

COBURN.

A New Bridge Built Near J. W. Meyer's Plating Mill.

Mrs. James A. Kooney is off on an extended visit to friends at Altoona.

John Hoffa and wife are off on a visit to friends at Lewisburg and other places.

The gross receipts of the Lutheran festival on Saturday evening were $96.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills, of Lock Haven, were visiting at the home of Henry Kling last Thursday.

J. B. Gentzel, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday at this place at the residence of Andrew Harter.

Some of the farmers in this section have commenced making hay; there will be a good crop.

George Ocker, wife and little daughter, of Centre Hall, passed Sunday at this place the guests of Luther Guise-wite.

On Tuesday travel was suspended on the Woodward road; Supervisor E. Kerstetter tore out the old bridge near J. W. Meyer's plating mill and replaced it with a new one.

The heat of the last few days was very oppressive; on Monday the thermometer registered 103 in the shade on the hotel porch at this place; however no prostrations by the heat to report.

AARONSBURG.

The Lutheran Church to be Remodeled, the Steeple Rebuilt.

Mrs. Rodgers has come back from Bellefonte to spend the summer in her own house.

F. D. Sower and wife, of Norris-town are visiting at Mr. Coburn's the past week.

W. H. Phillips who went to Ohio to attend his mother's funeral, has returned.

George Homan traded a horse that works like a charm; when the head is up the heels are down and when the head is down the heels are up.

The Lutheran people have decided to remodel their church by making the windows smaller, changing the inside and rebuilding the steeple.

H. N. Weaver now has the care of Dr. Musser's horses and wagons. Weaver has handled so many horses that he should know how to care for them properly.

Frank Tomlinson and wife of Clearfield, are visiting at Noah Leitze's. Frank works in a tannery in the town of Clearfield, and makes big money pitching leaches, but it is hard work and his hands are calloused like the soles of his feet.

Destroyed By Fire.

The extensive plant of the Wilson distilling company, limited, at High-spire, was entirely destroyed by fire Saturday night, with the exception of two large bonded warehouses, involving a loss of about $200,000.

A Novel Outfit.

"Rattlesnake Pete" of Oil City, Pa., has completed his wonderful suit. It comprises a double breasted sack coat and trousers made of rattlesnake skins, the yellow and black stripes of which form a peculiar and not altogether un-pleasing effect.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised Druggist and get a Trial Bottle Free.

Insurance Meeting.

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Centre county held its regular quarterly meeting at Centre Hall, on Tuesday and granted the usual amount of insurances which are steadily in-creasing, the people in general finding it the cheapest and safest company to insure with. The amount of insur-ances applied for and granted by the board was $132,730.

Lizzie Borden Again Free.

Lizzie Borden was on Tuesday acquitted of the murder of her father and step-mother. The jury filed into their seats after being out about one hour and a half and were polled on their return. Miss Borden was asked to stand up and the foreman was asked to return the verdict upon which he announced "Not guilty."

Fairs to Come.

County fairs and fairs of local agricultural societies of the state will be held as follows: Granger's interstate exposition at Williams Grove, August 26 to September 2; Mt. Gretna farmers' encampment and industrial association Mt. Gretna, August 21 to 26; Berks county fair, at Reading, September 12 to 15; Kutztown fair, September 19 to 21; Cumberland county agricultural association, at Carlisle, September 26 to 29; Gratz driving park and agricultural society, at Gratz, September 12 to 15; Juniata, at Port Royal, September 6 to 9; Mifflin county, at Mifflin, October 3 to 6; Perry county, at Newport, September 19 to 22; Union county, at Lewisburg, September 26 to 29; York county, at York, October 2 to 6; Han-over agricultural society, at Hanover, September 11 to 15.

What Millheim Will Do For Us.

The Millheim Journal thus endorses the Fourth of July celebration at Centre Hall by saying:

The Centre Hall Reporter of last week makes the announcement that they will get up a big celebration in that borough on the Fourth of July, and predicts as there will be no celebration at any point in the county on that day, they will have a roaring time.

