DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

- For Sheriff, JOHN P. CONDO. For Treasurer, JOHN Q. MILES. For Register, GEORGE W. RUMBERGER. For Recorder, W. GALER MORRISON. For Commissioners, GEORGE L. GOODHART, T. FRANK ADAMS. For Coroner, DR. G. S. FRANK. For Surveyor, W. M. GROVE. For Auditors, H. W. BICKLE, W. W. ROYER.

A DEMOCRATIC OPINION.

So far from it being necessary to harmony, compromise with the seditious gang of obstructionists in the senate would be fatal to the Democratic party. In spite of all disparagements, the great heart of the Democracy is sound to the core on the currency question. This has been demonstrated on every occasion on which its voice has been heard. In Nebraska, which has been described as a nursery of cheap silver humbugs, a Democratic convention has emphatically demanded the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law, and has repudiated the false representatives of the state in congress. The Democratic state committee of Alabama, another alleged hot-bed of cheap money absurdities, has unanimously passed a resolution approving the course of President Cleveland and his administration, at the same time giving notice to Senators Morgan and Pugh that they do not represent the sentiments of Alabama on the pending issue. From Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Florida have come expressions of popular sentiment which demonstrate that the Democracy of those states are true as ever to the principles of honest money, and that the silver senators have lost touch with them.

Wm. K. Vanderbilt has obtained control of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, having purchased 40,000 shares of stock the other day, and added another 15,000 shares since.

W. W. Royer, of Potter, is one of the Democratic nominees for county auditor, an important position. Mr. Royer is well qualified for the place, fitted by education and business experience. He will be firm against passing illegal accounts, and be on the side of the tax payers in his official capacity. His life is that of an honest man, and he filled many positions in Potter township with ability and fidelity.

The REPORTER has all along contended that unconditional repeal of the silver act would carry. We still firmly believe it.

The demand "for free silver" means this: That any person having silver bullion may take it to any United States Mint and have it coined into money without expense for the minting.

No one would object to that, providing a dollar's worth of silver bullion, instead of 60 cents worth, were coined into a dollar.

When the Congressional Record for the present extra session is bound, we suggest that the title of the volume be "Courtesies of the Senate."

For county surveyor the Democrats have W. M. Grove upon the ticket, who is an expert in the work of surveying; and it is important to all landholders that a gentleman of Mr. W. M. Grove's qualifications fill the position.

Dr. G. S. Frank, of Millheim, is the Democratic nominee for coroner. He stands at the head of his profession in this valley and is a gentleman of irrefragable character.

Senator Hill puts the senatorial situation and the remedy very clearly in his speeches. "If the presiding officer and 43 senators were of my way of thinking," said the senator with vehemence on Wednesday of last week, "this bill would be passed in spite of the minority."

AN OUT-DOOR WEDDING.

Rev. W. J. Wagner and Catharine I. Hoy United in Marriage.

On Wednesday at high noon a very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Hoy, near Bellefonte, at which time their daughter Catharine I. was united in marriage to Rev. W. J. Wagner, of Centre Hall.

Before the time had arrived for the ceremony to take place about seventy-five invited guests had assembled and the day being a fine one and the assembled company large, it was decided to have an out-door wedding; the guests all assembled on the beautiful lawn fronting the house, while at the first strains of the wedding march, which was rendered by Mr. William Meyer, of Bellefonte, the bride and groom made their appearance on the porch, where Rev. Noll, of Bellefonte, the officiating minister was in readiness and at once proceeded with the ceremony which made them one. The bride was attired in a handsome costume of cream cashmere, while the groom wore a suit of black.

Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were in order after which the guests were invited to the dining room where an elaborate repast was served. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful gifts from her friends.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Hoy, and is an intelligent young lady, well fitted for the position she will occupy as the wife of a minister, being of a kind and amiable disposition and highly esteemed by her many friends. The groom is the son of Mr. Jacob Wagner, of Tusseyville, and has lately entered the ministry, with bright prospects for a successful future.

The young couple took the 4.30 train for Lock Haven and other cities and will remain about a week.

JAIL DELIVERY.

Two Prisoners Succeed in Making Their Escape From Fort Isler.

On Saturday night about ten o'clock two prisoners confined in the jail at Bellefonte, succeeded in making their escape from that institution. They dug through the cell walls on the south side of the jail and gained access to the jail yard. Then they scaled the jail wall and were once more at liberty, using a rope which had evidently been furnished them by their friend. They were Charles Johnston and John Freeman. Johnston was confined on the charge of having stolen a razor and several other articles from James Parks, of near Bellefonte and Freeman was charged with burglarizing Thomas McCausland's jewelry store in Phillipsburg. Up to this date no trace has been discovered of them and it is not likely the search will be long protracted.

SUIT AGAINST BEAVER.

The Ex-Governor and His Law Partner Defendants in an Action.

Ex-Governor James A. Beaver is defendant in a case begun in the common pleas court. The action was brought by the administrators of the estate of Thornton Conrow, against General Beaver and his law partner, J. W. Gephart, to recover the amount of eight bonds of $500 each, with interest. The attorneys are charged with negligence in not obtaining judgment on the bonds which were given upon the sale, in 1881, of 5,195 acres of unseated timberland, in Centre county, until the land had been sold for non-payment of taxes and the mortgage had expired by limitation. Beaver and Gephart were attorneys of the administrators.

The circumstances set out by the plaintiffs are these: On January 28, 1881, Thornton Conrow sold to John Ardell, jr., of Bellefonte, thirteen tracts of unseated timber land, in all about 5,195 acres, in Centre county, and in part payment received fifteen bonds of $500 each, executed by Ardell in favor of Conrow, and payable in succession on the 28th day of July and January of each year. The first of the series being payable July 28, 1881, and the last on July 28, 1888. All the bonds were secured by a purchase money mortgage on the lands executed by Ardell in favor of Conrow. In 1884 the plaintiffs received as part of the assets of Conrow's estate the mortgage and the last eight bonds, the first seven having been previously paid. In the latter part of that year, or the early part of the following the administrators employed Beaver & Gephart to collect the debt secured by the bonds and mortgage; to speedily obtain judgment against Ardell and sell the land in order to obtain the debt from the proceeds; to bring ejectment proceedings against Ardell; to prevent waste by fire or otherwise, and to see that the taxes were paid, and if not to notify the administrators so that they could redeem the land.

All these things, it is alleged, the lawyers promised to do. It is then asserted that in correspondence which followed, the law firm assured the administrators that their debt was amply secured, the lands covered by the mortgage being worth over $30,000; that they couldn't obtain a better investment for trust money in the state and that the entire debt, with interest, would soon be paid. The averment is, however, that in 1888 Mr. Wain went to Bellefonte and was informed by Mr. Gephart that Ardell had failed and was insolvent; that the lands covered by the mortgage had been sold for non-payment of taxes, and that the time for redemption had expired, leaving the mortgage worthless.

The charges are then made that investigation disclosed the fact that full advertisement had been made that the lands were to be sold for taxes; that Beaver & Gephart, at the time of the sale, were acting as attorneys for Ardell and other parties who held claims on other lands of Ardell. Negligence is charged against the attorneys in not obtaining judgment on the bonds until after the land had been sold for taxes and the two years for redemption had expired, and in not foreclosing the mortgage and bringing ejectment proceedings against Ardell.

The trial of the action brought by S. Morris Wain and Howard Conrow, administrators of Thornton Conrow, deceased, against ex-Governor James A. Beaver and his law partner, John W. Gephart, ended in a verdict for the plaintiffs for $6,498.
