The election in the borough passed off very quietly. The principal contest was for Justice of the Peace: two tickets in the field. The regular Democratic ticket was elected as follows: Judge, Dennis Luse; Inspector, B. F. Kister; Burgess, William Miller; Overseer of Poor, W. F. Keen; School Directors, W. H. Weaver, M. C. On the 22nd of February about twenty-two Veterans assembled at the home of Dr. S. G. Gutelius, to partake of a turkey dinner, by special invitation. Forty-four persons partook of the same. A very enjoyable time was had by the old soldiers, and such a dinner too; fit for the Gods. At two o'clock the veterans with their wives and children, and citizens of the town convened in the G. A. AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm. her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last recort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.
