine can again defy the demands of the Republican masses as was done when Delamater was nominated.

The REPORTER then announced "the bosses might lick Hastings but they couldn't 'lect Delamater." And so it turned out.

THE GRANTING OF LICENSES.

That Philadelphia judge, who wants the granting of liquor licenses taken from the courts because of the temptation to make money out of the work, can escape temptation by resigning his office. He is reported to have said: "From the propositions I have already received I believe I could make $100,000 out of the License Court. I want you to understand that they are getting very near my price, and I want the matter taken away from the bench."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Clean Up.

Chief Burgess Riter is starting a crusade in the right direction by issuing an order for a general clean up of all alleys and streets in town. He does this for the furtherance of public health and the general welfare of the town. Thoroughfares will have to be removed of all rubbish and filth, and the mayor proposes to see that it is done too.

Few if any Empty.

Centre Hall's population will remain about the same for 1893, and only one or two if any dwelling houses will remain unoccupied. A few families will remove to other places, while others will move into the town. There will be a general flit about moving day.

Making Time Again.

Trains are running on schedule time once again, and now seldom play truant and come in late. The warm weather is accountable for this, and it pleases the traveling public generally.

COL. LEVI MAISH, of York, is urged for Commissioner of Pensions. The President could not make a more deserving appointment. The Col. was a brave soldier and served three terms in congress, also two terms in the state legislature, with the writer hereof.

Unscrupulous practices permeate the methods of to-day. Bull's-Head Flavoring Extracts are prepared with conscientious care, and are, therefore, of unusual merit. Price 10 cts.

—Our suits for men and boys cannot be equaled by any dealer in the county. Spring styles now in stock. Prices right. Philad. Branch, Bellefonte.

DEATH OF A LUNATIC.

Lost His Mind on Account of the Fickleness of a Woman.

A man named Bierly, who lived near Tylersville, died Sunday night. The deceased was a lunatic and had been kept confined for nearly sixty years. When a young man he was disappointed in love and on account of the fickleness of the woman he loved lost his mind. He was kept for many years in a house built for him on the farm of his brother near Tylersville. Of late he had become dangerous and no one but a woman could approach him. He was kept chained in his room and the wife of his brother was the only person who could with safety minister to his wants. Saturday night last he fell from his bed and broke his arm. The shock to his worn out system could not be survived. The deceased was a man nearly eighty years of age. What a life his must have been! For nearly three score years he has not seen the light of day only through the windows of his prison. Why he was not sent to the asylum we do not know but at last he has been called from earth and his season of darkness is at an end.

Headless.

Our columns are open for the fellow who eats the most eggs on Sunday. One dozen, two dozen, which?

The constant fault finder has no good in him and is always miserable.

Nine tailors make a man, but one croaker disturbs an entire neighborhood.

Eggs are fourteen cents per dozen and Easter is two days off.

Things generally brought good prices at Wm. Shool's sale.

Accidents.

At Colyer's saw mill, on Monday, while cutting spokes, John Zerby had the end of one of his thumbs taken off by a saw.

A man by name of Coble, while loading logs at Linden Hall, same day, had the finger next to the little finger torn off at the second joint, by getting it fast in the chain used in working upon the logs

Dr. Emerick was called to dress the injured bones.

W. D. Breon, of Wolf's Store, had one finger cut off and another badly injured, from coming in contact with a saw on a mill near that place.

Where Some People Get Their News.

An exchange says most editors are acquainted with the man who takes more papers than he can read consequently he has no time for the local papers. He usually takes a paper that is published in Portland, Maine. It contains the late news about "The Smuggler's Cruise or the adventures of Big Moses, the Bandit King," and while he is storing his mind with such information his wife is reading almanacs.

Wait for Them.

Messrs. Huyett, Meyer & Boozer will place two wagons on the road during the month of April to canvass the villages of Nittany, Brush and Penns vallies, in the interest of their corn-planter and farm implements for which they are agents. Their ad. appears in another colum. They have something new to say each week in the Reporter. Read it.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. D. Murray.

Near About Over.

The public sale and free dinner season is about over for this year and but few days remain yet of the month for them. The number this year has been up to the average, while the weather has been such that the attendance was good.

Still to be Carried On.

The cattle business conducted by Mr. D. C. Keller and Charles Bradford, will be continued, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Keller has removed to Turbotville. They will continue to buy stock.

CYRUS GOSS' SALE, Sat. Ap. 8,

The sale of Cyrus Goss, announced on opposite page, has been changed to Saturday April 8, at 1 p. m. Household goods, &c. Mind the change.

Two Valuable Friends.

1. A physician cannot be always had. Rheumattsm, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises and Burns occur often and sometimes when least expected. Keep handy the friend of many households and the destroyer of all pain, the famous Red Flag Oil. 25 cents.

2. Many a precious life could be saved that is being racked to death by that terrible cough. Secure a good night's rest by investing 25 cents for a bottle of Pan-Tina, the great remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Trial bottles of Pan-Tina free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

Horse Collars.

A complete line of horse collars at Boozer Bros., from 75 cents up. Fine stock and large assortment on hand.

TREATMENT BY INHALATION!

1529 Arch St., Philad'a Pa.

For Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Hay Fever, Headache, Debility, Rheumatism, Neuralgia,

AND ALL CHRONIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

It has been in use for more than twenty years thousands of patients have been treated, and over one thousand physicians have used it and recommend it—a very significant fact.

It is agreeable. There is no nauseous taste, nor after-taste, nor sickening smell.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mod of Action and Results," is the title of a book of 200 pages published by Drs. Starkey & Palen, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned to die by other physicians.
