AN ALPENA MIRACLE.

MRS, JAS, M. TODD, OF LONG RAPIDS, DISCARDS HER CRUTCHES.

In an Interview with a Reporter She Reviews Her Experience and Tells the Real Cause of the Miracle.

(From the Argus, Alpena, Mich.) We have long known Mrs. Jas. M. Todd, of Long Rapids, Alpena Co., Mich. She has been a sad cripple. Many of her friends know the story of her recovery; for the benefit of those who do not we publish it to-day.

Eight years ago she was taken with neryous prostration, and in a few months with muscular and inflammatory rheumatism. It affected her heart, then her head. Her feet came so swollen she could wear nothing on them; her hands were drawn all out of shape. Her eyes were swollen shut more than half the time, her knee joints terribly swollen and for eighteen months she had to be held up to be dressed. One limb became entirely helpless, and the skin was so dry and cracked that it would bleed. During these eight years she had been treated by a score of physicians, and has also spent much time at Ann Arbor under best medical advice. All said her trouble was brought on by hard work and that medicine would not cure, and that rest was the only thing which would ease her. After going to live with her daughter she became entirely helpless and could not even raise her arms to cover herself at night. The interesting part of the story fol-

"Now, if I can say anything to induce those who have suffered as I have, to try Pink Pills, I shall gladly do so. If other like sufferers will try Pink Pills according to directions, they will have reason to thank God for creating men who are able to conquer that terrible disease, rheumatism. I have in my own neighborhood recommended Pink Pills for the after effects of la grippe, and weak women with impure blood, and with good results."

A Lord's Wine Bill.

Lord Clancarty, the husband of Belle Bilton of Drury Lane celebrity, is once more before the public, this time as the defendant in a suit brought by a wine merchant against the peer for an unpaid wine bill. The case was decided against the earl, and he has been condemned to pay the full amount, together with heavy costs, running, together with the judgment, to some $4,000. Lord Clancarty endeavored by every means in his power to avoid paying this debt, and even went to the length of trying to saddle the responsibility of the account upon his former friend, Brown Cave, who was his partner in the illfated Junior Travelers' Club, which they founded. There is no earthly reason why Lord Clancarty should not now pay this judgment and all his other debts, since he at present is in affluent circumstances, owing to his mother having compromised the lawsuits which he brought against her by surrendering to him the larger portion of the estates and money which had been left to her, and not to him, at the death of the late

A Survivor of the Grand Armee. It is seriously stated in the Russian papers that a survivor of Napoleon's grand army which went to Russia on the disastrous campaign of 1812 has died at Saratoff, on the Volga, at the age of 126 years. The man's name was Nicholas Savin. He was captured by Cossacks during the retreat across the Beresina. It is said that he was born in Paris on the 17th of April, 1768, that his father was in the regiment called the Gardes Francaises in the reign of Louis XV., and that he was educated at the Jesuit college at Tours. He used to speak of the reign of terror and the execution of Louis XVI., which he well remembered. After his release from captivity Savin settled down in Saratoff, where he is said to have been greatly respected. In 1887 the late czar presented him with 1,000 rubles on his birthday.-London Daily News.

So Christ says to us. Here is a knot of Christians, and there is a knot of Christians, but they make up a small part of the flock. Here is the Episcopal fold, the Methodist fold, the Lutheran fold, the Congregational fold, the Presbyterian fold, the Baptist and the Pedo-Baptist fold, the only difference between these last two being the mode of sheep washing, and so they are scattered all over,

My brother, is it not strange that you should be the first man I should talk to to-day? I know all your case. I know it very well. You have not been accustomed to come into religious assemblage, but I have a surprising anouncement to make the way. nouncement to make to you—you are going to become one of the Lord's sheep. "Ah," you say, "it is impossible. You don't know how far I am from anything of that kind." I knowall about it. I have wandered up and down the world, and I understand your case. down the world, and I understand your case. I have a still more startling announcement to make in regard to you—you are not only going to become one of the Lord's sheep, but you will become one to-day. You will stay after this service to be talked with about your Shains, in this service to be talked with about your Christians, in this sermon, for I am going to give it all to the outsiders. "Other sheep I have who have been flung of evil habits. It makes me sad to see Christian people give up a prodigal as lost. There are which are not of this fold."

When the Atlantic want to visces on Marri.

When the Atlantic went to pieces on Mars' rock, and the people clambered upon the beach, why did not that heroic minister of obsan, why did not that heroic minister of the gospel of whom we have all read sit down and take care of those men on the beach, wrapping them in flannels, kindling fire for them, seeing that they got pienty of food? Ah, he knew that there were others who would do that. He says: "Yonder are men and women freezing in the rigging of that week. Boys, launch the boat." And now you have a subject that it is a second the reads of the strong pull, but before according to the strong pull, but before and under the strong pull, but before and the rigging a woman was frozen cheek the rigging a washed off, poor thing. Steady, now, on the slippery places. Steady, There-saved, saved! Just as I thought. There is no monopoly in religion. The grace of God is not a little property that we is not a first of the state of him? Will you not, as a pure matter of experiment, try Him and state your case before Him this hour? Hold nothing back from Him. If you cannot pray, if you do not know how to pray any other way, say: "O Lord Jesus Chist, this is a strange thing for me to do. I know nothing about the formulas of religion. These Christian people have been talking so long about what Thou caust do for me I am ready to do whatever Thou commandest me to do. I am ready to take whatever Thou commandest me to take. If there be any power in religion, as greenness and verdure taken off them and are left cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over finem. The minister of Christ has nothing to do with such Christians but to some once a week and with ostrich leather dust off the accumulation of the left six days, leaving them bright and strystalline as before. But the other kind of a church is an armory, with perpetual sound of drum and fife, gathering recruits for the Lord of Hosts. We say to every applicant: "Do you want to be on God's side—the safe side and the happy side? If so, come in the armory and get equipped. Here is a bath in which to be cleansed. Here are sandals to put upon your feet. Here is a helmet for your brow. Here is a breastplate for your neart. Here is a sword for your right arm, and yonder is the battlefield. Quit your-selves like men."

