A Stormy March.....

Weather usually unpleasant, roads bad, people sooner stay at home; but there is one thing that generally brings them out, viz:

BIG BARGAINS : : : : : at some POPULAR STORE.

The past month has been a hustler for us. A lady just remarked, "She heard we had such nice goods and so very cheap." Thanks. She is only one of the many; hear it every day. The next 10 days we will clear out a lot of

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR AT GIVE AWAY PRICES.

A few are soiled, but all perfect goods. Don't miss them. While here see our new Percals, Madras Cloth, for summer waists.

New Dress Stuffs Coming in Almost Daily.

W. T. MEYER, Bellefonte.

Bush Arcade. Two doors from postoffice.

Special.

It is seldom that the trade that seeks Bellefonte markets has the advantage of such a mark down sale as Lyon & Co. are advertising in another column on this page. It will pay you to look it up.

PERSONAL.

—David Foreman spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

—Mr. John R. Lee, of Tusseyville, was in town on business Monday.

—Mr. J. W. Lee, of Farmers Mills, gave the REPORTER a call on Tuesday.

—James and Wm. Beck from up the valley, gave our sanctum a business call.

—Miss Katie Kerr, of Centre Hill, spent Sunday at the home of W. Frank Bradford.

—Mrs. Jennie Boal Lingle spent a week at the home of her husband, in Milesburg.

—D. Wagner Geiss, who is teaching school in College township, was home over Sunday.

—Miss Lillie Fisher, of Boalsburg, was a guest at the home of Dr. Jacobs several days last week.

—Mr. John S. Auman, of Linden Hall, called at the REPORTER office while in town on Monday.

—A. C. Mingle and family, of Bellefonte, attended the funeral of Mrs. Peter Hoffer last Friday.

—Mrs. J. D. Murray left Wednesday morning for a visit of several days among friends in Bellefonte.

—Miss Anna Goodhart, of Centre Hill, and Miss Jessie Durst, of Potters Mills, are visiting among friends in Tyrone.

—Simon P. Dinges came up from Williamsport Saturday and spent several days with his mother here, returning on Wednesday.

—Mr. M. N. Miller, of near Potters Mills, was a caller at this office Wednesday. Mr. Miller expects to quit farming in the spring and advertise sale of farm stock and implements.

Sale Postponed.

Mr. J. C. Vonada, one-half mile east of Centre Hall, has indefinitely postponed the public sale of his farm stock and implements, announced for Saturday, March 23rd. He will still continue farming and will not dispose of his stock and implements.

DIED OF CONSUMPTION.

Miss Lydia Smith a Victim of the Lingering Disease.

Miss Lydia Smith, daughter of Emanuel Smith, dec'd, formerly of this place, died at the home of her brother, Isaac Smith, at Union church, on Thursday afternoon, 28 ult.

The deceased had been ill for more than a year, consumption having been her chief complaint. At periods she suffered greatly but bore it all with true Christian fortitude. She was a devoted and consistent member of the Lutheran church, and active as a member of the W. H. & F. M. society and in other church work, both at Centre Hall and at the Union. She was a sister of Mrs. Howard Homan, of this place. She leaves an aged mother, now in her 79 year, and six brothers, to mourn her departure.

The funeral at the Union church, on last Sabbath forenoon, was largely attended, Rev. Rearick officiating. Her age was 39 years, 10 months, and 2 days.

Death Near Clintondale.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dornblazer, wife of Peter Dornblazer, died Tuesday at the home in Porter township, of pneumonia. The deceased was seventy-eight years old. Besides her aged husband she is survived by the following named children: Rev. Thomas F., of Bucyrus, Ohio; Mrs. Amanda Townsend, of Valley Falls, Kansas, and Pearce M., and Puella E. who reside at home. Sixteen grand-children also survive her. The funeral took place Friday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Spangler, assisted by Rev. Diehl, conducted the services. Interment was made in the family burying ground at Snyderstown.

The deceased was born near Madisonburg, Centre county. She was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, a faithful wife, and a devoted mother.

Finished Deer.

The deep snow and intense cold had since the holidays set hard upon all wild animals and many, no doubt, perished from starvation. E. M. Huyett, of this place, informs us that one day last week he met two teams on the pike thro the 7 Mountains on the way to Milroy, and each one had a live deer on board. The animals were almost helpless from starvation and easily captured, and perhaps would have died. They will doubtless be cared for by the parties who took them and be set at liberty again after gaining strength sufficient to take care of themselves in the mountains. To refuse to release them would be contrary to law.

There are many instances of wild turkeys and pheasants having been driven by hunger to visit barnyards in quest of food, during the late deep snow.

