whom his system of espionage has driven to desperation seem determined to force the crisis, the fall of Populism in South Carolina may be attended by still further scenes of violence and bloodshed.

For what has already happened no one on earth is to blame except Tillman and his Populist supporters. He still asserts himself to be acting as a guardian of the new law. The fact is that his law and the methods he has taken to enforce it are an open, defiant infringment of the Constitution and of principles based on the Bill "of Rights and Magna Charta itself. "The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, paper and possessions from unreasonable searches and seizures." The facts that a Legislature permits or prescribes unreasonable searches does not render them any the less obnoxious, and in standing out for the inviolabilty of their homes the South Carolinians are on precisely the ground that all the farmers of these our Anglo-Saxon institutions have taken for their support since they first determined that they would not put up with either tyranny or monkey business. And every attempt, in whatever quarter, to interfere will private rights have him attempting to seize the railroads and telegraph lines, which turn to him a callous front, and we have both sides arming for a struggle. Where is the government of South Carolina at this juncture? Certainly, when Populism is reduced to the threat, be a populist or I'll call out the military," it should be able to make good its words. It should at least establish itself as an armed despotism, for otherwise it will land in chaos, where Tillman finds himself.-Philad. Times.

HON. B. K. FOCHT of the Lewisburg Saturday News, received a hearty endorsement at the Union county Republican primaries, when his majority for Assembly was about one thousand, over his competitor, out of about fifteen hundred votes cast. Besides editing the ablest sheet in his section, he is a noted political worker, and is doomed for a position in the near future on the Republican State ticket.

THE nomination of Hastings may just as well be made by acclamation, as there is no necessity of even taking a ballot. He already has more than the required number of delegates, but they still keep on instructing for him.

D. F. Fortney Appointed.

D. F. Fortney has been appointed post-master at Bellefonte by President Cleveland. No more deserving Democrat could have been selected, his service to the party in the last twentyfive years has been of great value and unrewarded-no truer or more active Democrat is to be found in the state. The appointment meets general approval and Belletonte will have a firstclass post-master.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by J. D. Murray.

ANARCHY IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The tension in South Carolina has resulted in the inevitable bursting asunder of the srtands and the legitimate end of the TILLMAN experiment in State socialism is at hand. It furnishes an object lession whose value it would seem almost impossible to mistake. The unfortunate State which is suffering under this first logical and uncompromising affliction of Populist theories has gained not the millennium but murder, riot and civic revolt, and as both Governor and the citizens whom his system of espionage has

When the first spark of trouble showed at Darlington some weeks ago attention was call to Tillman's threats, and it was pointed out that this sort of socialism was much the same as anarchy. The remark has been more than justified. We have the spectacle of sworn officers of the State conducting themselves and being hunted down like hired bravoes; we have the Government calling out the militia, which disbands rather than obey him; we have him attempting to seize the rail-
