On Tuesday a deer, evidently driven from the mountains by dogs was playfully browsing in fields near Fiedler, coming near the farm house of Mr. Bradford; from there it started across the valley towards Brush mountain, soon the whole neighborhood was aroused and gave chase, at least a dozen shots having been fired at it; at last John Guisevite near Wolf's Chapel, fired at it and laid it low; it weighed one hundred and twelve pounds. Suicide at Northumberland.

Tomer Phillips, resident of Northumberland, while under the influence of strong drink, Wednesday afternoon, concluded to leave this wicked world by the laudanum route. He had procured two different bottles of two ounces each at different drug stores, and then announced his determination to go out of this world. He went to the Palmer House and called for a drink of beer and emptied the contents of one bottle into it. He quickly swallowed the dose but was relieved of the other bottle by parties who heard of his act. He then went in pursuit of his rescuers with a club to lay them out, but they were not to be found. He died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clara Vandyke, at one o'clock that afternoon.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welston, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, and S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of the limbs. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'zombi' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit. When I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvellous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 157. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O.
