CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. NOV. 22

WANTED: Leaders for 1896.

REED is certain to be speaker of the next House, unless there is a scheme to trip him up.

JAPAN has not yet accepted the offer of our government to act as peace-maker between it and China. Japan wants China to beg for peace first.

THERE are now three Republicans in the race for president, namely, Tom Reed, Ben Harrison and Bill McKinley. It is rumored that Harrison and McKinley are in cahoot to shelve Reed.

COL. Ingersoll has made Tom Reed his god for president in 1896. Ingersoll does not yet know the true God who is able to knock out the Reeds, McKinleys, and the other false gods.

For the past half century the opposition have been declaring the death of the Democracy, and yet they never got a chance to attend its funeral, although the Democracy have buried a half dozen opposition parties in that time.

WHEN the legislature meets there should be an effort made to pass a law forbidding the killing of deer during the next three years, and thereafter only in each alternate, or even numbered year, from November 1 to December 20.

How silly for the opposition organs to be asserting the Democracy are acting against their own country and under British gold. The Democrats had control of the government ninety years to thirty under other parties, and in the ninety years the Democrats made the country great in domain and licked the British several times. Tell us, pray, what did the opposition do?

SOME of the opposition flatter themselves they have wiped out the Democracy. Not a bit. When know-nothingism was upon the country it left the Democrats without a state, until Henry A. Wise ran for governor in Virginia and took the k. n. bull by the horns and rolled back the tide, and state after state began going Democratic again. The setting in of good Democratic times is bound to start in a Democratic tide again.

THE revival of business and better times is growing with each week under the workings of the new tariff, although in force only two months. With the close of Cleveland's administration, in two years, the new tariff will show up so satisfactorily to the general good that there will not be an inch of bottom for a croaker to stand on. It has been in force only a few weeks and instead of calamity and ruin actual good has followed. Now give it a chance for two years.

SPEAKING of the election of Arnold over Williams, the Williamsport Sun says: In the twenty-eighth congressional district the Republicans are not enjoying the result of the recent election with the same hilarity as that manifested by the Republicans in other parts of the state. Before the election nobody wanted the nomination for congress and it was given to W. C. Arnold, of Clearfield county.

Gov. HASTINGS can now go to his Bellefonte home again, having fixed his cabinet. He will now have a short rest, and can leave his hiding place, without danger of being further annoyed by office-seekers. Those who are the lucky ones, will let him alone, and that far larger crowd who are left out in the cold, will give the governor-elect a wide berth, and make up their minds they would have fared just as well if Singlerly had been elected, and will not be hard to convince that Gov. Hastings is not the man they took him to be. Gov. Hastings' cabinet appointments will be found in another column.

FIXING HASTINGS' CABINET.

The Bosses Try to Arrange a Slate Satisfactory to Them.

It appears that Governor-elect Hastings' cabinet is not finally fixed for him. Senator Quay and the Philadelphia "combine" are at the job in the absence of General Hastings. Senator Quay, Richard R. Quay, David Martin, State Chairman Gilkeson and others had long conferences at Martin's home, near Holmesburg, a Philadelphia suburb.

The Philadelphia "combine" is pressing the claims of City Solicitor Warwick, of Philadelphia, for the attorney generalship. Senator Quay and others favor Lyman D. Gilbert, of Harrisburg, for the place. Frank Reeder, of Easton, wants to be secretary of state and some of the bosses want him. But it is said General Hastings wants his close personal friend, Col. James H. Lambert for the place. Should Warwick be made attorney general this would set Lambert aside, as these two prominent appointments could not go to the same city.

The leaders expect to agree to a slate in a few days, and when made up it will be presented to the governor-elect for his approval.

Then, again, it comes pretty straight that Hastings declares he is going to appoint his cabinet to suit himself. That's right, Governor, stick to that.

Some Important Facts. The evenings are long enough now for every person to devote some time to reading. The best literature is the daily newspaper, and the best daily newspaper is the Pittsburgh Times. It is complete in every department, gathering promptly the news from all parts of the world and presenting all sides of every public question fairly and intelligently. Its market reports are models of accuracy; its departments for women readers and for the farmer are useful and entertaining, and its serial stories are by the most noted writers. The aim of its publishers is to make the Times a paper for the home above everything else, and they have succeeded admirably.

The Times is delivered by agents for one cent a day, or will be sent by mail for thirty cents for one month; fifty cents for two months; seventy-five cents for three months; $1.50 for six months or $3.00 for one year. If there is no agent for the Times in your locality write for sample copies, which are sent free, and terms to agents.

Accidentally Shot Himself. William H. Dawson, a merchant of Smith's Ferry, accidentally shot himself a few days ago. His store had been robbed twice recently. One night last week he arranged a gun in his store with wire attachments fastened to the windows, so that the gun would explode if the windows were disturbed. The next morning when Dawson opened his store he forgot his deadly trap, and attempted to raise one of the windows. The contents of the gun entered his stomach. He died while being taken to a hospital.—Phillipsburg Ledger.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the child ren's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. Peaser, Spring Mills, and S. M. Swartz, Tinsleyville.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever. Typhoid fever is raging in Glen Campbell, this county, and twenty-five cases are reported, with new ones coming in each day. On account of the ravages of the disease it is almost impossible to secure nurses to attend to the sick. The board of health has been notified and will take action at once.

Senator George Ross Dead. State Senator George Ross died at his home at Doylestown Monday morning of consumption.

Mr. Ross' term would have expired with the present legislature. He was not a candidate for re-election and Henry G. Moyer, Republican, was elected on November 6, from that district over J. Mills Jamison, Democrat.

Lewins, Bellefonte, has received one of the largest stocks of clothing ever received in this part of the state. When you buy from him you get the latest and best to be had for the money. Go and see his stock.
