Postal Card Dunning.

The Ithica Journal says there is a very general impression among merchants and others who are particularly interested in the subject that it is a criminal offense under United States laws to mail a dunning letter written on a postal card. A person in this neighborhood wrote to the first assistant postmaster general, asking for information, and receiving a reply giving the decision of Judge Thayer, December 14, 1889, on the wording of a postal card that was mailable and one that was not. The mailable one read: "Please call and settle account, which is long past due, and for which our collector has called several times, and oblige." The unmailable one reads: "You owe me $1.80. We have called several times for same. If not paid at once, we shall place with our law agency for collection."

The last sentence, it is stated, ruled out this communication. Postal cards are not mailable if they contain language of "a threatening character," and it is a very serious threat to the average man to tell him you are going to sue him. There is no law however to prevent you from putting an X on your card to let your debtor understand that you are really cross with him.

Latest Strike News.

Operators and miners have agreed to meet at Altoona on Saturday, to confer on the strike situation, with hopes of getting together.

At McKeesport yesterday, there was riotous proceedings, and the strikers destroyed two tipples, valued at $10,-000; 2000 foreigners composed the mob. The mayor has called for aid.

At the Duquesne tube works men were forced to stop.

The Clearfield operators are to have a conference in Philadelphia today. In Colorado the strikers are strongly entrenched on Bull Hill and refuse to surrender except to the militia.

In Ohio 1200 troops have been ordered out.

Death.

On Wednesday, May 16th, 1894, at Preston, Minnesota, of pleuro pneumonia, Eva I., wife of G. W. Hard, aged thirty-nine years. Deceased was the only daughter of Louis Kurtz, brother of the editor of this paper. The Preston Courier says: "Mrs. Hard was born in Mew York. She was a lady of refined tastes and accomplishments. In society she was a leader; at home a true wife and loving mother. She leaves a husband, three daughters and one son to mourn her departure."

The bereaved family have our deepest sympathy, as we know their loss is beyond price.

Prohibition State Ticket.

Will Not be a Candidate.

The friends of Captain George M. Boal have been mentioning him in connection with the Republican nomination for assembly. This honor the Capt. declines, as he so stated to a REPORTER scribe. If a Republican is to be elected to represent this side of the county in the next Legislature, no better representative could be secured than in Mr. Boal. An effort will be made among the party to have Prof. John Hamilton, of College, again allow his name to be used.

To Celebrate.

Millheim intends celebrating the 4th of July and last week a meeting was called to promulgate the scheme, and it was decided to go ahead and celebrate. There is every reason for them having a big time. There will be no celebration in any town in the county and with a good program will pack the town. Center Hall will send her share to do this while the surrounding county will come up all right.

Traffic Light.

The passenger traffic is still very light over the railroad which is probably caused by the damage done by the flood in washing away three spans of the bridge at Montandon. The trains are only run with two cars, a passenger coach and a combination baggage and mail. It will probably be two or three weeks before the trains can ruu through to Montandon.

Approaching Wedding.

On the 14th of June the wedding of Prof. Calvin Neff, son of Mr. Lafayette Neff, of near Center Hall, to Miss Zeigler, will take place at the residence of the brides parents, at Spring Mills.

Wedding Today.

Today at noon the wedding of Rev. S. H. Deitzel and Miss Grace Durst will take place at the home of the brides' parents at Potters Mills.
