DEMOCRATIC RESPONSIBILITY.

The week has gone by in Congress without a single step toward the consideration of the tariff or any other public business, remarks the Philad. Times. The minority has persistently abstained from voting and the majority has not been able to command a quorum.

Discreditable as this obstruction is to both sides, the real responsibility is upon the Democrats, who have been entrusted with the duty of legislation | huth. and cannot command the organization or leadership necessary to accomplish their task.

That the tariff bill will be passed does not admit of doubt, but it ought to be passed -promptly. Every day's delay prolongs the business depression and exhausts the patience of the coun-

THE new tariff bill is now under good headway in the house, and it will be promptly passed with very slight changes if any.
