TWO MEN KILLED. Officers Attacked by Poles in Detroit's Streets.

THREE FIGHTERS WILL DIE

Seventeen Felled by Bullets and Cudgels In a Row Over Wages-Sheriff Collins had a Bad Gash on the Head and Several Cuts and Bruises.

A despatch from Detroit, Mich., says: Wayne County's Sheriff lies in a precarious ondition, his body lacerated by the shovels of enraged rioters. Two Polish laborers are dead and seventeen men were injured, three fatally.

These unfortunate conditions are the result of a conflict which occurred at noon between 400 Poles and Sheriff Collins and five of his deputies. The riot was brought about by differences of opinion over the wages to be paid laborers by the City Water Commissioners for digging trenches for pipe laying in Grosse Pointe Township, just east of the city limits. The Commissioners decided to pay by the cubic yard, but for the past day or two 300 Poles had hung about the vicinity, declaring they would neither work themselves nor allow others to, unless paid $1.50 per day. No actual outbreak was anticipated, but as a precaution, Sheriff Collins and five deputies went to the scene to protect those who wished to work. Work progressed on a small scale during the morning, but Engineer Williams becoming alarmed at the aspect of things consulted some of the Commissioners shortly before noon and was instructed to quit work for the time being. Before he returned, however, rioting began. Sheriff Collins and Deputy Steyskal after telephoning for reinforcements began to address the mob to pacify them-One of the Poles began an opposition harangue.

The crowd thereupon started to annihilate the officers and the handful of laborers at work. At the advance the officers drew revolvers and fired over the strikers' heads, but the mob came on and the next volley was discharged into the crowd. Then the officers retreated slowly, firing as they went. Still the mob followed, one man dealing the Sheriff a vicious blow on the head with his shovel The other officers escaped, all being more or less pounded with shovels, but the helpless Sheriff was brutally attacked. The mob then scattered, leaving the Sheriff unconscious on the field. Two of the Poles were found dead, John Pielat and a comrade, name unknown. Sheriff Collins regained consciousness shortly after 2 o'clock. He had a bad gash on the head, several painful cuts and bruises about the body and almost bled to death from a lacerated leg. His physician reported that he would probably pull through. During the afternoon some twenty Poles were arrested, which intensified the bitterness. Another shooting affair took place in th rear of the municipal court building. A group of Poles had congregated, and Deputy Sheriff Borneman recognized one of them as one of the rioters. He started to arrest him when some one in the crowd fired a revolver, hitting the Pole in the leg. At the hospital he gave the name of Tony Pabowski. Borneman could not learn who fired the shot.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

SENATE.

101sr DAY. -The second Saturday that the Senate has been in session since the present Congress convened ended the armistice of one week's debate on the Tariff bill free from one week's debate on the Tariff bill free from filibustering motions. The resolution of Senator Quay to grant a hearing to working-men in the Senate chamber on April 21 was effectually disposed of, showing that the Senate could not listen to any such proposition. Senator Morgan reported his substitute bill for aiding the construction of the Nicaragua Canal. At one o'clock the Tariff bill was taken up, and Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, spoke in opposition to the bill. At the conspoke in opposition to the bill. At the con-clusion of the reading, Senator Quay entered into an elaborate technical, statistical and historical resume of the iron industry. Dur-ing the afternoon Senator Hill introduced some proposed amendments to the rules, and Senator Peffer offered a resolution to give Coxey's army a hearing.

102D DAY .--- Owing to the death of Senator Vance, the Senate transacted no public busi-ness. Resolutions of respect to the memory of the distinguished North Carolina states-men were unanimously adopted. The House as a body participated in the funeral cere-monies in the Senate, after which it adjourned as a further mark of respect.

103 DAY.—The early hours of the Senate were devoted to a skillful parliamentary struggle between those for and against the tariff bill. It resulted in an agreement to continue the arrangement of last week for debate until Tuesday of next week, when the bill will be taken up, re-discussed by paragraphs.Sena-tor Hill would not consent to the agreement until it was made plain that he would not be deprived of making a motion to consider the list first. Two speeches were made on the tariff bill 104TH DAY .- The proceedings in the Senate were void of any incidents of special interest. Good progress was made in the discussion of the Tariff bill, speeches being made against it by Senators Morrill, Cameron and Quay, and for it by Senator Turpie.

105TH DAY .- The day in the senate was almost entirely consumed by a speech against the pending Tariff bill by Senator Perkins of California. At five o'clock eulogies were pronounced on the late Representative W. H. Enochs, of Ohio.

1067 m Day. —In the Senate, Senator Hawley replied to the speech of Senator Allen on Coxey's Army of the Commonwealth. Sena-tor Hawley was vigorous in his remarks and took occasion to defend the dignity of the Senate and asserted that the speech made by Senator Allen was more fitted to a meeting of Anarchists than the Senate of the Uni States. The speeches were by Senator Gal-linger, of New Hampshire; McMillan, of Michigan, and Dolph, of Oregon.

HOUSE.

101sr Day.-The session in the House lasted but half an hour. The Republicans would not abandon their filibustering position, not-withstanding the fact that they had in effect won their victory in favoring the Democratic caucus to adopt the quorum-counting ex-pedient invented by Mr. Reed in the Fifty-first Congress to break down obstructive tactics. Mr. Boutelle refused to permit the journal to be approved without the presence of a Demoeratic quorum.

