

DID THE SON MURDER HIS FATHER?

Murder in Perry County—James Carpenter's Body Found in the Creek.

Produce Merchant James Carpenter was probably murdered near Port Royal, Perry county, on Monday night.

The body was found about one o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the mouth of Tuscarora creek where it empties into the Juniata river.

James Carpenter, a son of the murdered man, is suspected of having committed the crime and was arrested today and committed to the Newport jail in default of bail to await the result of the coroner's investigation.

There is great excitement in the community over the murder and it is the general opinion that young Carpenter killed his parent to get possession of his money.

The murdered man was about fifty-six years old and his accused son is in thirty-first year. The father was an extensive produce dealer and is thought to have accumulated considerable money.

Interesting Items from Our Neighboring Town.

Mrs. W. W. Rishell and her husband spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ruhl. They left for Harrisburg last Tuesday, where they will take charge of the Metropolitan Hotel.

W. P. Alexander moved into Wm. Allison's house last Friday.

Our merchants have got down to solid business and free salt and free sugar has been suspended for the present; owing to the uncertainty of the Wilson bill, no doubt.

Robert Smith returned last Friday from Woodward, whither he had gone to join a hunting expedition. Some how or other he forgot to bring any venison along.

The Penn Literary society is in full blast now and has a large membership. It meets every Wednesday evening and promises to be a longer lived affair than was last year's Lyceum League.

The Methodists will hold Christmas services in their church on Saturday evening, 23rd; the Presbyterians will have their services on the evening of the 24th, and the Reforms on the evening of the 25th.

There was quite a hop at the hotel on Saturday evening; the elite of this place were all there.

Rumor has it that there is to be another store in town, and a Racket store at that.

W. S. Kirk, of Philadelphia, is in town now in the interest of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. He and our local agent, M. Shires, travel together; both being hustlers at the business, they are thoroughly invincible and are sure to make many preparations for the holding of first-class funerals in years to come.

Death at Tusseyville.

Last Sabbath the death of one of Potter township's most estimable citizens occurred at Tusseyville, in Mr. William Ishler. Mr. Ishler had not been in the best of health for some time, but was never confined to his bed, and was able to be around. On Sunday morning he was seized with a severe coughing spell, and died shortly after. His death was sudden and unexpected and was unlooked for by his friends.

Mr. Ishler was well up in years, and was aged 78 years, 7 months and 23 days. He was a member of the Reformed church, and a steadfast Democrat.

The funeral occurred on Wednesday from his late residence, interment being made in the cemetery at Tusseyville, Rev. Eisenberg officiating. The funeral was largely attended by a large concourse of friends who attested their regret at his demise.

Was Instantly Killed.

Patrick Hyde, 16 years of age, was instantly killed by a fall of coal in No. 7 mine at Sterling mines on Tuesday.

In the Lancashire mine, near Phillipsburg, John Patrick was killed by a fall of rock. The Sterling Coal company, operating at Hastings, Cambria county, and at Sterling, Clearfield county, Gen. D. H. Hastings, president, has retired from the business of miners and shippers of coal, contracting the operating of the mines to others.

Adam Bowersox proprietor of the Aaronsburg Bottling Works has rented the house and store room of M. D. Rokey, at this place, and will remove the Bottling Works to this place on the first day of April next, and will continue the manufacture of soft drinks at this place.

W. W. Rishell who has been proprietor of the Coburn House for the last several years, has sold his entire personal property to R. O. Braucht, of this place, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Rishell has rented a larger hotel in the city of Harrisburg and took possession of the same on Tuesday. We can recommend Mr. Rishell to the people of the capital city as a man who knows how to cater to the wants of his guests in an obliging and gentlemanly way, and would enjoy them to give him a share of their patronage.

The shop windows are beginning to assume their holiday attire.

On last Thursday morning this entire community was shocked to hear of the death of Harry W. Harter, a bright lad, eleven years of age, son of Jacob M., and Susan Harter, who live on Andrew Harter's farm, about one mile west of this place, by that dread disease diphtheria, of the most malignant kind. This boy, the jewel of the family, took sick on the Sunday previous and gradually grew worse until Thursday when his spirit took its flight to Him who gave it being. The best medical attendance was given to him, but it was of no avail. His remains were placed in the hands of the undertaker who buried him in Georges Valley cemetery without a funeral being held. Every precaution has been taken by the family to prevent the spread of the disease so there is no cause for alarm. It was reported that one of the children of George M. Bower was also suffering from the same disease, but the story proved to be unfounded. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sore trial; but they are asked to put their trust in Him, whose ways are past finding out. At this writing none of the other members of the family are afflicted with the disease.

On last Saturday evening twenty-one members of W. Camp, No. 680, P. O. S. of A. of this place went to Woodward to institute a new Camp of the order at that place. They all report a good time; but they say the way the President of the Camp got away with the oysters was wonderful to behold. The price of oysters has advanced in consequence thereof.

Going to Buy a Watch?

If so, buy one that cannot be stolen. The only thief-proof Watches are those with Non-pull-out

Here's the Idea: The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (twin) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

To be sure of getting a Non-pull-out, see that the case is stamped with this trade mark. It cannot be had with any other kind.
