The Remains of Thomas Eisenhuth Interred at Aaronsburg.

Miss Martha Allen at this writing is Miss Martha Allen at this writing is slowly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. f pneumonia.

Mr. William Burd, son of David QUARRYING MACHINERY. Burd, who was taken sick with pneumonia while visiting at the home of ATLAS POWDER.—The very best Lewis Snavely, has so, far recovered that he was removed to his home on Monday.

Our team of marksmen, composed of G. R. Stover, T. B. Everett, John Hoffa, W. H. Harter and A. M. Harter went to Rebersburg on Saturday afternoon to shoot a match with a local team of that place, at Blue rock. The contest was a close one with a small gain in favor of our team.

An inventory of the goods in the store of W. H. Meyer was taken last week, and possession taken thereof by his brother T. F. Meyer on last Friday. He having moved to this place from Linden Hall on last Tuesday.

It is rumored that some person from Bellefonte has rented the store room on the corner, formerly occupied by Durham Bros. and that the same will be used for a pool room.

The roving propensity of the animal vulgarly called the hog, was well illustrated one night last week by some of Luther Guisewite's pork leaving his meat vessel in his grain house and getting into somebody else's meat vessel or smokehouse.

The cold snap of the last few days has put an end to the farmer's plowing for the time being. The old maxim "If March comes in like a lamb it will go out like a lion is being verified.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas Eisenhuth, who was living with her husband and three children at Lindale, Union county, were brought to this place on Friday evening on the train, and interred at Aaronsburg on Saturday forenoon. Mrs. Eisenhuth was a daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Kerstetter, of this place, her father having preceded her to the grave about three years ago, as well as two sisters some years before that. She was a consistent member of the Evangelical church of this place. She died of that dread disease consumption, at the age of twenty-eight years. Mother and one son are all that are left of the Kerstetter family.

Mrs. Moyer, wife of George J. Moyer, of this place, died very suddenly on Monday forenoon about ten o'clock. She was apparently in good health and was doing the work about the house, when all at once she fell over and was in death's cold and icy embrace. She leaves a husband and six children, all grown, to mourn their loss.

Fine Timber Land.

Among the few tracts of pine timber land in Pennsylvania which still remain undisturded to show the magnificence of the primeval forest are 2700 acres in Polk township, Jefferson county. It is estimated that 57,000,-000 feet of pine lumber of fine quality can be obtained from this tract, besides a considerable quantity of hemlock and oak. The lands belong to Pittsburg parties, and their appraised value is $317,000. If the owners of timber land in Pennsylvania had for many years past taxed their ingenuity in devising ways to make money they could hardly have hit upon any plan to make it faster than by simply holding on to their trees and growing rich with their growth.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH. Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter. Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and daughter. Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.
