

THE CHURCH ROW
THE OPPOSING FACTIONS BEFORE THE COURT.

The Dubbsite and Esherite Factions of the Evangelical Church at Court over Possession of the Millheim Church.
The ball has opened for the Esherite and Dubbs factions of the Evangelical church in this county. A few weeks ago Rev. Kent, of the Esher wing was appointed to the Millheim charge and demanded possession of the church and parsonage. This was refused as the majority of the members clung to the Dubbs wing. On Tuesday Rev. Kent was at Bellefonte, and proceedings have been instituted to gain possession of the church property by legal methods.

SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Frank Foreman Dies on Monday of Typhoid Fever.

The death of Mrs. Frank Foreman occurred on Monday afternoon at the home of her husband, a short distance east of Centre Hall. This death is an extremely sad occurrence, doubly so in the fact that the lady was comparatively young in years, and was of a most amiable disposition. Mrs. Foreman was taken ill about six weeks ago; though at first the symptoms were not of a dangerous nature the disease took a hold on her system and developed into typhoid fever. All that was possible was done to relieve her, but medical assistance seemed of no avail, and for several days previous to her death her case was declared hopeless. She lingered thus until Monday afternoon, when death took place; she was surrounded by her husband and children.

Mrs. Foreman was aged about 32 years, and her maiden name was Miss Alice Purdue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purdue, of Coleville, near Bellefonte.

She leaves a husband and five small children to mourn their loss. The children range from about twelve to one year of age respectively. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning from the late residence of her husband, at ten o'clock. The body of the lady will be interred in the cemetery at Centre Hall. Rev. Eisenberg, of the Reformed church will officiate at the services.

Liable for Damages.

Fruit on trees standing at a line and overhanging a neighbor's land belongs to the owner of the land on which the tree stands; if he injures his neighbor's crop in gathering the fruit he is liable for damages and in extreme cases he may be liable for the injury which the tree does, after due notice to remove it. The safer and more honorable way, is to let the neighbor have the fruit which drops on his side of the line, after line and trees have been established.

Organized a Board of Trade.

Along with the new railroad which is being rapidly pushed towards completion, Bellefonte has organized a Board of Trade, and will apply for a charter for the same. The board will endeavor to induce new industries to locate in the town, and will do all possible to give it a boom. The body is composed of Bellefonte's wealthy and prominent business men.

Great Advantages.

You will not make a mistake by calling at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte, for clothing for men, boys and children. They will give you greater satisfaction for your money than any other dealer. Unusual bargains will be given.

Will be Tried.

By a change of venue the famous damage suits brought by citizens of Johnstown, against the South Fork Fishing and Hunting Club, will be tried in Lycoming county. The cases will come up in the October term.

Deaths.

On Monday last, Mrs. Wertz, widow of Daniel Wertz, died in Haines township. Miss Rebecca Hess, aged 71 years, died at Woodward on Monday.

—If you are in need of a new hat come and see my stock, I have the finest stock of spring styles of hats ever brought to this place.—C. P. Long, Spring Mills.

AT PRESBYTERY

The Resignation of Rev. Baskerville to Take Effect Oct. 1

At a meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery at Huntingdon, on June 13th, Rev. Baskerville, pastor of the Sinking Creek charge of the Presbyterian church, composed of the congregations of Centre Hall, Centre Hill and Spring Mills, Rev. Baskerville asked that body to dissolve relations with the charge and accept his resignation. Rev. Baskerville announced several weeks ago to his congregation that it was his intention to sever his connection with the charge, and he awaited action of the Presbytery.

At the session of the Presbytery in reference to the dissolution, the following is an extract of the minutes of the proceedings: The Rev. H. C. Baskerville asked Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations between himself and the churches of Sinking Creek and Spring Mills, and stated his reasons therefor. The churches at congregational meetings, respectively, united with the pastor in making the request, to commissioners from the church present. A copy of the minutes of the action of Sinking Creek was read. The action of Spring Mills was stated by the Rev. H. C. Baskerville.

The request was granted, the dissolution to take place Oct. 1, 1893. The Rev. H. C. Baskerville was appointed to declare the pulpits vacant.

E. H. MATEER, Rec. Clerk. As will be seen Rev. Baskerville will sever his connection with the church on October 1st, 1893. Rev. Baskerville has requested this action of the Presbytery owing to dissatisfaction on the part of some of the members of the different congregations, while with many he is popular and held in high esteem. Rev. Baskerville is an able minister and it is with regret that he resigns from the charge. He has labored hard in building up the church at Centre Hall, and has added a number of members to the list during his several years' pastorate.

A Merchant's Experience.

The Sunbury Daily is responsible for the following: The merchants who sell dry goods and what not in the county stores have some odd experiences. One of them, a well known merchant from the upper end of the county, was in this city Wednesday and told this story: "A bright, healthy and somewhat fleshy woman came into my store the other day," he said, "and asked for garter elastic. 'How much?' I asked. 'How much will it take?' says she. 'I was floored. I didn't know what to say to get out of the dilemma. I had to say something in a hurry, and blurted out: 'How should I know?' 'Why to be sure,' says she, and I'll be hanged if she didn't measure right there, and she bought a yard and a quarter."

Roller Ran Over Him.

On Decoration day Samuel Esterline, of Green Barr, Logan township, Clinton county, was rolling ground with a large land roller. In some manner he fell in front of the huge iron machine, was dragged about 150 feet, and then run over by the roller. His leg was broken and he sustained besides serious internal injuries. He is about seventy years old and is now lying in a precarious condition.

