Special.

It is seldom that the trade that seeks Bellefonte markets has the advantage of such a mark down sale as Lyon & Co. are advertising in another column on this page. It will pay you to look it up.

PERSONAL.

—Wm. Coldren, of Milroy, was a welcome caller in our sanctum.

—Miss Jennie Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, was the guest of W. W. Boob's last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hess, of Linden Hall, spent Wednesday with friends in town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heckman of Lock Haven, arrived last Saturday on a visit to Mrs. Heckman's father, Mr. H. W. Kreamer.

—Mrs. W. W. Boob spent Sunday in Millheim. Her father, Mr. Uriah Reifsnnyder, of that town has been seriously ill for some time past.

—Our friend, J. C. Armbruster, of Linden Hall, called in and gave his label a shove; he reports considerable corn to husk yet up that way.

—Mr. C. F. Romick, our former townsman, but now farming near Lamar, just over the Centre county border, spent last Friday among his friends in Centre Hall.

Game Laws.

The open or legal time in Pennsylvania for killing different kinds of game is as follows:

Squirrels, September 1st to January 1st; rabbits, November 1st, to January 1st; deer, October 1st to December 15th; plover, July 15th to January 1st; Partridge, November 1st to December 15, woodcock, July 1st to January 1st; wild ducks, September 1st to May 16; wild turkeys, October 15th to January 1st; reed and mall birds from September 1st to December 1st.

Good Meeting.

The Democracy of the lower end had a grand rally, in the town hall at Millheim, on Thursday night. The crowd was so large as to pack the hall. Fred Kurtz was chosen chairman, and stirring addresses were delivered by Matt Savage, Robert Foster, Ira C. Mitchell and Hon. John Fow of Philadelphia.

Improvements.

Dr. Emerick is about to build a new front to his dwelling, which will add much to the appearance of his house. Colyer's grain house is now completed, and is conveniently arranged.

Dave Booser has put down an excellent new board walk in front of his house.

Coal Found.

Soft coal is claimed to have been found in West Buffalo township Union county, on John Hilderbrand's timberland. It is said to have been tried and found to burn. Hope it's true. But we guess soft coal this side of Snow Shoe is "a delusion and a snare."

Will Move to Sandy Ridge.

Mr. Curtin Moyer and family, lately of Altoona, are preparing to move to Sandy Ridge. Mr. Moyer expects to take charge of brick works at that place.

—Lewins, Bellefonte, has the most experienced cutter in these parts and at his establishment you can be suited in a manner befitting a prince, and at a reasonable price.

REMARKABLE CIRCUMSTANCE.

A Ballet Drops From a Wounded Soldier's Mouth.

During the war, Jacob Dunkle, a soldier from Aaronsburg, during one of the battles, lost an eye. The surgeons at the time merely washed his eye, saying the eye had been burst by a ball passing close to it, without striking him, and no effort was made to probe for a bullet.

Mr. Dunkle has felt a pain down the left side of his face ever since, and his eye always ran with water and matter. There was no supposition that a spent ball had entered his eye and lodged back of it, for that was the opinion of the army surgeons.

Remarkable to tell, last week one day, while Mr. Dunkle was at Millheim he took a coughing spell, which was a common thing with him, but upon this occasion it was more violent than usual and during the spasm a few friends stood near him, and observed something drop from his mouth on the pavement. It was picked up and found to be a minnie ball which had been imbedded in the back part of the mouth, having found its way down from the eye, which it had entered in the battle thirty-two years before. The bullet is now in the possession of Dr. Frank, of Millheim.

This is a remarkable circumstance, and it is to be hoped the soldier will now find relief. It is a rare relic, and the case deserves a place in medical periodicals.

Whether the army surgeons did their duty at the time Mr. Dunkle was shot in the eye in passing his injuries over without investigation, is not for us to say.

A Wanderer Returned.

