Business Law in Daily Use.

Herewith are the most important laws, succinctly stated, that touch the needs of the average business man. An observance of them will enable one to avoid many mistakes that may be serious, and steer the innovent from many pitfalls that may be calamitous. They contain, in few words, the essence of a large amount of legal verbiage not always very intelligible.

Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm, except in cases of "special" partnerships.

Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced.

A contract made with a minor is void.

A contract made with a lunatic (or with one who has a general reputation for weak mindedness) is void. (The latter case must, however, be clearly established.)

The acts of one partner bind all the other partners.

It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.

No consideration is sufficient in law if it be illegal in its nature. (Many "failures" are upset because of this law.)

A receipt for money is not always conclusive.

An agreement without consideration is void.

The law compels no one to do impossibilities. (This must be liberally construed.)

Ignorance of the law excuses no one. Note especially the following, as affecting the giving and taking of notes and checks:

A note made on Sunday is void.

A note made by a minor is void. A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected. (This is a corollary to the law governing contracts with the weak minded.)

Notes bear interest only when so stated.

Signatures made with a lead pencil are good in law.

A note indorsed in blank is transferable by delivery, the same as if made payable to bearer.

The maker of an "accommodation" note (one for which he has received no consideration, having lent his name and credit for the accommodation of the holder) is not bound to the person accommodated, but is bound to all other parties, precisely as if there was a good consideration.

If a note is lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it if the consideration for which it was given, and the amount can be proved.

If the maker of a check or draft has changed his residence, the holder must use "due diligence" to find him.

Checks or drafts must be presented for payment "without unreasonable

SPRING MILLS.

Decoration Day to be Observed by Appropriate Exercises.

We are all here safe and sound though the inhabitants of Republican Row all took to the hills on Sunday. but have all returned without the loss of one.

Seven and one-half inches of water is what fell during the heavy rains here.

Sinking creek was eighteen inches higher than during the June flood of 1889; while Fred Segel compared Penns creek with the June marks and found Sunday's flood nine inches higher.

The track men from Lewisburg, Mifflinburg, Glen Iron, Paddy Mountain, Coburn and Centre Hall, were here on Tuesday trying to repair Sinking creek bridge, which is in a dilapidated condition.

Rev. Ralph W. Illingsworth, of the M. E. church, will preach the Memorial sermon for the G. A. R. on next Sunday at 10.30 a. m.

Mrs. Henry Royer was stricken with paralysis on Monday afternoon, but at last reports she was improving.

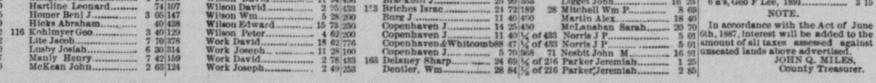

Owing to the high water there was no Sunday school or religious services last Sunday.

The G. A. R. will perform the usual ceremonies on Memorial Day; at Farmers Mills at 9.30; at Georges Valley at 2.30, and at Spring Mills at 5.30. Able speakers have been engaged for each place; Col. Kress, of Lock Haven, will speak at Spring Mills. The veterans will be accompanied by the Farmers Mills band and a Drum Corps. Daisy Kennelley, Verna V. Rearick, Cottle Evans, and Ida Condo have been appointed a committee on flowers and the various Sabbath schools, congregations, and citizens generally are invited to participate.

Mr. Rathburn, postmaster of Elmira, N. Y., was in town a few days this week, trying to sell his big hotel known as the Bibby House, but failed to make a sale.
