PILFERING of banks by cashiers is still going on and almost every week brings one or two cases of banks being looted by its own men. Last week we had the case of Hunton who got away with $40,000 of the depositors' money. This week opened with the case of J. F. Abbott, cashier of the Dover National Bank, who stole $80,000.

For the protection of depositors, all bank officials and employees should be required to give ample security for the funds they may handle that depositors and innocent stock holders do not become sufferers through the speculations of bank officials. The law should forbid any one connected with a bank to engage in stock gambling.

THE scare gotten up by the Philadelphia "Press", that Pattison was not eligible to the majority of Philadelphia, because of his four years' residence at Harrisburg, turns out to be a hoax. He was away temporarily, in the public service, and does not forfeit his claim as citizen of Philadelphia. Philadelphia needs Pattison, it wants Pattison, it intends to elect Pattison, and Pattison is going to serve. Philadelphia is corrupt to the bottom in its city government, and a cleaning-out is demanded.

IN Delaware the Repubs are in a hopeless deadlock over the election of a U. S. senator. Their victory only brought them misery.

A New Cornplanter.
