PERSONAL

Mrs. William Wolf has been visiting in Williamsport the last week. Miss Schoch, of New Berlin, is the guest of her cousin Miss Anna Mingle. Mrs. Emma Wolf, of Rebersburg, visited several days this week in Centre Hall. Mrs. D. F. Luse returned home this week after an eight weeks' visit to Illinois. Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, spent several days with friends in town. Mrs. Zeb Krise, of Lewisburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Love, on Church street. J. H. Ishler, of Tusseyville, gave us a call. He reports crops looking fine over there. Hen. Boozer made a business trip to Oil City on Wednesday, returning on Saturday afternoon. Christ H. Murray, arrived home on Monday evening on a vacation previous to his graduation at Princeton College. Mrs. D. C. Runkle, formerly of this place, but now of Pittsburg, arrived on Saturday and will spend several weeks with friends in Centre Hall and vicinity. Mrs. J. C. Boal, and Mrs. Sallie Kline left this morning for Dillsburg and will spend several days with Mr. Boal's brother, Rev. Barr, who met with a serious accident. Mr. J. M. Burkholder, of Cass-town, Ohio, came in east to attend the funeral of his brother. Mr. Burkholder will remain for several days yet visiting in this section before returning. Mrs. Alex Shannon, of Kansas, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Lohr. Mrs. Shannon will visit friends and relatives in the east before returning to her home in the prairie state. Col. D. S. Dunham, of Bellefonte, was a caller on Wednesday. He was on his way driving from Bellefonte to Mifflinburg. The Col. is a journalist at heart, though is not at present connected with any organ. Wednesday morning, George Krumrine, son of Mr. Sidney Krumrine, of Rebersburg, arrived at Centre Hall, from Chicago, where he had been located the last several months, being employed on the World's fair buildings. Mr. and Mrs. James Neff arrived last week from their home at La Cueva, New Mexico, on a visit to their native home. James is farming in New Mexico, and has been in the far west for several years. Their trip east was hastened by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Lafayette Neff, whose condition is still showing no improvement. Prof. W. B. Chriswell departed for his home at Carleton, N. Y., on Wednesday morning, where he will spend his vacation during the coming summer. The Prof. had been taking views of all points of the valley with a camera, and he goes home well loaded with fine snap shots of scenery. The Prof. has demonstrated the fact that he is an able and competent instructor, and we hope he will again return and continue in his present capacity at the opening of the schools next fall.

HONORED DEAD

TRIBUTE PAID TO THE MEMORY OF DEPARTED HEROES.

Propitious Weather and a Large Crowd.—C. H. Murray, of Princeton College Delivers a Masterly Address.

Tribute to the memory of departed heroes of war was never more loyally paid by their surviving comrades in arms and the public in general than at the exercises of memorial Day at Centre Hall on Tuesday evening. The weather was of the most favorable kind, with the sun shining brightly from a clear sky overhead. The town began to fill early in the afternoon with people from the valley, and by six o'clock the number congregated was larger than at any previous Memorial exercises.

About nine o'clock in the morning a detachment from Co. B, N. G. P., of Bellefonte, arrived in town and proceeded to the cemetery where they decorated the grave of a comrade, and then fired three volleys over it. About six o'clock, the G. A. R. formed in line in the grove at the foot of town and proceeded to the cemetery. In the parade were members of the I. O. O. F. and many children all bearing flowers. The line of march was direct to the cemetery under the inspiring strains of martial music. Upon arrival at the cemetery, prayer was offered by Rev. S. H. Eisenberg, after which the parade was broken into squads, each to decorate the grave of some comrade. In the center of the cemetery was erected a handsome floral monument dedicated to the unknown dead, and such was the inscription upon it, worked out in flowers.

The G. A. R. formed in line fronting the monument. Commander Brislin introduced the orator of the day, Mr. Chris. H. Murray. It was the first appearance of Chris. before the public as an orator at his home, and the ancient aphorism carries little weight when it is said that a prophet is without honor in his own country. Such are not the circumstances attached in this instance. His address was a masterly one, abounding in brilliancy of metaphor and true oratorical effect.

Mr. Murray opened his oration by a tribute to Columbus and the glory of his immortal deeds, he pointed out the underlying philosophical basis of the late rebellion and its ethical and economic outcome. He concluded his address by a glowing tribute to the un-rewarded heroes of the war and a plea for the realization of our nation's destiny—the dialectic union of liberty and authority and a universal catholic freedom.

His voice was clear and distinct, without the least tremor, and showed not the least sign of nervousness. The usual result of a Memorial Day address upon the audience is to scatter them over the ground, out of hearing distance, but on Tuesday the audience was unusually attentive, and not one made a move to retreat from the crowd. He held his audience during the entire address which lasted about twenty minutes.

A poem was then recited by the author, Mrs. M. W. Thomas, which was replete with poetic thought. The poem was dedicated to the day, in honor of the departed ones who will answer only at the last roll call. It was well delivered, and the author deserved commendation in its preparation.

