

HAINES TOWNSHIP.

Interesting Notes of its Earlier Days and Settlement.

Haines township takes up an interesting part in the History of Centre County. We gather therefrom the following:

Among the early surveys was the John Chandler survey, Oct. 10, 1766, and sold to John Motz, April 20, 1785. Philip Musser bought the north half of 272 acres, of the Thomas Poe survey, Nov. 20, 1787; Jacob Musser owned the south half in 1800. Above surveys ran along Pine creek.

Tract of 376 acres purchased in western portion of Haines, by Henry Miller, June 4, 1780, of Reuben Haines. Winkelpleck, Kremer's est., J. Reed, etc., are on the run. Immediately n., and including the run James Work warrant, 310 acres, surveyed Oct. 10, 1774. Jacob Bower was owner in 1806, in recent years Michael and William Bower lived on it.

The Wm. Chestnut survey Oct. 10 1774, takes in the farms of Earhart, Jackson Stover and J. H. Musser.

John Keen got the McBeth survey in 1809, and Weaver, Werts, etc., owned it in later years.

Aaronsburg was laid out by Aaron Levy, Oct. 4, 1786.

The David Duncan survey, now in Penn tp., in 1774; later farms of J. P. Gephart and D. A. Musser were on it.

Adam Harper, the elder, Adam Stover and Jacob Stover settled in Haines tp. as early as 1775. The Harpers and Stovers now living in the valley are descendants of the aforesaid. Jacob Hubler was a settler at that time farther up the valley.

Barbara Stover, grandmother of the Miller family, carried a small apple tree as a switch when they came thro the Narrows which she planted; the tree was standing yet a few years ago. They fled in the early spring and overturned their sugar-kettles, leaving them in the woods. David Miller stated as tradition that the settlers had quite a contest with the Indians near the fort, on John Bowersox's place, and the graves of the killed were marked by quite a row of stones.

Jacob Hubler erected a grist and saw mill in 1786; in 1791 John Motz is assessed with two mills.

People went to Selingsgrove and over to Lewistown to mill. It is said that at one time, in the fall of the year, very nearly all of the male residents of the eastern part of the valley journeyed to Selingsgrove to have their winter's supply of flour ground. During their absence an immense fall of snow occurred, which virtually cut off all communication between them and their homes until the following spring. Their families are said to have lived in the mean time almost entirely upon potatoes.

Among early residents was David Weber, a Revolutionary soldier, who owned the land on which Jacob Stover, Philip Stover, and George Wolf reside. Andrew Harter, a cabinet maker of Reamstown, Lancaster co., settled on the Philip Wensch place. His children were John, Jacob, Andrew, George, William and Julia.

Peter Flory was a resident of Haines tp., born in 1755. He enlisted in the fall of 1777, and was in several battles. John Orndorf, of York county, settled where his son David afterwards lived. He came in 1790; his sons were John, Samuel, Benjamin and Jacob.

Jacob and Henry Voneida were early settlers. Matthias Hess emigrated from Germany and bought the farm afterwards owned by John C. Stover; his sons were George, Michael, John and Jacob.

Jacob Condo's father was killed in the Revolutionary war; Jacob's sons were John, Jacob, Samuel, Nicholas, Joseph and Daniel.

Jacob Bower came from York county in 1791. His children were Jacob, Michael, Adam, Henry, Elizabeth, Catherine and Valentine.

The oldest burial place in the township, is the one at the school house on the pike 2 miles east of Aaronsburg, on land donated by Jacob Stover; this school house (known as Wolf's) is the first one established in our county, the ground was donated by Jacob Stover, on 15 Dec. 1789. The earliest teachers were Samsell, Geistweite, Musser, and Rockhouse.

The first store-keeper, in the valley, was James Duncan at Aaronsburg, in 1795, and the first post office established there. Aaronsburg was the centre for all trade in Penns, Brush and Sugar valleys.

John Matthias Beuck was one of the prominent citizens of Aaronsburg; he was born in Hamburg, Germany, and came to Aaronsburg in 1799, and kept a hotel. His wife was Christina Musser, and he was one of the first justices of the peace in the county. His children were Matthias, Daniel, William, Samuel, Elizabeth Ettinger, and Mary Homan.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, and S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way

The first coat is the only coat, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wilting down if you get a collar marked this way

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations only.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 45 cts. each. Cuffs, 50 cts. pair. Give your size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

THE CELLULOID COMPANY, 427-29 Broadway, NEW YORK.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Elizabeth, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of the medicine she now weighs 136 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs."
