CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. DEC. 21

THAT GRANGE RESOLUTION.

The State Grange on Thursday adopted a resolution denouncing Secretary Morton and demanding that he retract his offensive utterances against the organization. If he does not, President Cleveland will be asked to remove him and put some one in his place who will be acceptable to the patrons. That's the way to talk.

What Morton said that was offensive to the grange leaders was that some are using the order for bad purposes and turning it into office hunting ways. The Secretary certainly could not have had bro. Rhone in his eye, who would rather plow a furrow any day than be off holding an office.

This journal has always advocated whatever was to the best interests of the farmer; it was both right and proper that they should organize the order of Patrons to advance their own interests and for social culture, and if Secretary Morton can detect an occassonal fraud or crank among the leaders of the Grange who would prostitute the noble order to office-seeking, he should bear in mind that such frauds and cranks find their way into other orders also. The farmer is not to blame for this, and his suspicions are acute enough to teach him who may be trying to use the grange for low, selfish purposes. We know that Centre county farmers are as quick to understand the mere place seeker as those who imagine they alone are shrewd.

Secretary Morton should not imagine that if wild ideas are put out by a crank occasionally that the farmers are lacking in judgment to see it; they know what is sound doctrine as well as others do.

IGNORANCE, it has again been decided, is no excuse for violation of law. J. Sheridan, an election judge in Philadelphia, on Friday last, pleaded guilty before Judge Biddle in quarter sessions to violating the election laws of the state. In excuse for his conduct Sheridan pleaded unfamiliarity with the duties of an election judge and assured the court he had no intention of doing wrong. Judge Biddle said that ignorance of the law was no excuse and sentenced Sheridan to pay a fine of $100 and to undergo an imprisonment of 30 days. The sentence under the law carries with it disfranchisement for four years.

This applies to all officials, from the highest down to boro council.

A MERRY Christmas to all our readers; may none be in want.

THE PRESIDENT'S HAWAIIAN MESSAGE.

The Philad. Times, in its comments upon the President's Hawaiian message, sent to congress last Monday, says:

"He has been abused for pursuing a course that is shown to have been governed throughout by regard for truth and justice and for the restraints of law, and never even to have contemplated any of those things for which he has been denounced.

"The President gives a strong, clear, earnest and convincing narrative of all the circumstances preceeding and accompanying the overthrow of the Hawaiian Government. He shows that the conduct of the United States Minister leading up to the treaty of annexation was contrary to all our diplomatic laws and traditions, and inconsistent with good faith, constituting an act of war of which this government could not take advantage without dishonor.

"The lawful government of Hawaii was overthrown by the authority of the United States and the government of a self-constituted committee set up in its place. The Queen did not abdicate her authority to the provisional government; she abdicated it to the United States, pending her appeal to Washington. This appeal had not been heard or considered when the treaty of annexation was hurriedly consummated, with a government that existed only by the support of the United States and without the consent or recognition of the people of Hawaii."

CHRISTMAS, the greatest of all holidays, in commemoration of the birth of Christ, the greatest event that was or is to be, Christmas, we say, is about to open upon us for the 1893 time.

All Christendom hails it as a season of gladness—of cheer for what is has brought to the world, Redemption, Salvation, Everlasting Life, for all who will accept the priceless gift.

There is not now, upon the broad face of the earth a nation in which the Saviour does not have a worshipper and where the great festival is not celebrated.

Let all rejoice. Do all you can to make others feel glad and banish sorrow. Especially do something to make the children feel glad and happy and explain to them what it is all about. A small token will gladden any little one; but let it be larger, according to your means. Can there be one with heart so cold as not to gladden at least one person on Christmas?

IT is amusing to hear Republicans say that the existing depression is owing to Cleveland's election, when they know full well that it is only a slopping over from Harrison's administration. You funny repubs, just wait until Cleveland has had time to get in his work.

LAST Thursday's Philadelphia Press boasts that 90 out of every 100 of the delegates to last week's state grange were Republicans and that they would pull for a certain Republican for congressman-at-large. Does the Press intend to make charges a la Morton?

THE close of '93 is nigh. Look back and see if you have done any thing that was unmanly or dishonorable. Was it a year that you can point to with pride as having accomplished something for the good of your fellow man, or have you been full of selfishness, jealousy and mean things?

Was your conduct conscentious and in accord with the dictates of honor in your dealings with your neighbor? If your record is pure hereon you have a priceless jewell on your brow and old '93 passes into the past leaving you a satisfaction that is greater than to be the possessor of millions of wealth.

THE majority report on the Wilson tariff bill was made public on Tuesday. The bill shows it was framed for the benefit of the many millions of consumers and the laboring classes as was demanded at the last presidential election. Raw materials are placed on the free list, and there will be a check upon monopolies and trusts. The beneficial workings of tariff reform will only be felt after the law has been set in full operation. The present slump and distress, as is well known, began under Harrison and is the fruit of the M'Kinley protective tariff which created trusts and monopolies.

The Columbia Desk Calendar.

Which is issued annally by the Pope Manufacturing Company, of Columbia Bicycle fame is out for 1894, much improved in appearance. It is a pad calendar of the same size and shape as those of previous years, having a leaf for each day, but its attractiveness has been heightened by the work of a clever artist, who has scattered a series of bright pen-drawings through its pages. It also contains, as usual, many appropriate and interesting contributions from people both bright and wise.

La Grippe Again.

The re-appearance of the "GRIP" calls to mind the experience of Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. He was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and with considerable success, I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack, I am satisfied, would have been equally as bad as the first, but for the use of this remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. D. Murray.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by J. D. Murray, Druggist.