A hymn was then sung by male voices, after which Rev. Fischer pronounced the benediction, and the Memorial Day services for 1893 was at an end.

They are Thoroughly Read.

The advertiser gets more for his money now than formerly, because the greater attractions of the newspapers increase the number of newspaper readers, and besides the newspapers are read more thoroughly now than ever before. The advertising columns are an interesting feature of well conducted newspapers, and are read about as generally as the news columns.

Two Good New Laws.

Governor Pattison signed the bill requiring school directors or controllers to furnish school books and other school supplies free of cost to pupils of public schools. He also signed a bill requiring county commissioners to procure, bind and preserve weekly newspapers published in their respective counties.

A New Law Wanted.

An exchange wants the game law amended so that book agents can be legally killed from September 1st to October 1st; spring poets from March 1st to July 1st and scandal-mongers at any time.

Shows Improvement.

A few new houses at Lemont show some signs in improvement in that village. Its neighbor, State College, however, outstrips it for growth. Both are neat villages.

C. P. Long & Co. have just received a large stock of chain and lever pumps. Come and see them.

DEATH AT TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. Margaret Ruble Dies After a Long Illness.

Mrs. Margaret Ruble, widow of Peter Ruble, who died about fifteen years ago, died on Tuesday, at Tusseyville, at the advanced age of seventy-three years. Mrs. Ruble had enjoyed good health until about one year ago, when she was troubled with an affection of the heart. Under medical treatment she did not improve, and was confined to her bed for about three months until her death on Tuesday. She made her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Love, at Tusseyville, at whose home she died.

Three daughters and two sons survive Mrs. Ruble. They are Mrs. Lafayette Neff, Mrs. Wm. Musser, Mrs. Wm. Love, Simon Ruble and Wm. Ruble, one son and two daughters having preceded the mother to the grave.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning at nine o'clock, and interment will be made at Tusseyville. Rev. Eisenberg of the Reformed church will officiate at the funeral. Mrs. Ruble was a Christian lady and consistent member of the church.

THE ESHERITE OUSTED.

The Evangelical Church Fight Transferred to Centre County.

The Evangelical church fight has broken out in Centre county. At the recent conferences both the Bowmans and the Esherites made an appointment for the Penns Valley charge and the ministers going to the same church on the same day brought about the climax. The Esherite minister was ousted and is now preparing to bring suit to decide who will get possession of the church.

H. D. Parsons, esq., of Williamsport, will conduct his case, while the defense will be sustained by ex-Judge J. H. Orvis, of Bellefonte, and ex-Judge Bucher, of Lewisburg. The final decision will be awaited with much interest as it will cover all the churches in this county, property worth many thousand dollars. It is expected the case will be ready for trial by the August term of court.

About Returning Letters.

The postoffice department has issued an order to postmasters, instructing them that no mail matter, except letters, is to be returned to the senders when found to be undeliverable, except when bearing a specific request for such a return. The mere name and address of the sender (which secures the return of undeliverable letters) will not be sufficient to secure the return of packages or printed matter or merchandise. A printed or written request for return must appear on the wrappers of such packages, but special written requests for their return will receive attention if addressed to the postoffice to which the packages were originally directed.

Grain Down.

Prices of wheat, corn and oats have declined again in the past ten days. There was a little brighter prospect, two and three weeks ago, but the farmer is doomed to disappointment again, and unremunerative prices rule the market. From many sections the agricultural reports announce that less acreage has been put out in wheat than in previous years. This is true also of Centre county, our farmers will try something that will pay better than wheat.

The Body Exhumed.

On Friday last the body of Mrs. Harris Winkleman for whose death Whan was arrested was exhumed. Sheriff Everhart and District Attorney Hall, of Lock Haven met District Attorney Singer, of Centre county, and Drs. Harris and Seibert of Bellefonte, and Drs. Huston and Conser, of Salona, at Cedar Hill cemetery where the body was buried and a post mortem examination was held.

A Slicker.

Look out for a well-dressed smooth talking young man who is traveling about the western part of the state, claiming to represent a New York house which has no existence, and showing a lot of high-class samples, for which he offers to make up a suit for $12. When the order is given he demands a deposit of $3 as a guarantee of good faith. This he deposits. The stranger disappears and the clothing never comes.

Will Dig for Coal.

A party of Shamokin capitalists contemplates leasing the farm of John Emerick, dec'd, three miles east of Centre Hall, with a view to coal mining. We understand it is the same party who have leased the Gentzel farm in Penn township, of which we made mention in last week's REPORTER, to prospect for gold. With gold and coal in Penns valley, our bread ought to be pretty well buttered before long.

New Millinery Goods.

THROWN FROM A CARRIAGE.

A Minister Seriously Injured In a Runaway at a Funeral.

