Tuesday was truly Hastings' day at the Republican County Convention, which convened in the court house at 11.30 o'clock.

General Hastings should be and doubtless is a happy man, for the Republicans of Centre county turned out en masse to show their loyalty to and their hearty interest in his candidacy for the Gubernatorial honors and when he was introduced before the convention he received an ovation that made the very walls of the old court house tremble.

The convention was the most enthusiastic and largely attended in the history of the Republican party in the county, and the pleasantest harmony and most cordial feeling prevailed from the beginning until the close.

Chairman W. F. Reeder called the convention to order and S. T. James, of Philipsburg was made president. Prof. Hamilton, of State College, was reading clerk, and S. H. Bennison and F. H. Clemson were secretaries, The committee on resolutions consisted of Chairman W. F. Reeder, D. H. Ruhl, of Spring Mills; W. E. Irvin, of Philipsburg; Capt. J, A. Quigley, of property, recently given by him. Eagleville; and Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte. The delegates to the State convention are: General Beaver and John P. Harris, of Bellefonte.

General D. H. Hastings, Gen. Beaver, John P. Harris, Col. J. P. Coburn and Judge A. O. Furst were called for and responded with ringing addresses.

Interesting Items From the Town and

On Saturday last there were seen on our streets more G. A. R. men than have been seen for many months; important business of the Post, no doubt brought so many to town. Keep it up comrades!

The cold snap of the early part of last week gave all a chance to get their ice houses filled and every one that wanted ice was busy.

Landlord Weaver, of the National hotel, on Tuesday of last week had an ice frolic and housed twelve or fifteen loads of fine ice; Weaver must be in with the farmers for it is the first time that we know of the like being done here, so he must have by his geniality and good treatment captivated the frolickers.

W. S. Goodhart, our popular implement man, has traded for a patent churn which is one of the most simple, yet effective apparatus for churning butter that we have seen.

The Bowman-Esher faction of the Evangelical church of this borough and vicinity no doubt are much elated by the decision of Judge Mayer in the church fight for possession of church

A party of young persons from Rebersburg and from the borough had quite ah enjoyable time one evening last week at the National hotel. Dr. Fred can tell you all about it.

The funeral of Mrs. Jacob Bame, last Saturday was attended by many people. Rev. Durkee, of the M. E. church officiated.

Lewis Hassinger, who some weeks ago fell from a hay mow, breaking two ribs, is able to be about again and in a short time will be able to go to work.

The new drug store to be opened up here in M. C. Gephart's building about the 1st of April, by a Mr. Morris, of Philadelphia, will no doubt prove a success, as it is something that has long been wanting here.

Springer's barber shop does a rushing business on Saturday nights. Three chairs in occupancy and yet the demand cannot be satisfied, to the young fellows who want to see their best girl. They all want to be shaved

Bruce Garman, of Bellefonte, and a Mr. Stein, of Pittsburg, registered at the "National" last week. What their business in town was we are unable to sick list for some time is around again. say; two young ladies of the town might give the desired information.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable piace. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M., 2d. N. Y. Cavairy and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Milea' Restorative Nervine. Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

—Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892. These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price. $1 per bottle, six bottles $6, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.
