

ALL IN SHAPE

THE CELEBRATION WILL BE A HOWLING SUCCESS.

The Most Favorable Predictions For a Big Day on the Fourth.—Everybody Coming.—Attractions Galore!

The celebration of the Fourth at Centre Hall is progressing under the most favorable circumstances, and unusual interest is manifested in all parts of the county toward making the day a howling success.

From all parts of the county one hears of nothing but the coming Fourth of July celebration at Centre Hall, and if the day is not a howling success it will not be from the lack of attendance on the part of visitors.

Attractions are being booked daily for the monster parade, which will take place in the forenoon, and from present indications, this parade will form a line near a mile in length.

Next week, as per time honored custom it being the Fourth of July week, there will be no paper issued from this office.

Next week, as per time honored custom it being the Fourth of July week, there will be no paper issued from this office.

PERSONAL.

Miss Sarah Arnold, of Centre Hill, was a caller, and had her label changed.

Mr. Stewart Leitzell, of Washington, D. C., was a visitor in this vicinity last week among friends.

Miss Mary Cleveland, of Reedsville, was the guest of the family of Mr. D. W. Reynolds over Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Lucas, one of Snow-shoe's active Democrats, and candidate for county treasurer, gave our sanctum a call.

Mrs. Prof. H. F. Bitner and son Lawrence departed Tuesday for their home at Millersville, after several weeks' visit with her parents.

Charley Bollinger and wife, of Altoona, were visiting friends hereabouts this week. Charley was a former townsman and removed from here several years ago.

Mr. John Weaver, one of the REPORTER'S oldest subscribers, from Spring Mills, gave us a call on Saturday. Mr. Weaver thinks Gov. Pattison did the poor man a great injustice by vetoing the fence bill.

Mr. George Swabb, of Linden Hall, dropped in on us Tuesday for a few minutes and brightened up our sanctum. He reports everybody busy up there, but his locality will send a large delegation to Centre Hall to help us celebrate.

Mr. Michael F. Rossman, of Tusseyville, was in town on Monday, and did not forget to pay his respects to the REPORTER office. Mr. Rossman reports a big turn out from his part of the valley to assist Centre Hall in celebrating the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reiber, of Michigan, are visiting in this town and vicinity. Mr. Reiber left here for Berrien Springs, Michigan, twenty-three years ago, and this is his first return. He is a brother of our well-known fellow citizen, George Reiber, of near Tusseyville.

Damages Awarded.

The committee to view the route of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, where it passed over a number of farms in Spring township, met on Tuesday and on Wednesday morning their report made the following award: Isaac Stover $1600, Henry Garbrick $1000 and John Rockey $800.—Centre Democrat.

Going to Altoona.

Mr. Charles W. Swartz, and Mr. Will Wagner, both of Tusseyville, are about to open a store at Kipple, the eastern end of Altoona. Messrs. Swartz and Wagner are two of our most worthy young men, of exemplary habits, whom we are sorry to lose. May they prosper, as they certainly deserve.

Again to Run.

And they say that ex-Sheriff Cook is actually to run for sheriff again. We suppose he thinks that he may ultimately get a chance to hang his escaped murderer Williams. We think the Repubs should nominate, Cook just for the sake of giving the people of the county a chance to get a shot at him.

Still Weak.

The grain market is still weak, lower than ever, with little prospect for a rise. Philadelphia quotations are wheat 69J.

The grain market is still weak, lower than ever, with little prospect for a rise. Philadelphia quotations are wheat 69J.

FOR JUDGE.

Two Centre County Boys Run for Judge in Clearfield.

The Democracy of Clearfield county have nominated Hon. D. L. Krebs, for re-election for president Judge. Judge Krebs is a native of Ferguson township, Centre county, and was admitted to the bar at Bellefonte, from which town he removed to Clearfield, where he has creditably served one term as president judge.

On Saturday the Republican primaries were held in Clearfield county, and the choice ran for Cyrus Gordon for president judge. Mr. Gordon is also a native of Centre county, having been born near Hublersburg, and is about the same age as his opponent, Judge Krebs. Mr. Gordon is a gentleman of good character, and our county can feel proud of being the mother of both these gentlemen.

Will Prospect for Coal.

The party of Shamokin gentlemen, of whom we made mention in a former issue of the REPORTER as likely to prospect for coal on the John Emerick farm, three miles east of Centre Hall, have now entered into an article of agreement which gives them the right by lease, to operate for coal on the above named farm.

Three parties coming from the coal regions, pronounce the indications for coal as almost certain, and having experience in coal mining would seem their judgment and the fact that they will begin work, make the outcome look hopeful.

We hope they are not mistaken and await developments with the wish that coal will be found.

A Remedy for Freckles.

The Scientific American says: Some people are born freckled and others have freckles thrust upon them. The former class might as well accept their freckles as a dispensation of Providence, for nothing can be done for them. The latter can always get rid of their affliction by using a couple of drachms of sal ammoniac with an ounce of German cologne, the solution mixed with a pint of distilled water.

A Compliment.

William L. Kurtz, formerly of Centre Hall, has been unanimously nominated for prothonotary by the Democracy of Somerset county. This is a compliment of which he may well feel proud, as he did not solicit the nomination. Although only a few years a resident of old Somerset, Mr. Kurtz has become quite a prominent citizen and business man of that county.

Aaronsburg Boys.

The Phillipsburg Ledger says: Mr. Emanuel Bollinger is enjoying a visit from his brother, Dr. C. P. Bollinger, of Chicago, whom he has not seen for twenty-seven years. He expects his brother Michael Bollinger, of Burbanck, Ohio, in a few days, and then the three old boys will have a regular old fashioned time. All the above named are natives of Aaronsburg, whom most of the REPORTER'S readers down here will remember.

Proclamation.