The Magnet says: Mrs. William Bell, of East Howard street, has just experienced a most delightful surprise in the return of her brother, Joseph C. Sankey, whom she had not seen for twenty-four years and whom she had long ago given up for dead. Mr. Sankey, when young, was of a roving disposition. He entered the army of the rebellion when of very tender years and there he served three years. Then he joined the regular army, and was with it three years. About the year 1870 he went to the west, and for some unaccountable reason did not write home and was completely lost sight of by his friends in the east. However, he prospered and is now one of the substantial citizens of Vancouver, Clark Co., Washington. He is engaged in the fruit business. Recently, he conceived a very strong desire to again visit the east and arrived here last Saturday. Imagine the joy of Mrs. Bell in having her only brother restored to her. They are the children of Thomas Sankey, deceased, a former commissioner of Centre county, and Joseph's home, when a boy, was in Gregg township. He is 49 years of age and has a wife and three children.

Died in Colorado.

John H. Frain, son of Mr. Isaac Frain, of Abdera, this county, died in Pueblo, Colorado, on last Thursday, November 1st, at the age of 32 years, 7 months and 12 days, of mountain fever. He was buried at Salina, Kansas. Memorial services were held in the Evangelical church at Jackson-ville, this county, last Sunday morning by Rev. W. N. Wallis. He left his home in March 1885, and located in the west, and returned in October, 1888, for a visit to his father, returning to the west again in the fall of 1888 and located in Kansas, and in 1890 left Kansas and removed to Pueblo, where he remained until his death. He leaves a wife and two children.

Singular Accident.

Frank Kaup, of Boalsburg, met with a singular accident a few days ago. While driving with a horse and buggy the animal made an attempt to run off; he managed to control the horse and leaping from the buggy he took hold of the horse by the bridle to quiet him, when a lot of hogs suddenly sprang from a fence corner with a grunt, causing the horse to rear, and in descending a protruding nail in one of the front feet caught a finger of Kaup's right hand and laid it open, and cut some ugly gashes immediately back of his thumb, and now Frank goes about with a bandaged hand.

Rabbit Season Open.

Thursday last, November 1, the season opened for legally hunting rabbits. Some of them are scarce, while others are of the opinion that they are more plentiful than last season. Several have been killed by our sportsmen, but the market is not overstocked with the harvest.

News from the Gas Well.

The drill is now down about 600 feet in the gas well at Salt Lick and another pocket of gas has been struck. The drillers keep the drill in operation day and night and if no salt is struck the gas will be utilized as fuel for the engine.

—Lewins, Bellefonte, has received one of the largest stocks of clothing ever received in this part of the state. When you buy from him you get the latest and best to be had for the money. Go and see his stock.

—A complete line of horse blankets from 75 cents up at Booser Bros.

SAMUEL ISHLER.

Died on Sunday Evening at His Home near Boalsburg.

It pains us to chronicle the death of Samuel Ishler, one of the most respected and intelligent farmers of Harris township, residing a short distance west of Boalsburg. Mr. Ishler was taken violently ill on last Friday evening, from a trouble of the bladder, which set in suddenly, and caused great suffering. Physicians were called, but it seems no relief could be afforded and he died, after intense suffering on Sunday evening last.

Mr. Ishler was a brother of ex-sheriff Ishler, and long a resident of Harris township. He was a gentleman of upright character and a man in all his ways, and esteemed for his good qualities. In politics he was an ardent Democrat.

His age was fifty-two years and he leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss.

We learn that Mr. Ishler in attempting to lift a barrel partly filled, from a wagon, by too severe a strain, caused a rupture internally, which proved fatal.

A STORY OF CURTIN.

The Dead War Governor had a Close Call from Capture.

Mr. Curtin was too useful a man to the Union cause to be passed over lightly by the rebel conspirators in the north, and a plan was laid to have a confederate troop of raiders abduct him while he was visiting Bedford Springs in August, 1864. A man named Washburn came to him in secret and warned him of the plot, but the governor laughed it off. It so happened that Colonel Thomas A. Scott, the railway magnet, was at Hollidaysburg, and had occasion to communicate with the governor by telegraph, but the operator informed him that the wires between Hollidaysburg and Bedford Springs had evidently been cut. This alarmed Scott, who at once ordered up a special train and hastened to Bedford Springs, where he took Governor Curtin and his family aboard and carried them to Harrisburg. The journey was made by night and in the midst of it the headlight on the locomotive was extinguished. Col. Scott seized on the nearest conductor's lantern and himself mounted guard on the cowcatcher so as to make sure that there were no obstructions on the track. Colonel Imboden, of the Confederate army, afterward told Mr. Curtin that if he had stayed in Altoona two hours longer he would have been captured and carried off.—From Kate Field's Washington.

