

A FUTILE EFFORT

HILL'S OPPOSITION HAS FEW FOLLOWERS.

The New York Senator Has Made Bitter Enemies in the Senate.—The Discussion on the Tariff Nearing the End.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Senator Hill's fight against the income tax was a futile one, and he did not get even the support of all those he had counted upon.

These brutal foreigners are entire strangers to our institutions, utterly ignorant of our laws, and entirely without sympathy with our free government.

These brutal foreigners are entire strangers to our institutions, utterly ignorant of our laws, and entirely without sympathy with our free government.

Senator Brice, who is chairman of the Senate committee of Pacific Railroads, has a treat in store for the members of that committee, which will combine pleasure with the accumulation of useful knowledge of the property with which the committee has to deal.

The Hatch anti-option bill, which passed the House by a vote of 150 to 87, has been before Congress in one or another shape for the last five years.

By the way, speaking of Funston, of Kans., the House committee on Elections has decided that he is not entitled to the seat he now holds in the House, because Mr. Moore, his Democratic competitor was legally elected thereto.

Speaker Crisp, who was confined to his room nearly all of last week by a troublesome attack of indigestion, is again presiding over the House, which is once more pegging away at the regular appropriation bills and will probably continue at it until they are all disposed of, with the exception of the time that it may be necessary to give to reports from the Representatives of the House on the Tariff Conference committee.

they having stated that they had made no contributions to the National organizations. It was merely to gain a little partisan capital that the two Republican members of the committee joined Senator Allen in ordering that Havemeyer and Searle be certified to the District Attorney as recalcitrant witnesses.

The so-called industrial armies, three of which are now in the vicinity of Washington, are rapidly going to pieces, the men finding that the people of this country are not quite silly enough to work for money and then contribute it to keep several hundred men lying around in idleness.

Kick Out Alien Rioters.

There can be no peace in the industrial circles of Pennsylvania while the ignorant, brutal alien rioters are permitted to share the labor that should be given only to those who are Americans by birth and adoption.

These brutal foreigners are entire strangers to our institutions, utterly ignorant of our laws, and entirely without sympathy with our free government.

We are glad to notice that several of the large coal operators who are about resuming work in the mines under the protection of the military, have given notice that they will not re-employ any of these riotous aliens.

We notice that in a few instances the striking miners have notified the operators that they will not return to work unless all of the old employees are taken back.

230 Dead Babies.

Last week's hot weather got in its work in the cities, and deaths by sun stroke are reported. The Philadelphia Record gives an account of deaths in that city, and says: The hot weather of the past week has been reflected in the sudden increase of the death rate, which jumped from 422 in the week ended June 16 to 517 in the week ended Saturday.

It can't be denied that women are good for something. The troops are having more trouble with the wives of the miners about Walston, Adrian and the Punxsutawney district than with the miners themselves.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

The Evangelicals Hold Appropriate Services on Sunday.

Children's Day was never more beautifully and appropriately observed than on last Sunday, June 24, by the Evangelical Sunday school at this place and at Tusseyville.

The services at Centre Hall took place at 2.30 p. m., and at Tusseyville at 7.

Centre Hall—Singing, "Greeting Glee;" reading of Scripture; song, "Rejoice in the Lord;" prayer; "Children's Day Greeting;" song, "The Banner of the Cross;" "The Little Folks Meeting;" song, duet, "O, Morning Land;" "A Pyramid of Flowers;" song, "I am the Way;" Faith, Hope and Charity; collection; solo; Christian Graces; song, "Numberless are the Sands."

Tusseyville—Song, "Oh, how Excellent;" scripture reading; song, "Nearer Home;" prayer; song, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder;" address of welcome, F. P. Floray; song, "Peace be Still;" a temperance verse, Harry Meiss; "I Wonder if Ever;" Mertie Fleisher; essay, "Temper," Edwin Dutwiler; solo; Forming the Cross by sixteen scholars; "A Child's Plea for Orphans;" Cora Love; collection; song, "Send the Light;" "The Child's Wish;" Amanda Floray; "The Child's Complaint;" Maud Bare; "Rest," Walter Stiffer; "Our King," by the children; "Light for one step more," Maud Bollinger; "Jesus is Near," Belle Fleisher; "To-day," Maud Meiss; "My mother's Bible," Mary Neese; "Trust Wisdom," Clayton Dutwiler; Crown above the Cross, by sixteen scholars; song, "God be with you."

To Miss Sadie Scholl and Miss Annie Swartz, who presided respectively at the organ at Centre Hall and Tusseyville, especial credit is due for the success of the affair, for to their position is always attributable a great measure of responsibility.

Tarred the Attorney General.

A mob of deputies on Saturday night tarred the attorney general, Mr. Tarsny, of Colorado, having kidnapped him in his hotel at Colorado Springs, at eleven o'clock at night.

How to Destroy Flies.

For destroying flies the following is said to be excellent: Mix together equal parts of melted resin and castor oil, stirring for a minute or so, until it is thoroughly mixed.

News Items.

Negroes have been brought up from the south to work in the mines at Punxsutawney, taking the place of strikers.

Anarchists, a few days ago, had laid a plan to blow up the czar of Russia by exploding a mine under him. The plot was detected.

A small Kansas town Keightly, was wrecked by a tornado one day this week.

Italians are being roughly handled in Lyons on account of the assassination of President Carnot.

Children's Day.

Saturday the Patrons of Husbandry observed Children's Day in their park by holding a basket picnic.

A Thorn in his Leg Sixty Years.

A little more than sixty years ago, says the Tyrone Herald, Samuel J. Marks, one of Tyrone's oldest residents at present, was a lad of twelve years of age living in the vicinity of Valentines iron works near Bellefonte.

Cooked Cucumbers.

Cucumbers are seldom used except raw, and yet they are both delicious and digestible when cooked.

Huntingdon Primaries.

At the Huntingdon county Republican primaries last Saturday, Mr. Lovell carried the day for Judge. This makes the situation stand three against three. Huntingdon three for Lovell, and Centre three for Love. This looks like a deadlock, notwithstanding the "Love" running in it all. In case of a deadlock, the trouble might be settled by having some dark horse coming in Furst. There is no telling what is what in these days—some Love is going to be lost sure, an ell or less.

A TRIBUTE TO PREACHERS.

Free Trips to Egypt, the Holy Land and Europe for Five of Them.

The Pittsburg Times, which is always doing something out of the common, announces its intention of paying all the expenses of a trip to Egypt, the Holy Land and the capitals of Europe, to be taken by the five preachers who are voted most popular by its readers.

M. CARNOT ASSASSINATED.

The President of France Stabbed to Death by an Anarchist.

M. Carnot, President of the French Republic, was stabbed by an Italian while driving through the crowded streets of Lyons on Sunday evening, and died several hours after.

The President was visiting Lyons in connection with the International Exhibition. Upon his arrival there he was tendered a reception at the prefecture, after which he visited the exhibition. After spending some time at the exhibition he proceeded to the Palais de Commerce, where a banquet was given in his honor.

At 9.25 he started for the Grand theatre, where a gala performance was to be given because of his presence in the city.

Just at this moment M. Carnot was waving his right hand and saluting with his hat in his left hand. The people close to the carriage saw that the man standing on the step had a knife in his hand.