No shooting of fire crackers will be allowed within the borough limits of Centre Hall on July 4th, between the hours of 9.30 a. m. and 12.30 p. m. and while the parade is moving. Offenders will be dealt with as the law provides in such cases.

JOHN RITER, Chief Burgess, Centre Hall, June 28, 1893.

Cherries Ripe.

Cherries are beginning to ripen. The birds of the air and the terra firma urchin are sampling the various trees, much to the annoyance of the proprietor of the fruit. Shotguns for the former and stones for the latter are some of the remedies the provoked landlord resorts to.

Bad Hay Weather.

This week the good farmer hath set apart for making hay; but it raineth and he maketh no hay. He wisheth for sunshine, but the sun shineth not so the farmer moweth not, for if he moweth the grass spoileth, and maketh no good hay.

Go to Lewins, Bellefonte, for your clothing. Their styles are perfect in every respect. Suits neat in pattern, stylishly cut and elegantly made. Nothing quite so good anywhere.

IMMENSE CROWD COMING.

Large Crowds of People Coming to Celebrate With Us.

The committees in charge of the demonstration on the 4th, are meeting with the most encouraging success, and indications point to such a large crowd that the facilities and accommodations of the town will be severely taxed. From all parts of the county reports are coming in of immense crowds coming, and if the day is favorable the crowd will be considerably larger than ever here, and we have had large concourses of people already.

The attractions and visitors coming are far beyond the greatest anticipations of the different committees, and the success all have met with fairly staggered them from the start. It will be a day in our history which we can proudly refer to. If the town is not covered with a coat of red paint on the 4th, it will not be the cause of the visitors or the committees on arrangements.

A True Article.

An exchange says: None are satisfied. One man is struggling to get justice, some other is flying from it. One man is saving to build a home, another is trying to sell his building for less than it cost, to get rid of it. One man is spending all the money he earns in taking a girl to the theatre, in the hopes of eventually making her his wife, while his neighbor is spending all the gold he has to get a divorce. The eastern man wants to go west and the western man wants to go east. The farmer wants to go into the city and the city man wants to go into the country.

THE WAHN CASE.

To Come Up at August Term of Court—Attorneys Engaged.

John N. Wahn, who has been for some time and is now confined in the Centre county jail charged with causing the death of Mrs. Winkleman, of Nittany Hall, was visited by a Gazette representative and found to content himself in fairly good shape. The prisoner is securely locked in his cell all the time, and says Sheriff Ishler is showing him all possible kindnesses, under the circumstances.

He is eagerly awaiting August term of court when his trial will be called up. His attorneys have been selected, one of whom is E. R. Chambers. It will be an interesting case all through.

No Shooting of Fire Crackers.

Chief Burgess Riter has issued a proclamation which will be found in another column, in which he prohibits the shooting of fire crackers on the morning of the 4th, between the hours of 9.30 a. m. and 12 m., or during the forming of the parade and moving. The police will be instructed to arrest all offenders. His proclamation comes forth from the cause of safety, and the promiscuous shooting and banging of fire crackers will greatly endanger the lives and limbs of many. Horses will be easily frightened and he proposed to set his foot right down on it. After the time specified you can shoot all you want.

Pennsylvania Dittch Book.

The comic letters of Boonastell, written in Pennsylvania Dutch, each one carrying with it a moral, are about to be printed in handsome book form, by which the admirers of that style of literature will have all of the best of Boonastell's productions in convenient form. The work is now in the hands of a publishing house at York. Of course you will want a copy when it is out. Write to T. H. Harter, Middleburg, Pa.

Festival.

The Union Sabbath school will hold a festival at the church near Farmers Mills, on Saturday, July 1st, in the evening. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cakes, etc., will be served. Proceeds will go to the benefit of the Union Sabbath school. The public in general are invited.

Admitted to the Bar.

Mr. Samuel D. Gettig was admitted to the bar to practice law in the Centre county courts, a few days ago. Samuel is a boy of our valley, and will be an able dispenser of Blackstone, etc.

Paint the Town Red.

Centre Hall is going to have a big time on the 4th of July and the citizens want everybody to go and take their red paint with them. The fire companies and a number of other organizations in Bellefonte have been invited to come and partake of the hospitality. Company B. has accepted the invitation and will be out in full force. The Academy base ball team will play a team from the College on that day. The bicycle club are going over there and will join in the parade. Whoop'er for Centre Hall.—Gazette.

Have Struck Altoona.

There is a new bug in town. Swarms of the famous Lancaster lice have arrived here in their westward march, says the Altoona Tribune. They were lying in great heaps on the Gaysport pavements Friday, and covered the trees from the ground to the topmost limb. The citizens are trying coal oil and other remedies to find relief from the plague. The little yellow bug reached the west side of town Tuesday evening. These little bug(ers) get into one's eyes, and the sensation is anything but pleasant.

The Peach Crop Will Be Enormous.

Isaac N. Mills, special agent of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad company stationed at Clayton, estimates the peach crop for this season at 5,600,000 baskets. The estimates exceed those of 1891, which was considered an excellent year, the shipments then being about 3,000,000 baskets. The present estimate includes the state of Delaware and the Maryland portion of the peninsula.

Renominated.

Judge D. L. Krebs, of Clearfield, has been renominated for president judge, by the Democrats. He has proven an able man upon the bench, and has gained a state reputation. He hails from our valley and county, and this makes us all the more proud of him.

Odd Names.

Snyder county has a village called Doodletown. We suppose it must be head quarters for organ grinders. But Centre county can match it, it has a village called Puddentown.

What Is Coming.

Centre Hall has many attractions billed for the next several months which are of no little prominence. Among them are the Fourth of July celebration, the Patrons' Picnic, and the campmeeting to be held in the Fort woods.
