Miss Bertha Young was off on a few that place. weeks visit to her sister who lives near Woodward.

The picnic on Saturday in point of numbers and sociability was a grand Trenton 10.23; Philadelphia 11.30; Frasuccess. Early in the morning dark, ominous clouds overhung the sky, which threatened to spoil the day's old mother earth and dispelled the clouds. Crowds began to assemble hour the grove was full of hungry people waiting for the good things hidden in the enormous baskets that were so conspicuous everywhere. After prayer by Rev. Addams and short addresses by Rev's Wolf, Finkbinder and Addams, with music between each address by the Millheim band, the crowds were fed, but not miraculously as was the case with the five thousand. The afternoon was spent in pleasant games, and an exhibition base ball game by the Aaronsburg ball club.

Following is a list of building operations which have been going on for the last few weeks in our town, which is a criterion of returning good times.

William J. Rote has his mansion across the creek nearly completed, when done, it will be quite an ornament to the town.

S. S. Baker is now snugly domiciled in his newly built cottage near the postoffice.

Andrew Harter has nearly completed his addition to his house lately purchased of W. H. Kremer, and will occupy the same on the 1st of April next.

John M. Weaver has built an addition to his house, and is experimenting with a patent paper roofing.

W. H. Kerstetter has built a summer kitchen to his house which will be quite a convenience to him during

That all may Understand.

"Comparatively few understand why a person in charge of an estate is styled an administrator in one case and an executor in another, although their duties are respectively the same," said an old attorney. "An executor is named in the will to administer the estate. An executrix is a female. If there is no will, the female who closes the estate is called the administratrix. If the person named in the will as an executor refuses to serve, the court appoints another person and he is styled the administrator with the will annexed. If a person in charge of an estate dies or defaults and is removed, his successor is called an administrator de bonus non, or an administrator of the remaining assets."

-----Will Observe the Day.

The Presbyterian church throughout the United States will generally observe Sabbath, September 24th, as a rallying day, for the bringing together as far as possible, all the teachers and scholars on the roll to a special service of praise and prayer, and for the inauguration of methods and plans looking to the gathering in of children and youth now outside the Sunday school. This day marks the close of the summer vacation and the beginning of what may be termed a new school year. Impressive and interesting services will be held in the Sunday schools generally.

The horse has been known to exceed thirty; the lion seventy; the camel, the eagle, the raven and the tortoise have been known to pass five score; one or two swans have been known to pass five score; one or two swans have been known to pass into the third century.

-Still Reducing the Force.

According to a new schedule that went into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad at midnight Sunday, a large number of trains on the main line were discontinued and others were merged, which done away with many of the crews. This is in compliance with an order to reduce the working force along the road. A large number of trains on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad were discontinued last week, and a number of changes were made in the New York division, which resulted in the discontinuance of nearly twenty trains.
