PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. George Ocker visited friends at Coburn over Sunday. Mr. John Mullen, of Renova, made a flying trip to Centre Hall Tuesday. Henry Boozer made a trip to Pittsburg last week remaining several days. Miss Ula Baskerville arrived home on Friday on a vacation from Wilson College at Chambersburg. Ed. Wolf, student at the Theological seminary at Gettysburg, is home for the summer vacation. Mrs. Sallie Kline returned home Monday after a month's visit with friends in Dillsburg and Tyrone. Mr. William Rishel, of Tusseyville, gave our sanctuary a pleasant call and reports crop prospects in that section good. Mrs. Rev. Eisenberg has been confined to the house from illness for several days past, but is recovering again. Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzer went to Turbotville on Saturday on a visit to our former townsman, D. C. Keller. Mr. Abe. Lukenbach and son Frank, and Miss Grace Lukenbach, of Bellefonte, were visitors in Centre Hall Tuesday. Rev. W. E. Fischer departed Tuesday morning for Gettysburg, where he will attend commencement exercises. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Huff, of Laurelton, have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Frank Crawford, on Church street, for several days past. Mr. Howard Goodling, son of Rev. C. H. Goodling, who is attending college at New Berlin, arrived home last week to spend the summer vacation. Robert Wolf has returned home on his summer vacation. He is a student at the Theological seminary at Gettysburg, and has one year yet of schooling before graduating. Roly Keller, of Turbotville, was in town several days this week, having come for the purpose of making arrangements for the burial of his aunt, Miss Lydia Keller. Miss Hattie Raudenbush and Mrs. Kremer, of Watson town, Pa., were pleasant visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford, on Church street, several days last week. Col. Shortlege, one of Bellefonte's live business men, gave our sanctuary a call. The Col. is ever of a public spirited and enterprising turn, and does business in a business manner. Fred. Kurtz, Jr., left on Monday evening for Reading, Pa., at which place the State Editorial Association meets. He will also spend several days at Atlantic City, returning home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf attended the wedding of the daughter of Rev. E. J. Wolf, at Gettysburg, last Wednesday. They remained several days in that section before returning home. Mr. Henry Rossman, the able and accommodating undertaker of Tusseyville, left on Tuesday morning for Scranton, where he will attend the sessions of the State Funeral Directors' Association, of which body he is a member.

A BIG DAY

ATTRACTIONS GOLORE BILLED FOR THE FOURTH.

Several Bands of Music Engaged.—Committees Appointed.—Subscriptions Running Up.—Arrangements Made as Rapidly as Possible.

The Fourth at Centre Hall will be a decided success!

The committee are making arrangements as rapidly as possible and everything possible within our limits will be done to make the day a howling success.

Excursion trains will be run during the day and accommodations and railroad facilities have been secured for people to come to Centre Hall by rail and spend the day celebrating with us and return again in the evening. A letter was received from the Division Ticket Agent E. S. Harrar, who stated that he would provide an excursion train to leave Bellefonte about 9.30 o'clock in the morning, arriving at Centre Hall about 10.30. After arrival of train the monster parade will be started. In the evening a train will leave Bellefonte about six o'clock, and will leave Centre Hall about nine for Coburn. Returning will leave Centre Hall for Bellefonte at 10. As will be seen the facilities will be such that accommodations will be furnished the people of the county.

Several committees have been appointed to push the details. A committee on amusements, parade, decorations and fireworks, have been appointed respectively. These bodies are making arrangements as rapidly as possible. The Millheim band has been engaged and several others have been written to, and there will be at least three bands in town during the day. Invitations have been extended to all secret orders in the valley to participate in the parade, and encouraging success has been met with.

General D. H. Hastings will likely deliver the address of the day. One or two other speakers of state renown will also be engaged.

Arrangements so far completed for the day will be a monster parade in the morning. In afternoon speaking, a game of ball between two clubs from other parts, races, etc., will fill up the afternoon. In the evening a band concert after which will be the display of fireworks.