Boards of Health.

The bill authorizing boroughs in Pennsylvania to appoint a regular board of health passed both houses of the legislature and was signed by the Governor the other day. The bill gives the burgess the power to appoint five members, 1 for one year, 1 for two years, 1 for three years, 1 for four years, 1 for five years and one every year thereafter. One member of the board must be a physician.

A Convict's Fate.

Adam Comfort, aged 19 years, a convict at the Eastern penitentiary, at Philadelphia, committed suicide by throwing himself under the wheels of a moving coal train in the yards at the penitentiary. Comfort was convicted of shooting John Snyder at Shamokin Dam, and was sentenced by Judge Bucher at Middleburg to three years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

A Minister Injured.

Rev. Benjamin Hengst, formerly pastor of the Evangelical Church of the east end of Pennsylvania, sustained serious injury in Newport last week by being struck by a shifting engine. The reverend gentleman is very deaf and did not hear the train approaching.

A ROARING TIME

CENTRE HALL TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

The American Eagle Will be Let Loose on the 4th at Centre Hall.—Subscriptions Pouring In.

Centre Hall will celebrate the 4th of July in the most approved style!

In the last issue of the REPORTER a call was issued to the citizens of the town for a public meeting to be held in Harper & Kreamer's hall, on Friday evening. At the meeting held about forty citizens were present, and Dr. Wm. A. McGeehan was elected chairman. The question up was discussed for some time and it was decided that a committee be appointed to take the matter in hand and arrange details. The committee appointed is composed of Chas. Arney, Clem. F. Deininger, E. M. Huyett, Fred. Kurtz, Jr., and D. A. Boozer. The committee was empowered to make all arrangements and have the celebrating of the Fourth in their charge.

The committee have been making arrangements during the week, and as the time is limited in which to secure attractions, they have been hustling for all there is in it.

Subscriptions have been solicited from the business men of the town, the paper being started on Wednesday morning, and the committee has met with fair success and encouragement. A snug sum of money, in aggregate several hundred dollars will be subscribed, and a rip roaring time can be depended on. In this locality of the state there is no Fourth of July celebration of any kind within one hundred miles, and there is every reason why Centre Hall should draw a crowd which the town has heretofore not seen, and this the committee propose doing by means of first-class attractions in every respect and particular.

Supt. Westfall and Div. Ticket agent, Harrar have been communicated with in reference to running special trains during the day, and encouraging replies have been received from these officials, with the information that trains will be run in both directions during the day and evening.

To make the Fourth a brilliant success it is necessary that all citizens cooperate with the committee in charge in arranging for the day. An onerous and vigorous effort is necessary to make it a success, without this the Fourth will be a fizzle and fake, which is far from being desired.

If the committee have not already been to see you with the subscription paper, do not feel insulted, and reach down into your pocket and give them a glorious welcome, by chipping in your ante in the shape of a handful of the "stuff."

An immense parade in the forenoon, speaking, ball game, and other attractions will be the features of the day, besides the minor parts which have not yet been decided upon. Several bands of music have been engaged, and altogether we can expect a first-class time all through.

Has Left.

The merry-go-round that honored the juveniles of our town with its presence a few days last week, pulled out on Monday morning, headed, evidently for Chicago. The concern hails from what is known as "Tight-end" in the western end of Union county, near Cherry Run. Man, wife and son, with two blind horses make up the crew, with a number of wild beasts made of wood mixed in with wooden horses for the round trip. The party sleep in their wagon, placed under the tent during the night, and do their own cooking gypsy fashion. They mind their own business and molest nobody. They travel westward stopping at such towns as present prospects for nickels, and by-and-by may reach Chicago.

Little Dots.

Eulalie will not find time to visit Centre Hall—how sorry she must feel. The two B's are coming on—berries and bugs. We have had four cool days to one warm one within the past five weeks. Haymaking will soon begin, and the crop will be a large one; only favorable weather is needed to get it in all O. K.

Poliated With Lice.

Portions of Lancaster county are poliated with lice. So numerous are they that people are moving out of the infested districts. There are hundreds of millions of the pests and the lives of the inhabitants are made miserable. When they go abroad they are shunned by everyone they meet and when they stay at home they can do nothing but scratch.

One of the Ford's Theater Victims.

The remains of Jere Daley, one of the victims of the old Ford's Theater disaster in Washington on Friday last, arrived at his parents' home in Howard, this county, Saturday night and the funeral occurred Sunday morning. Daley was but twenty-three years old and highly esteemed. His funeral was very largely attended. Young Daley's father had been employed in the Pension Department until about two weeks ago.

High Rates Prevail.

The influx of Centre county people to Chicago to attend the World's Fair is not a creditable showing, and it can be ascribed to no other reason than the high rates charged for transportation. It is hoped that the railroad fare will be considerably reduced to allow the mass of the people to take advantage of seeing the greatest educational institution on the globe.

Odd Fellows Increasing.

The last report of the grand secretary of the I. O. O. F. shows that during the past year in Pennsylvania, nearly 6,000 members have been added to this secret order, making the present membership over 106,000. In Pennsylvania alone there are 1,063 working lodges, showing that this state is leading in the work.

Jumped the Track.

Saturday morning the mail west was over one hour late when it arrived at Centre Hall. The delay was caused by the engine jumping the track at Coburn, while running the train on a siding. After one hour delay the locomotive was got back on the rails and the train proceeded.
