BUSINESS REVIVING.

It is gratifying to write that business affairs all over our state, and in all parts of the country, are reviving, and confidence, that important factor, is being restored.

Industrial establishments are resuming everywhere, and the unemployed are gladdened by notices to go to work again. Much of the depression was caused by over production which inevitably brings on a shut-down until the manufactured goods on hand can be disposed of.

Many of the industrial firms that went overboard were of the speculative class, and these may keep silent, and it is better.

The better class of the banks, which suspended, are opening again. Of the 250 banks that got into the soup, fully 200 were one-horse concerns which are only a curse to a community at best.

These one-horse banks do business upon the lowest scale and are traps for depositors. We could refer to examples, but suppose our readers are fully aware of them. Many of these broken low shaving shops, luckily for the community, will remain closed and some of those connected with "running them" are likely to get into prison cells, while others, equally guilty, will escape prosecution, as their business was carried on with a view to rob and ruin honest and unsuspecting men.

The outlook is full of encouragement, and it is gladdening news in view of the approach of winter.

BERKS FOR HASTINGS.

More than usual interest attached to the Republican primaries in Berks county, on Sept. 2, as it was a square fight for gubernatorial delegates. A. M. High, Quay's lieutenant, has won by big odds. He is a personal friend of General Hastings and will instruct the delegates for the Bellefonte man.

FROM all quarters continue to come gladdening reports of business improving. All kinds of industrial establishments that had closed are resuming; idle men are getting into employment, and a healthier tone generally is taking the place of depression.

ONE CHANGE the people voted for under Cleveland, is the repeal of the Sherman bill. They have that now. Another change they voted for is the tariff. They will get that by and by, and then see whether things will get better or worse.

UP IN Pawtucket a hailstone came down in which there was a live toad. Shaw! that's nothing; in a down east town a hailstone came down containing a full copy of the CENTRE REPORTER and in it was the news of that self-same storm.

THE people of the United States, in the last three elections, by overwhelming majorities, demanded a repeal of the McKinley tariff. Now the high tariff organs clamor against such a repeal. Give the people what they demand—if a repeal does not work well, then they will know it.

SHAM FARMERS.

Several days ago we had occasion to refer to the very unagricultural programme which was carried through at the farmers' encampment at Mount Gretna, soreheads, disgruntled politicians and long-haired reformers being among the invited speakers. The Williams' Grove people who had their inning during the last part of last week, seemed to have tried to imitate the Mount Gretna people.

Arrived Last Evening.

Will Stover and W. H. Crawford passed through Centre Hall last evening on their way to Spring Mills. The boys left Freeport, Illinois, about August 10th, and wheeled it to Pennsylvania by bicycle. They expected to make the trip in about three weeks, and they calculated closely, being near about that time on the road.

Married at Axemann.

Miss Jennie F. Ott, daughter of Mr. James Ott, of Axe Mann, was married last week to Samuel Hazel, son of Mr. Adam Hazel, of the same place, and foreman of the Watchman composing rooms. Rev. Miles O. Noll was the officiating minister.

Soldier's Reunion.

The Soldier's Reunion held last Saturday at Hunter's Park, on the Buffalo Run railroad, above Bellefonte, was largely attended, and the crowd was estimated at about five thousand. Addresses were delivered by prominent speakers, and the day was pleasantly spent.

Prohibition County Ticket.

The Centre county prohibitionists held their convention, in Bellefonte, and put in nomination the following ticket: Sheriff, Daniel Hall; treasurer, Jared Harper; commissioners, W. H. Long, Wm. Miller; register, George E. Seibert; recorder, S. B. Ligenfeiter; auditors, C. H. Else, J. B. Kerns; surveyor, Edward P. Butts.

THE SILVER senators threaten to filibuster in the senate so as to delay the repeal of the Sherman act. That is unmanly, since the great majority of the people demand the repeal.

Moved the Crusher.

On Tuesday the stone crusher was moved up the mountain road from down the Brush Valley road. It will be put into service up along the mountain crushing sand stone for our pike through town.

SOME MEN never aim to do anything above what is little, and a little trick gives them a big satisfaction. Such men have small warts to follow them when they die.

Will Present It to the City.

Pennsylvania will present her World's Fair building to the city of Chicago; it cost $85,000. Likely the other states will do the same.

Good for Farmers.

The farmers are having a favorable time for plowing and sowing, the recent rains having put the ground in good condition.

CLEVELAND addressed the Pan-American Medical Congress, which met in Washington the other day. He did not look at all like a sick man, nor talk like it.

Good Times for Mill Hall.

The two axe factories at Mill Hall, which have been standing idle for the last few months, have resumed operations and employ a large number of men. With the new railroad which will soon be running through that town the outlook for Mill Hall is brighter than it has been for a long time.

Dogs Will be Scarce Though.

Bologna sausages should be plenty in Lewistown now. The Free Press says: The dog poisoner got in some ugly work on Saturday night, no less than fifteen having been found dead on Sunday, among them McClintic's fine tan colored hound.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by J. D. Murray, Druggist.

Will Wear a Keystone.

There is now being introduced among the "Pennsy" employes a lapel emblem shaped like the Pennsylvania keystone, bearing the words, "Pennsylvania lines." It is plated with gold, with an enameled face, and is made in various colors to suit general office employes, conductors, engineers, telegraphers, etc. The idea originated with the World's Fair employes excursion and the keystone buttons were first worn at the Fair grounds.

No, They Can Not.

"A huckster" asks the REPORTER this question: "Can any borough charge one party a license and not charge another for keeping a stand within the borough?"

No, it can't—all must be treated alike, the borough authorities dare not discriminate. The law gives no such power, and it does not matter whether the citizen or citizens live in or out of any borough.