There is every promise of bringing a larger crowd to Centre Hall than was ever within the borough limits before. From every part of the county interest is manifested, and each district will send large representative delegations.

The subscriptions which have been circulated for several days have run up to a large sum, and we cannot speak but creditably of the citizens of Centre Hall in responding as they have. All take an active interest in making the day a success, not only by active service, but by hearty and liberal contributions.

Everything within the means of the committees will be done to make the 4th of July a howling success. Centre Hall has always been noted for its enterprise and it is proposed to make this day even more noted than any ever before.

The town will be placed at the disposal of the visitors, who are all welcomed to Centre Hall to celebrate with us. It will be an event not before witnessed in the county and everything possible will be done to make it such.

Scholars Promoted.

On examination the following scholars were promoted from the primary to intermediate school: Pearl Riter, Mary Meyer, Gertrude Dresher, Ethel Eisenberg, Helen Hosterman, John Miller, Claude Stahl, Simon Shilling, James Fetterhoff. Intermediate to high school: Wilbur Henney, Willie Boozer, James Sandoe, Charles Bartholomew, Paul Murray, Della Bartges, Jennie Thomas, Bertha Meyer.

An Excellent Sermon.

Mr. Robert Bruce Wolf delivered an able and most excellent sermon in the Lutheran church at Tusseyville, on Sunday afternoon last. He occupied the pulpit for Rev. Fischer. Robert is preparing for the ministry and has but one year yet to serve at the Theological seminary at Gettysburg, and he has the ability for a proficient minister. He will be licensed to preach sometime next fall.

Cave Travel.

The travel to the cave each year is gradually decreasing, and it is seldom now that a picnic is held there, when several years back, they were a daily occurrence. The patronage from Bellefonte which always was great is attracted to Hunter's Park, this affects our famous grottoes to no little extent.

Enjoyed the Day.

The picnic held by the graugers and invited guests, on grange park, last Saturday, was a day enjoyed by all present. The weather was favorable and a sumptuous dinner was served in one of the buildings on the grounds.

Taken to the Asylum

Mrs. George Bottorf, of Collego township, was taken to the asylum at Danville, a few days ago.

DIED AT TURBOTVILLE.

Miss Lydia Keller Died on Sunday Evening after a Lingering Illness.

On last Sunday evening about nine o'clock, Miss Lydia Keller died at the home of her brother, Mr. D. C. Keller, at Turbotville. Miss Lydia has for several years past made her home with her brother, Mr. D. C. Keller, and removed with them from this place to Turbotville last spring. Shortly after removing from this place she was taken sick, suffering from a disease of a serofulous nature, and for some time was in a critical condition, but with careful attention and medical assistance, her condition improved somewhat and she was considered out of danger until a short time ago when she became worse and gradually grew weaker until her death occurred on last Sunday evening.

Miss Lydia was a highly respected lady and a faithful member of the Reformed church. Her remains were brought to Centre Hall by rail, on Wednesday morning, and were then taken to Tusseyville, at which place the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Eisenberg, of the Reformed church officiating. Her age was forty-eight years and twelve days.

MET WITH AN ACCIDENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Lobough Thrown from their Wagon.

On last Friday morning as Mr. and Mrs. Stever Lobough, who carry on a bakery at this place, were on their way across the mountain to deliver bread, one of the back wheels dropped off the wagon, which caused the back part of the wagon to drop suddenly to the ground.

Mrs. Lobough was thrown out by the sudden jar and was considerably bruised, but fortunately escaped having any bones broken. The confusion frightened the horse which started at full speed and Mr. Lobough, who was still in the wagon attempted to stop him but the wagon was thrown on its side, and the box containing the bread, pies, cakes, and Mr. Lobough were left where they landed.

The horse made its escape and ran for some distance until it was caught by some men who witnessed the accident. Mrs. Lobough was taken into a house near by and cared for. They were both considerably bruised though not seriously hurt.

That Gold Mine.

