Secretary Carlisle has not been at his office for several days, preferring to work upon his report at his home where he is free from inturruption. It is said that the system proposed will supply the elasticity so badly needed in our present financial system. Although Secretary Carlisle has always been known as a friend to silver no one, who will tell, has found out what part silver is to play in the proposed new system.

A laborious attempt is being made by certain parties to have it appear that President Cleveland has exceeded his constitutional authority in dealing with the proposed mediation of the trouble between Japan and China. Their whole story is built upon a false foundation. They say that President Cleveland has offered to act as mediator. He has done nothing of the kind. At the request of the Chinese government he directed Secretary Gresham to ask the Japanese Government if it would favorably consider a proposition to have the United States act as mediator in order to put an end to the war. It will be difficult to make sensible people, who are upon principle opposed to war, believe that the President exceeded his authority in thus trying to end a war between two nations with which we are on friendly terms. How friendly we are with Japan may be judged from the fact that a new treaty has just been concluded with that country.

There is little danger that the Rebers of their Congressional campaign Virginia delegation, which is solidly Democratic. The Democrats would not ask anything better than such action by the Republican House. It would not only keep Virginia solidly ia districts may beg.
