TAXPAYERS' READ.

"We think it clear that under the authority to improve streets, a municipal corporation would have no right to improve a turnpike road since the right to take tolls imposes upon the private corporation the imperative duty of keeping its road in proper condition for travel, and the municipality cannot exact that burden upon the property owners." In re opinion: Wilson vs. Allegheny City, 79 Pa. st., page 272.

Let the taxpayers of Centre Hall carefully consider the above, and it would be well for our councilmen to reflect. Will the taxpayer submit, when there is recourse?

A FEW FACTS.

The Republicans had set their pins to capture the sheriff and an extra commissioner. That can't be done unless Democrats fail to turn out on election day or permit themselves to be misled into voting for the opposition nominees. At a former term, Cook, the opposition candidate for sheriff and an extra commissioner, were elected solely by Democrats giving so-called complimentary votes.

And what was the result? The county became a by-word under sheriff Cook.

The Henderson gang spent the surplus left by Greist and Wolf and ran up the expenditures. Democrats will you allow this to be repeated? We trust not.

Elect your nominee, John P. Condo, and you will place a man in the sheriff's office who will discharge his duties with credit to the county.

Re-elect Goodhart and Adams, they have managed the affairs of the county during past three years faithfully and well.

A MOVE is being made to have the World's Fair continue open another month.

The fellows who thought they could defeat Condo and Rumberger are getting pale behind the gills.

The chap who thought he'd be the next county treasurer has too many Miles to cover and won't get there.

THE ONLY ISSUE.

Senator Voorhees, in his championship of the right of the majority to rule, uttered this patriotic sentiment:

"There is an important principle involved in this question, and if at the end we have to go down I will go down with my flag nailed to the masthead. If compromise is to take place on the principle that the minority has the right to dictate; it will be done by others, not by me."

That is just where every man should stand who believes in the government of the people, by the people, for the people. That is the issue now, and there is no room for any compromise.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND says he will sign no compromise silver bill. He insists upon unconditional repeal. That's Andy Jackson for you. The conduct of the silver idiots in the senate has put them beyond the pale of courtesy—they have acted like brutish bullies.

IT MAY be news for some to know that a big battle was fought at Jericho. For further particulars read Joshua, 6th chapter.

MORE TAXES—LESS WAGES.

It is not in evidence that the United States gains anything by the excessive duties on tin plate but the privilege of paying a great deal more for an article of common use and necessity, says the Pittsburgh Post. While in 1892 we imported from Wales 422,000,000 pounds of tin plate, our imports in the present fiscal year, 1893, has increased to 628,000,000 pounds. The duty on this, under the McKinley law, is over $13,800,000. Somebody has to pay this. Is it the consumer or the Welsh producer?

In the year before the McKinley bill was passed the price per box of tin plate was $4.34, while the average price for several years preceding 1890 was but $4.36. The duty then was but 1 cent per pound, as against 2-10 cents at this time. The price of tin plate is now $5.85 per box. It is just as well to keep these figures before the people. Alto, under this blessed McKinley law, the people are paying a tax of 14 cents a pound on pig tin or tin ore, not a pound being produced in this country. We continue to import more tin plate than we did before the McKinley law was enacted, and we are paying 22 per cent. more for it. The McKinley tax was put on not for revenue, but for protection, the intent being that it would shut out foreign importations. That was the prophecy of Congressman McKinley in advocating the tax. But in making it he was as far out of the line of truth as he was when he declared the McKinley tariff would maintain and advance wages. It has done neither. Under it wages have steadily declined.

THERE is no sound reason why any Democrat should bolt any part of his ticket. It is made up of sound men carefully selected, and everyone will make an efficient officer. No "complimentary" votes.

It is the duty of every Democrat to work for the entire Democratic ticket. Every candidate is worthy your undivided support. Don't let the Republicans laugh in their sleeve because they hoodwinked you with voting a complimentary.

THE HARRIS COMPROMISE.

There is a good deal of talk of a compromise bill proposed by Senator Harris, of Tennessee, a silver Democrat, but a very sagacious and diplomatic senator, instead of the Voorhees bill, over which the senate has been wrangling in disgrace to the country for several weeks. The compromise proposed by Senator Harris abandons the idea of a bond issue, to which there are grave objections in a party sense. Then it attempts to force silver into circulation by calling in all the bank notes and gold coins under $10, and re-issuing and re-coining them in that amount. This would leave the country without any smaller bank notes or gold than the $10 denomination, and would necessarily force the silver dollar into circulation. It is next provided that the $50,000,000 silver bullion in the treasury purchased under the Sherman act shall be coined at the rate of $3,000,000 a month. By this proposition the treasury would be relieved of the purchase of any silver bullion for a period of a year and a half. How much should be purchased after that time will be the critical point of the plan should it advance to consideration by the senate.

THE silver bill which has made all this trouble in the country, was signed by Harrison. The pocket states, with a population less than some of our counties, have over a dozen senators, who are silver kings, and filibuster to prevent the repeal of the silver bill. These pocket states were manufactured to secure additional electors for the re-election of Harrison. Now they are proving to be the curse of the country, by defying the will of the people and obstructing legislation.