Centre Hall has the means and if her citizens "shell out" liberally there is no doubt that they can make a grand success of it. The Journal is with you and promises a good delegation from this part of the valley to help you celebrate the glorious Fourth.

Getting the Roads in Shape.

Supervisor Samuel Bruss has been running the stone crusher near the station for several days, and has been getting on hand a big supply of crushed stones, which he will use in placing the roads in his district of the township in decent shape. Samuel says he is doing the work as good as he knows how, and will keep the good work up as long as the funds will last.

Will Be Announced.

Owing to the Lutheran church giving its pastor, Rev. Fischer an unlimited vacation, there will be no regular services in that edifice until announcement of same appears in the REPORTER. Rev. Fischer will endeavor to recuperate during the coming months and regain his former state of health. The next appointment will be announced and the parishioners will likely not have much church going during the heated term.

Preparing to Move Away.

Rev. J. W. Boal, pastor of the New-berry Presbyterian church, is making preparations to move his household goods to Centre Hall, Centre county, where he will take up his future residence. He expects to leave this city about June 28th, and will deliver his farewell sermon next Sunday, 25th inst. Rev. Mr. Boal has become greatly endeared to his people of the old Lycoming church, and the separation is one of regret.—Williamsport Daily Times.

Will It Ever Come?

A clergyman of New Castle, Pa., spoke as follows in a recent sermon: "We have been trying for some time to break up the idea that a circus must be made out of a funeral. There is nothing more disgusting to me than to see a whole congregation file around the front of a church merely to get a glimpse of a face which perhaps many of them have never seen before. The custom should be abolished without ceremony."

Hay Tedder.

A Hay Tedder is as essential to the successful harvesting of hay, as a mow-er or a rake. Farmers who have them wonder how they done without them so long. The best to be had at this time, as well as hay rakes are for sale by McCalmont & Co.

Thrown from His Buggy.

On last Friday Mr. George B. Brandon, who now lives at Spangler, was thrown from his buggy while driving and quite painfully injured. Mrs. Brandon was visiting Bellefonte at the time and was telegraphed for to return home.

Into Frog Ponds.

A Clinton county farmer is talking of turning his farm into frog ponds, where he will raise frogs by the thousands to sell. The hind quarters are considered a dainty dish by some people. Frog raising of the present day has become a great paying investment.

Principal Wanted.

A principal wanted for the High School at Centre Hall. Apply to G. W. HOSFERMAN, Centre Hall, Pa.

For Sale.

Several young horses for sale; or will exchange for any kind of cattle. S. W. SMITH, Centre Hall, Pa.

Sentenced for Life.

It sounds very harsh to learn that Ohio has sent a man to the penitentiary for life for stealing three chickens, but that bare announcement fails to tell the whole story. This chicken thief goes to the penitentiary for the rest of his days under the operation of a new law which imposes a life sentence on the third conviction for a penitentiary offense. It is the cumulative weight of his previous offenses which has made an "habitual criminal" of the offender.

Shame!

We are told that a cow was struck by a Beech Creek engine near Troy on Tuesday, and knocked down over the embankment, where she laid all day with her leg broke, alive but suffering frightfully. Her brutal owner refused to allow her to be killed, as she was insured, and he was afraid if he killed her he would forfeit the insurance. We do not know the man's name or we would publish it. Such flendish cruelty is a disgrace to civilization.—Phillipsburg Ledger.

$12 Per Year.

Selinsgrove people drink Penns creek water, a Centre county liquid which has its source in the cave near Centre Hall. For this luxury the people of that ancient town pay $12 per year for the ordinary family use, and the hotels pay $6 per month. Other uses are taxed in proportion, and the people there say they would not be without it.

If you are in need of a new hat come and see my stock, I have the finest stock of spring styles of hats ever brought to this place.—C. P. Long, Spring Mills.

HO FARMERS, ATTENTION!

We invite the attention of farmers to the Steel Self Binding Harvesters and Mowers manufactured by the McCormick people of Chicago, as being the leading farm machinery of their class--they are superior to all others in the material used, as well as the mechanical construction. They are light running and long lived.

We challenge all other binders to compare their binder attachments to that on the McCormick, which has no equal as a binding device.