On Saturday, says the Centre Democrat, Mr. J. C. Stover, of Penn township, called at our office and informed us that gold and silver, in small quantities, had been found in Penn township. To substantiate his statement he showed a certificate of an analysis made by an assayer in Colorado, to whom a sample of the rock had been sent for that purpose. The analysis is $1.10 of silver and .32 of gold to the ton. That is proof that such minerals can be found there, but not of sufficient quantity to pay.

The operation where this ore was found is in Penn township, about a quarter of a mile east of Zerb station, on E. C. Finkle's farm. Machinery was to be shipped there this week by a Shamokin party who intend to sink a shaft to more fully investigate.

Daly Was Reinstated.

Among the victims among the Ford's theatre disaster was Jeremiah Daly, the son of John A. Daly, an ex-soldier from Romola, Pennsylvania, employed as a watchman in the interior department. Mr. Daly was discharged some days ago, but when Secretary Smith learned that young Daly had been killed in the theatre wreck and that the family might suffer by reason of the father's dismissal, he immediately ordered his reinstatement. Secretary Smith has done himself credit by this action, and every citizen of Centre county will be pleased to hear of the re-instatement of the father of young Daly.

None Other.

Centre Hall will have the only demonstration on the Fourth of July in this section of the state, and there is every prospect of drawing to the town an immense crowd. No other town hereabouts will celebrate, and our celebration is proposed to entertain those people. A large crowd is anticipated, and the attractions and features will be accordingly. Every body is invited and when you come the town will be placed at your disposal.

Clean Up.

For our demonstration on the Fourth it would be an excellent idea for our citizens to assist in getting the streets and walks in the town in a decent shape. The council should take the matter in hand and insist that all rubbish and loose stone be removed. A little work in this direction will greatly enhance the beauty of the town. The streets should first of all be cleaned and fixed up.

No Services.

There will be no services in the Presbyterian church at this place on next Sabbath morning and none at Spring Mills in the afternoon, on account of the absence of their pastor, Rev. H. C. Baskerville, who has been invited to fill the pulpit in one of the churches in the vicinity of Pittsburg.

WON THE DAY

A SWEEPING VICTORY FOR THE DUBBS PEOPLE.

Judge Endlich Decides the Sixth Street Church Case, Reading, Pa., in Favor of the Minority.

Rev. Goodling, Evangelical minister of the Centre Hall charge, has handed us the decision of Judge Endlich, of Reading, in the church case tried there. Judge Endlich's decision is exhaustive and goes over the entire ground, from the foundation of the church, and shows that the Esherites are in the wrong.

Rev. Goodling assures us that all news heretofore sent out of victories in the courts by the Esherites, were false, and that the Dubbs people have been gaining in the courts, in consequence of which many of the Esherites are leaving their camp and flocking over to the Dubbs wing of the church. Rev. Goodling further informs us that the report of proceedings having been instituted in the courts of Centre county, are also unfounded. The Evangelical of June 7, sums up Judge Endlich's decision as rendered on June 5th, in the famous Sixth Street church case, Reading, Pa., as follows:

"Judge Endlich of the court of common pleas in a lengthy decision handed down affirms the report of the Master (Lewis Richards, Esq.,) in the case of Kreeker against Shirey, and directs that the bill be dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff. The court holds that the suspensions of Bishops Esher and Bowman were legal; that the Bowman minority conference at Allentown, in 1891, was illegal; that the Indianapolis General Conference was illegally organized, and proceeded in utter disregard of judicial principles and of the mandates of the Discipline, upon matters not before it in its judicial capacity.

The opinion decides that Bishops Bowman and Esher were disqualified from presiding at all of the annual conferences held after their suspensions, and that the proceedings of the Board of Publication in 1890 were rendered invalid because of their participation therein.

The organization of the Indianapolis General Conference is declared invalid, because of the presidency of the Bishops at its sessions, they being still under suspension. Also that the constituency of the conference was illegal, because made up of delegates chosen at annual conferences presided over by Bowman or Esher after their suspensions.

The fixing of the place for the General Conference of 1891 by the Buffalo General Conference is held to have been invalid because of an unlawful attempt to delegate a power not in its nature susceptible of delegation.