Rev. Mr. Barr, of Dillsburg, while returning from the funeral of Mary Coble, at that place on Sunday, was thrown out of his carriage and seriously injured. His injuries will, it is feared, result in death. He was in a carriage with Mumper Bally. Their horse became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Bally jumped, but Rev. Barr, who is just recovering from a serious illness, was not able to and stayed in the carriage. The horse dashed the carriage against a tree, overturning it and throwing out Mr. Barr with great force. His left hip was fractured and his skull injured. A physician from Harrisburg was sent for and his children were summoned. His condition is extremely critical and it is feared he may not recover.

Rev. Barr is a minister of the Presbyterian faith and a brother of Mrs. J. C. Boal, of Centre Hall. Latest advices received concerning his condition are not favorable, and small hopes are entertained for his recovery.

HIP BROKEN.

Amos Koch Seriously Injured by Falling From a Road Cart.

Last week, on Monday, Amos Koch, living on the farm owned by Mr. E. M. Huyett, near Linden Hall, was seriously injured by falling from a road cart, and fracturing his hip. Amos had been driving on the road near his home in the cart, and while passing along a field in which a colt was pasturing, the colt ran towards the fence, and his horse took fright, springing suddenly forward. The sudden lurch forward caused Amos to fall backward out of the cart, alighting in such a manner as to break a bone in his hip. He is confined to his bed and it will be several weeks before he will be able to get about again.

Large Funeral.

One of the largest funerals ever held in this valley was that of the late Felix M. Burkholder, on last Friday morning. The services were held at nine o'clock at his home at Centre Hill, and when the funeral cortege wended its way slowly towards the cemetery at Tusseyville, where the remains were interred, over one hundred conveyances followed the remains.

The financial circumstances of Mr. Burkholder were in the best shape and he is reported as having over $6,000 out on interest with no indebtedness. He carried an insurance policy we understand for the sum of $5,000, but as near all insurance policies contain a clause making the policy void in case of suicide, the amount may not be collected without litigation.

A Temperance Paper.

A new temperance paper is to be started at Bellefonte, for a certainty. Newt. Bally, who has considerable experience in the journalistic line, is to be the head of the cold water organ. The material of the Centre County Times, stored at Penn Hall, has been purchased for the purpose. The beer kegs and whisky flasks will now get a lively shaking up and the froth will fly wherever lager is tapped, and the gin cocktail and brandy smash will get an extra broadside once a week, and hot shot will be thrown into hot toddy right along.

At Work on the Roads.

Supervisor Bruss has a stone crusher at work for improving the roads of Potter, north precinct. It is to be hoped that what road is made will be made so as to last, and not for a season. Better have made a short stretch and make it right, than go over a long distance that will last only a season. If supervisor Bruss wants the good will of the taxpayers, let him set an example of good road making in which former supervisors have failed. There is a right way and a wrong way of making roads and the wrong way has been tried long enough.

New Use for Bicycles.

The introduction of a livery system in bicycles is now becoming general in all cities, hired on the principle of hiring horses and vehicles, which is one of the oldest institutions in Europe and America. Resorts where bicycles can be hired are as popular as those where a boat can be had for an hour or two of rowing, so that a ride on a bicycle will be as general an indulgence as a ride on a livery horse or a row in a hired boat.

Drowned Herself.

About five o'clock on Sunday morning, as George Fous, residing at Fous' mill, a short distance above Tyrone, was looking around the place he discovered Miss Carrie Myers at one of the springs which abound along the Juniata river, and upon going closer he found that her head was entirely submerged and that she was lifeless. She had been suffering from typhoid fever for the past two weeks and while her attendants had left her she slipped out of the house and drowned herself.

C. P. Long has just returned from eastern cities with the finest and best selected stock of general merchandise ever brought to Spring Mills, which will be sold at lower figures than elsewhere. Stock going fast.

LYON & Co., Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa.

Allow Stop off Privileges.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has decided to grant to passengers holding World's Fair Excursion tickets of pink variety the privilege of stopping off in each direction. In order to have this done the person when buying the ticket must tell the agent the name of the station or stations they wish to stop at. The agent will then write plainly the name of the station on the back of the ticket, which is for the information of the conductor. Without this endorsement they will be treated as continuous train tickets.

Excursion Tickets.

Commencing June 1st, 1893 the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., will place on sale Two Day Excursion Tickets between all stations on Lewisburg and Tyrone Branch, and to all stations on Philadelphia & Erie Railroad Division and Renovo inclusive at greatly reduced rates. These tickets are good for passage on day of issue or the next succeeding day, and when sold on Saturday they are good for return until the following Monday inclusive.

No "R" Required.

The popular fallacy that it is illegal to sell oysters or expose them for sale during months without an "R" in their names is exploded. The act of June 2, 1891, gave oyster dealers permission to sell oysters all the year around. Previous to that time, the act of April 10, 1873, was in force, which imposed a fine of $100 upon any person who offered oysters for sale during June, July or August. But dealers openly sold oysters in prohibited season, and later the prosecutions were few and far between.