1020 DAY .- In the House appropriate resolutions were also adopted in memory of Gen-eral Henry W. Slocum, the gallant Union general, formerly a member of the House,

103mb Day .- The House, by an overwhelming vote, decided to adopt a quorum-counting rule, which, for all practical purposes is the same as that which ex-Speaker Reed, of same as that which ex-speaker Reed, of Maine, inaugurated during the Fifty-first Congress. Only fifteen minutes on a side were allowed for debate. After the adoption of the rule it only required a few minutes to straighten out the parliamentary tangle in which the House has been for some days, and the House that parliamentary tangle in the House then quietly proceeded with the consideration of the Consular and Diplomatic 104TH DAY .- The House devoted the entire day to general debate on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill. It touched a wide variety of subjects, and at times was brimful of interesting personalities. 105TH DAY .- The House is making very ow progress with the Diplomatic and Co sular Appropriation bill, Almost the entire oted in threshing over the old dav was de straw in the Hawaiian controversy.

Brazil's Best War Vessel Sent to the Bottom in Battle.

THE REVOLUTION IS ENDED.

Mello and His Followers in a Sorry State and Asking the Protection of the Argentine Republic .--Da Gama After Revenge.

Buenos Ayres, via Galveston, special says: The collapse of the Brazilian revolution is complete. Admiral de Mello's squadron, with the remnant of the refugees, is here. It consists of five vessels, including the flagship Republica. Many wounded were on board. Tho Aquidaban was sunk off Santa Catharina by Peixoto's torpedo boats, and the islands of Santa Catharina were captured. Melio wrote to the President of Argentina, turning the vessels over to the Argentine Government and claiming its protection.

The Aquidaban was a seagoing turret ship of 5000 tons displacement, built in England and launched in 1885. She was protected by a belt of steel-faced armor, having a maximum thickness of 11 inches. The Aquidaban had two turrets protected by 10-inch armor and her principal armament consisted of four 21-ton breech-loading guns carried in turrets. In addition, the rebel flagship had an auxiliary armament of four 5-ton breech-loaders, besides 17 machine guns.

The Aquidaban was built of steel, sheathed with wood and metal, and possessed al! modern improvements in construction and equipment.

The rebel ships are in a dilapidated condition, and the rebels on board of them are suffering from sickness, wounds and lack of proper food supplies. The Brazilian Minister has received advices from Rio de Janeiro, saying that the Brazilian Government will pay the quarantine expenses of the ships if they are surrendered to the Brazilian Minis-

Consequently the Argentine Government with the consent of the rebel leaders delivered the five war vessels to the Brazilian Minister. The crews of the rebel ships are being disembarked at the Lazaretto and will be cared for until further orders are received from Rio de Janeiro. It is believed that when the men are in proper condition they will rejoin the Brazilian vessels under Government officers. President Peixoto's Government has notified the Government of Uruguay that the expenses and passage money home of the insurgents who landed in the department of Rocha, Uruguay, will be paid by the Brazilian Government, and that they may all, with the exception of the leaders, return to Brazil, with no fear of being severely, punished for the part which they have taken in the rebellion. It is understood that President Peixoto in adopting this wise and lenient policy has acted under the advice of a foreign power which has the interests of the Republic of Renzil at heart. Nothing seems to be known of the ultimate destination of Admiral de Mello and General Salgado, though it is believed that the former will take the earliest opportunity of escaping to some foreign country where he can hide himself for the rest of his life. On all sides the utmost contempt is expressed for Admiral de Mello, whose desertion of Admiral da Gama is looked upon as being a piece of cowardly treachery. It is openly stated that da Gama proposes to seek out Admiral de Mello and compel him to meet him in mortal combat.

A BATTLE WITH OUTLAWS.

Eight Persons, Including the Dalton Gang. Killed in Oklahoma

A special from Perry, Ok., says: News was received here by a messenger that a terrible fight occurred about forty miles east of there near the Ewen Mountain. The noted outlaws Bill Dalton and Bill Doolan, and another out. law, said to be Bitter Creek, and a woman and her little girl were killed on the spot, as were also two deputy marshals.

Marshal Nix, of Oklahoma, has been planning for some days to catch the Dalton gang and Marshal Burrell Cox, with Heck Thomas and Bill Tighemann, of Perry, and a crowd of fourteen deputy marshals left some days ago for the eastern part of the Cherokee Strip in pursuit of the Daltons. The marshals met Bruce Miller, one of the gang, and the fight commenced. This was on McElroy's ranch, 15 miles this side of Ingalls. Bill Dalton and Bill Doolan were near by when the fight occurred and went to Bruce Miller's assistance.

The messengers left the place of conflict at 8 o'clock and report as above. They say that eight persons in all have been killed and the latest from the field of conflict is that a running fight is still in progress.

The price of Bill Dalton's capture, dead or alive, is $2,500, and the price of Bill Doolan's head is $1,500. The best officers of the Territory are camping on the outlaws' trail and the latest news from the field is that the Dalton gang is a thing of the past. The have terrorized Oklahoma and Southern Kazasas for the past four years.

Vice-President Howard, of the American Railway Union said that he was waiting to see what the company proposed doing before permitting the men in the twin cities to go out. The meeting at Minneapolis decided to strike when Mr. Howard declared the time most opportune. Mr. Howard says he is now advised as to every move of the company, and a strike now would interfere with this prompt knowledge. The union is anxious to see what the brotherhoods are going to do, as well as watching the railroad.