Democrats, be awake, the election is nigh. We have an excellent county ticket in the field which is deserving every honest man's vote. The Republicans are on the alert, expecting to find Democrats in a nap and thus gain an opportunity to make a tap. Let every Democrat be at the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 7, and vote for the entire ticket, every man on it is honest, capable and deserving.

The hope of defeating a part of the Democratic county ticket is blasted; the people won't have it that way.

Harter will be elected to continue pulling teeth, while Condo will be the sheriff to pull the law breakers.

Goodhart and Adams will be re-elected to do business at the old stand and the taxpayers will rest easy that the commissioners' office will be in safe hands for another three years.

TUESDAY, November 7th, is election day and it is near at hand. It is the duty of every Democratic voter to make his brother Democrat aware of this and have him out on that day and vote the ticket straight. Get out the vote and Democracy will always win.

Inconsistency art thou a jewel that so many wear thee?

We still cling to the belief that unconditional repeal of the silver bill will pass the senate.

The silver minority claim the courtesy of the senate to set them above the house and senate. The only courtesy we know of to meet such impudence is for the majority to put their feet upon them instantly.

Few of the silver senators are eloquent or logical; as windbags they break the record.

AN I. O. O. F. TABLE.

Remarkable Piece of Work Done by Mr. D. F. Luse.

This week we were shown a remarkable piece of work by Mr. D. F. Luse, which for dexterity and skill displayed by the artisan, it is a specimen of rare handiwork. It is a table, of pretty design and finish, and is constructed entirely of woods contributed by members of the Centre Hall and other lodges of Odd Fellows.

Each state and territory is represented including the District of Columbia, in the table by the contribution of a distinct piece of wood, as is also every foreign country and island where there is an Odd Fellow's order.

The top of the table is inlaid with the contributions and is of handsome design, while the skeleton is also constructed in same manner. Each piece is labeled, giving the name of place and number of lodge donating. Twenty-two foreign countries and islands are represented. The table was begun by Mr. Luse in October 1890, and was not completed until a few days ago, and the work upon it can scarcely be realized except by a close examination.

In securing material for building up the table, Mr. Luse wrote 353 letters and postals, and some of the contributions could only be secured through the aid of foreign consuls and congressmen. There are 686 pieces of wood in the table, 62 different kinds. Among the notable pieces of wood of historic renown in the table is one contributed by the Odd Fellows of District of Columbia; a piece from a hickory tree planted by "Old Hickory" Jackson; Iowa sent a block from a frontier house, one of the oldest buildings in the state. A piece of maple from the yard of President Singer, of Singer sewing machine fame, represents the state of Connecticut. Georgia has a piece of yellow pine, which was a part of a paper weight used by a confederate official during the recent rebellion. Many of the woods are of the rarest and finest the countries produce. The table is heavy and massive and throughout is carved and inlaid. It is an Odd Fellows' table, as all the contributions were from members of the order.

The table has attracted a great deal of attention and since finished will be placed on exhibition in the I. O. O. F. room where for an insignificant sum, for the benefit of the Lodge, this rare specimen of art can be inspected.

CARD OF RESPECT.

Professor Josiah Jackson died, somewhat suddenly and after a comparatively brief illness, at Chester, Pa., Oct. 10th, 1893.

We, the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College, realize that there has gone from among us a man whose strong individuality was a force in the growth of the college; whose warm, genial sympathies rendered his friendship a peculiar treasure; who during long years of experience as a teacher, had endeared himself to the hearts of a large circle of students.

We shall miss him in the management of the College, from our social circles, but more than all else from our hearts.

While, in this sudden removal from earth of our beloved co-laborer and friend, we bow with humble submission to the Divine will; we share in the bereavement which has so suddenly come upon the household, and extend to the afflicted wife and children our deepest sympathy, commending them to His care who has said, "I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you."

Blew a Gale

Last Friday the weather Bureau predicted a storm moving from the West Indies to the states and it arrived on time too. All day Friday the wind blew with force, driving before it the rain that was falling. The wind increased by night and blew a perfect hurricane. Several chimneys were blown down in the town and in parts of the valley trees were torn up and fences blown down. Damage was done to late fruit, and it was but the lateness of the season which saved fruit and grain from being greatly damaged.

500 New Cars.

The Beech Creek Railroad company is having made at the Lebanon shops 500 cars for the Clearfield coal trade, fifty of which have been delivered. The style is known as the rapper coal car. They are equipped with air brakes similar to the cars in use by the New York Central road. The company is getting nine new engines from the works at Schenectady, N. Y.

Glanders in Horses.

Dr. Ritter, the veterinary surgeon informs us that he has discovered symptoms of glanders in several horses in the valley. If this disease should secure a stronghold among the noble animals, it is hard to tell just where it would end.

Go to Lewins, Bellefonte, for your clothing. Their styles are perfect in every respect. Suits neat in pattern, stylishly cut and elegantly made. Nothing quite so good anywhere.