Game Not Plenty.

The hunting season is now open and we have not learned of game being plenty, either large or small. Few deer have been killed so far, and not many bears; of smaller game squirrels and pheasants there has not been anything to brag of either. Game seems to be getting less with each year. Cutting down our mountain forests, along with too great a warfare upon deer and bear, accounts for the scarcity of that kind of game, and Gutzels, Horners, Boalsburg Modes, and other hunting clubs, count it fortunate to kill two or three deer where seven to ten used to reward a week's hunt a few years ago. If the hunting season were kept as now, but limited to the same months once in every two years, game would become plentiful again.

Don't Believe in 'Em.

Howard Durst, of near this place, is the only farmer known who does not keep chickens or turkeys about his farm, he don't believe in 'em. He thinks the scratching and other depredations of the feathered tribe are more annoying and harmful than profitable, and Howard should know, for he is a close observer in farming, and quite utilitarian in his ideas. If at any time the egg market is overstocked, don't blame Howard for it.

A Seat Paper.

The initial number of Western Kansas Voice, at Larned, Kansas, is on our table. It is published by Will Hoffer, a former Centre Hall boy, son of George Hoffer. The Voice is quite neatly gotten up and we wish it success.

Died at Howard.

William Tate died at his home in Howard last week at the age of 74 years. He was buried in St. Paul's cemetery, Nittany Valley, on Saturday.

STORE ROBBED.

Long's Store at Potters Mills Burglarized on Monday Night.

The store of Mr. Long, at Potters Mills, in which the postoffice is also kept, was entered by burglars on last Monday night and about fifty dollars worth of stamps, forty dollars in silver, jewelry, shoes, all the underwear, and other articles, were stolen. The safe was not locked and its contents were an easy prey. The amount stolen may be $200 to $300. The thieves in some way forced an entrance to the store and made their escape after looting it. Parties were on the hunt of them Tuesday.

The thieves were tracked to Milroy and located; a search warrant will be issued to discover the goods.

FIRE AT MILL HALL.

The Boiler Room of the Brick Works Gutted.

Shortly after five o'clock Monday morning a fire broke out in the boiler room of the Mill Hall brick works, at that place. The engine house and wooden buildings surrounding were destroyed, together with the greater part of their machinery. The night watchman left the building about fifteen minutes before the flames were discovered. At that time he found everything all right. From this fact it is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss is estimated at $12,000 to $14,000, on which there is an insurance of $7,000. Thirty-five men are thrown out of employment.

The People's Verdict.

SERIOUSLY HURT.

A Bicyclist Collides with a Toll Gate Pole Near Spring Mills.

While Mr. H. G. Krape, of Rebersburg, was returning on his bicycle on Monday night from a business trip up the valley, he met with an accident that might have resulted in his death. When he came to the toll-gate east of Spring Mills, the pole was down, and, being nearsighted, and the night being dark, he failed to see the obstruction in time and collided with it. He received painful injuries about the face and head and fell from his wheel unconscious. Being unable to call for help he lay in that condition on the road all night. On the following morning some early travelers found him and rendered all possible assistance. Restoratives were applied and medical aid summoned. Although weak and generally broken up from his injuries and all night exposure he managed to work his way home on his wheel, passing through here in the forenoon. His face presented a pitiful sight. The one eye was closed entirely and the skin in several places was badly cut and bruised.

Tollgate keepers are required to display signal lights at night so as to enable travelers to see the pole before they reach the gate. A failure to do so will get the company into trouble. We understand that Mr. Krape intends to sue for damages.—Millheim Journal.

Attend the Entertainment.

Tomorrow, Friday evening, is the date for the Elocutionary entertainment to be given by Miss Swartz, in the Presbyterian church. The doors will be open at 7.30 o'clock. A full house is expected as the entertainment promises to be of the highest order, and will be highly appreciated by all who attend. The hour is 7.30 and the admission 10 and 15 cents. Don't miss it, it may be the only opportunity of the kind this season.

The Weather.

Friday last had a sharp frost but it was fine overhead until Sunday evening when rain set in during the night and continued wet on Monday.

All necessary farm and outdoor work is about done, and all hands are in shape for setting in of winter except those who never are ready, rain or shine.