There are some here who say, "I stopped going to church, is it not strange that you should whether, is it not strange that you should we have some of the gospel, then take the recommendation of ministers of the gospel, then take the recommendation of ministers of the gospel, then take the recommendation of highly respectable laymen.

O men, skeptical and struck through with unrest, would you not like to have some of the peace which broods over our souls to-day?

I know all about your doubts. I have been through all the curriculum. I have doubted whether the Bible was true, I have doubted w that rocking and tumultuous sea. If you go home to-day adhering to your infidelities, you will not sleep one wink. You do not want your children to come up with your skepticism. You cannot afford to die in that midnight darkness, can you? If you do not believe in anything else, you believe in love—a father's love, a mother's love, a wife's love, a child's love. Then let me tell you that God loves you more than them all. Oh, you must come in. You will come in! The great heart of Christ aches to have you come great heart of Christ aches to have you come in, and Jesus this very moment—whether you sit or stand—looks into your eyes and says, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fald."

dead. No hope!

But I turn to outsiders with a hope that thrills through my body and soul, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold." You are not gospel hardened. You have not heard or read many sermons during the last few years. As you came in to-day everything was novel, and all the services are suggestive washing, and so they are scattered all over, and we come with our statistics and say there are so many thousands of the Lord's sheep. but C-prist responds: "No. no. You have not seen more than one out of 1000 of My flock. They are scattered all over the earth. "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold."

Christ in my text was prophesying the conversion of the gentiles with as much confidence as though they were already converted, and He is now, in the words of my text, prophesying the complexity from the coming of a great multitude of outsiders that you never supposed would come in, saying to you and saying to me, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold."

In the first place, I remark that the Heavenly Shepherd will find many of His sheep among the nonchurchgoers. There are congregations where they are all Christians, and they seem to be completely finished, and they seem to be completely finished, and are left cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over the come and releft cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over the come and releft cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over the come and releft cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over the come and they remained the remained the remained to the skeleton leaves which by chemical preparation have had all the greenness and verdure taken off them and are left cold and white and delicate, nothing wanting but a glass case to put over the mental the remained to the skeleton leaves which we have the adaptedness of Christ's relation to their the read the recommendation of highly respectable laymen.

any other commonwealth of the Union, and it will ever stand as a credit to the new north State that its Legislature is the first to meet in joint memorial session to pay tribute to the memory of a woman. The proceedings of this remarkable assemblage were of a most interesting nature, the speeches by prominent Senators and members of the Legislature being unusually eloquent and touching. Upon the announcement of the death of Mrs. Hansbrough both houses of the Legislature, then in session at Bismarck, immediately adjourned, committees of the two branches were appointed to draft resolutions, and a week later the two houses met in joint session.

Lieutenant-Governor Worst presided, and made a feeling address, speaking of the suf-fering uncomplainingly endured by Mrs. Hansbrough for over four years. The joint committee on resolutions presented its re-port, extending the sympathy of the Legisla-ture of the State to the Senator in the time of adopted by a rising vote, and this remarkable legislative session adjourned.

A Matter of Taste.

Two little oranges in Chicago, the other day, brought twelve physicians and several fruit dealers into consultation. After an hour of serious conversation on the scientific points involved it was found necessary to perform an operation. This consisted in dissecting the two oranges. The recent freezing of one-half of the Plorida orange crop, meaning a loss to gro was of over $2,500,000, was what brought abo... the consultation. No one of the welve physicians could tell the chilled orange from the good one. There apparently was no difference, and the dealers were consequently happy. This did not end their troubles, however, as the consumers declined to be convinced, and, to emphasize A Matter of Taste. declined to be convinced, and, to emphasize the fact, continued to a man to buy California oranges. Chicago people do not appreciate the favor of having their fruit iced, no matter how nice it tastes.

Death of the Original Train Robber.

John Reno is dead at Columbus, Ind. He was a member of the first train robbing gang in the United States. He planned the idea for several years and made a success of it in the end, but his brothers were hanged in 1869. In 1866 an express train, then known as "the south-bound J. M. and I" fast train, was stopped at Rockfort station. The robbers entered at a side door and soon overpowered the expressman, securing packages of money amounting to $90,000. Fully this amount was dropped from the car window and left lying on the track, the thieves being unable to carry away the spoils. Death of the Original Train Robber. to carry away the spoils.
