

WOODWARD.

Haines Township Solid Against a County Poor House.

Engle & Brumgard have their stock of logs at their mill; about 8000 in all. Harter & Co. have about finished hauling props to Ingleby and will now deliver lumber to the box factory at Millmont.

Robert Lynch, who left for Hanging Rock, West Virginia, some time ago is doing well.

The turnpike company had a lot of men shoveling out the snow drifts from the pike this week; the drifts are from ten to fifteen feet deep in places.

Mr. Robert Miller, of Millheim, will take possession of J. C. F. Motz's grist mill on Apr. 1.

Mrs. R. M. Wolfe who was confined to her bed with pneumonia is again convalescent.

H. O. Wirth and his best girl were to Union county last week on a visit to friends and relatives.

The roads have been so blocked with snow that traveling has been stopped for several days.

The Dubbs faction will commence work on their new church building as soon as the weather will permit.

The people in this section have filled their ice houses with ice from eight to twenty inches in thickness.

The thermometer registered from 40 above to 24 degrees below zero during the last six weeks.

A small child of Adam Winters, of Fiedler, died on Thursday and was buried at St. Paul church on Sunday.

Luther Guistwite, of Wolfe's Chapel, expects to convert his farm into a stock and dairy farm this summer.

Adam Korman will add a twenty by twenty-six addition to his house along Pine creek this summer.

Haines township is solid against a county poor house; they don't want to pay the Bellefonte ring a big salary for no work; our poor directors have money in the treasury and propose to keep it there.

Vote against the poor house.

Two new school houses in Haines township this summer; one at Woodward, to be a graded school, and one along Pine creek near Adam Weaver's farm.

Ask Thomas Miller about the Boston band.

A young barber from Millheim takes great interest in Harter's lumber camp west of Woodward at present.

C. W. Hosterman expects to go to Texas in the near future.

The Woodward String band is again in full operation.

Men's overcoats and clothing at cost.—C. P. Long, Spring Mills.
