Jerome Spiglemyer the merchant, has been confined to the house for nearly one week; he is again able to attend to business.

It is rumored that Cyrus Brungard is negotiating for a bicycle. The only trouble will be to get one that is large and strong enough, for Cyrus is a very large man. He might get Fos. Albright to make him one.

The little daughter of Will Harter, the dentist of State College, died on Saturday at the residence of Dr. J. F. Harter, after several weeks of sickness. The child had various diseases and suffered dreadfully. Funeral on Monday.

John H. Woomer and W. A. Tobias started on Monday morning for Swift run for a two dry's trout fish; when they return look out for fish yarns; of course fishermen all tell the truth and no doubt they are no exception to the standard rule.

Rev. Brown of the Reformed church visited the members of his church in this locality, one day last week accompanied by Dr. S. G. Gutelius.

The citizens of the borough can now see the need of a good school building. Prof. Neff's school is so large that he has scarcely standing room, where the school is now held. Wake up directors and citizens and let us build a house that will accommodate the pupils and be an ornament to our town.

The fellow who got into trouble at Sunbury, and got the matter fixed up here ought to take better care of himself or more trouble will follow; the next time he may not fare so well. "Honesty is the best policy."

Some of our trout fishermen were quite successful last week; John Road caught 30, Al. Auman 19, and W. H. Culberson caught 120: some were very fine ones. The waters were too high and muddy for fly fishing.

Quite a large number of commercial men visited our town last week, consequently our hotels were crowded, and doing a rushing business.

Mrs. Willis Weaver took a trip to Bellefonte last week for a few days, accompanied by her two boys, Ralph and Max.

In consequence of no special train running on Thursday to the great Odd Fellows day at Lewisburg, the Odd Fellows of Millheim and Rebersburg did not attend.

Harry Frank, of North street received a "Reading Flyer" bicycle a few days ago and now he will no longer walk but fly, W. L. Goodhart the implement man has also purchased one. Some few others are talking about getting an untamed steed and soon we will have quite a number of wheel-

Isaiah Coxey, the hackman from Boalsburg, an uncle of General Coxey, of the Commonweal army, was in town the other day; can't tell whether he was recruiting for Gen. Coxey or recruiting himself.

Three bicyclists from Spring Mills, paid our town a visit last week, viz: Prof. Rearick, Harry From and P. D.

Joe Parsons and Sin Harris of Bellefonte, were in town last week, and stopped at the Musser house a few days. They have a fine wagon and attract a great deal of attention; they visit stores and clean up boots and shoes and make them look like new