The Court regards the General Conference as a body possessing only such powers as are delegated to it by the Discipline, and the review of the validity of the appointments of annual conferences is not a subject within the jurisdiction of the General Conference. No opinion is given as to either the call or the proceedings of the Philadelphia General Conference of 1891, this being declared unnecessary to the decision of the question raised by the bill."

A telegram has also been sent from Rev. J. Hartzler, P. E., that in the Logan church case, Central Pennsylvania Conference, Judge Mayor, of Lock Haven, Pa., refused the injunction asked by the Esherites. While we are without particulars, the fact in itself is most important and will prove encouraging to our people within the bounds of the old Central.

To Fill The Pulpit.

Rev. Lewis Robb, of St. John's Reformed church at Williamsport, was last Sunday elected pastor of Trinity Reformed church Altoona, to fill a vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. Lloyd E. Coblenz.

Rev. Robb formerly taught school at Centre Hall, and hails from Nittany valley. He is a young man of ability and a bright future is before him.

The Altoona & Phillipsburg Road.

The grading of the Altoona & Phillipsburg Railroad is nearly completed between Phillipsburg and Osceola, as is also a good portion of the line between Osceola and Ramey. Ties are being received, and it is said that the iron will begin to be laid by the first of July. This road connects with the Beech Creek Railroad at Phillipsburg.

On the Home Stretch.

Candidates are busy putting in their lasticks—all on the home stretch. We must say for them, they are all good men, and further, that a very honorable electioneering campaign has been carried on, an improvement upon the slangwhang dicker and buy-and-sell of former years. Let it always be thus.

Intense Heat.

The thermometer at this place on Monday and Tuesday of this week was 90 in the shade. People are sighing for a little rain to cool the atmosphere as well as for the corn and vegetables, which are badly in need of rain. The roads are very dusty which makes it disagreeable traveling.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Beautiful Exercises Were Held in the Lutheran Church Sunday Morning.

Children's Day was beautifully and appropriately observed in the Lutheran church last Sabbath morning. The services were held in place of the regular, and the church was comfortably filled, a large number of people turned out to attend. The church was handsomely decorated, the pulpit was covered with flowers and potted plants. Over the pulpit was a floral arch, built up of flowers in bloom and evergreen, and the effect was pleasing to the audience. From rafters were suspended four canaries in cages, and the little songsters during the services sung their praises and chirped with glee.

The program was well arranged. Singing by the school, responsive reading, recitations by little boys and girls, a brief address by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Fischer, were the features, and all parts were well rendered. A good collection was taken up for the Orphan's school at Loysville. Considerable work was involved in the preparation of the program, and its rendition was a success.

The First Hastings Delegate

At the Republican primaries in Juniata county Monday, Col. J. K. Robinson was elected delegate to the Republican State convention of next year. Col. Robinson is enthusiastically for General Hastings for Governor. This should be a good omen for uncle Daniel, and we hope he will keep on scooping in delegates until he can count a majority. The Republican masses seem to want him, but the Republican bosses don't squint in the same direction.

30 Years Postmaster.

Major J. B. Fisher, of Penn Hall, has been a postmaster for thirty years, having taken the oath of office but once in that period. We do not suppose that any postmaster in our county has such a record, and but few in the state can make the boast.

Stricken With Paralysis.

A telegram was received in Bellefonte on Saturday evening stating that Dr. George Swartz had a stroke of paralysis and that he was in a serious condition. Mr. Swartz was well known in this section. He moved from Bellefonte to Punxsutawney.

Pension Examiners.

Congressman Kribbs has designated the following gentlemen as pension examiners for this county: Drs. Selbert and Dobbins, of Bellefonte, and Dr. Fisher, of Zion. Mr. Kribbs has recommended good men in the above.

Fine Footwear.

For boots and shoes go to Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte. He carries a high grade of footwear for ladies, gentlemen and children, which cannot be equaled by any dealer. The very best the market affords is to be found there. Prices right.