Wife Defeats the Husband.

There was a novel contest in Cummings township, Lycoming county, at the recent election. A husband and wife were candidates for school director, and the latter came off victorious. John Carson, a prosperous Pine Creek farmer, was nominated by the Democrats. The prohibitionists took Mrs. Carson for their candidate, and she had a handsome majority. She is the first woman in Lycoming county to hold an elective office. Mrs. Carson is a graduate of the Wellboro High School, was a school teacher for a dozen years and is eminently fitted for the office.

Wedded Last Thursday.

At noon last Thursday the marriage of Miss F. E. Deininger, youngest daughter of the late B. O. Deininger, and Mr. Calvin Weidensaul, of Laurelton, Pa., took place at the bride's home on East Main street. It was a quiet wedding, only a few of the nearest friends having been invited. Rev. A. G. Wolfe performed the nuptial rites.

The Shovel Brigade.

The snow-shoveling brigade is still at work clearing the drifts off the different roads in the townships. Potter township having about 65 miles of road, had a large proportion drifted and will have a correspondingly large bill to pay for snow-shoveling, and other districts in proportion.

Died at Madisonburg.

Mr. F. P. Vonada died at his residence at Madisonburg on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, after an illness of about nine days, from inflammation of the bowels and typhoid pneumonia combined.

No Poor Tax.

Centre Hall has no paupers, hence no poor tax. Luckeyburg we are; yet there were three votes in favor of a poor house, but we suppose the fellows wished to find out how it went to pay poor tax.

The 15th Snow.

On Friday last we had the 15th snow with a depth of 2 inches; making a total depth of 58 inches.

—We shall dispose of our immense stock of Winter Goods, regardless of their retail value to make room for our Spring stock, and for thirty days only will the bargains last.—Lyon & Co., Bellefonte.

DECIDED IN HIS FAVOR.

J. Q. A. Kennedy Put into an Unpleasantness But Gets Out Again.

From a Somerset county paper we see that our former townsman, J. Q. A. Kennedy got into court there but came out whole. The paper says:

J. Q. A. Kennedy, a Johnstown music dealer, appeared to answer to the charge of perjury preferred against him by J. A. Walker. It appeared from the evidence that on a suit of attachment before 'Squire D. J. Brubaker, in Berlin, Kennedy had represented himself as A. W. Kennedy, the defendant in said suit, when in fact his wife was A. W. Kennedy. The attachment-suit was to secure a debt due J. S. Zimmerman and others for board and other valuable consideration received by J. D. Hocking, who represented himself as an agent of A. W. Kennedy, the music dealer. Mr. Zimmerman had in his possession a piano belonging to said A. W. Kennedy, which he was holding to secure a debt. When the suit before Justice Brubaker was decided against A. W. Kennedy, J. Q. A. Kennedy stated that he was not worth the amount and took steps to prevent the collection of the debt, hence the suit. For the defense it was shown that the music business was conducted in the name of A. W. Kennedy but that J. Q. A. Kennedy, A. W. Kennedy's husband, transacted all the business under a power of attorney from his wife; that he thought he was doing right when he represented himself as said A. W. Kennedy as he was acting in her place and stead and to all interests of the suit was A. W. Kennedy. The elements of corruption and intent to defraud being absent in the case, the Commonwealth agreed to a verdict of "not guilty," but defendant to pay the costs' and it was accordingly rendered by the jury.

Death of Mrs. John Harter.

The wife of Capt. John H. Harter, of Nevada, Ohio, died on night of 1st inst. She had been in failing health for over a year. Her age was about 50 years. Her maiden name was Ettie Forest, and she was born in Huntingdon county, Pa. She was a lady of culture and fine literary acquirements. She leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters to mourn the departure of a fond and dutiful wife and mother. The husband, Capt. Harter, is a son of Wm. Harter, dec'd, of Aaronsburg and had command of a company in the Penn'a regiment of Bucktails during the war and is a brother of Mrs. Kurtz, wife of the editor of this paper.

Weather—Cold Wave.

Last week there was the first break in the weather and thaw for this winter; and while there are lots of snow piles all around, yet sleighing is worn out on the roads, which are left in such a condition that wagoning as well as sledding is awkward. Monday night the cold wave predicted by the weather bureau, set in and a high wind prevailed, causing a freeze that arrested the floods; Tuesday was bright but cold.

New Counties.

The law of 1878 simplifies the new county scheme very materially. All the friends of the measure need do now is to have a majority of the inhabitants of the proposed new county vote in favor of it at a special election and see that the boundaries do not pass within ten miles of the proposed new county seat. There is nothing difficult about that except doing it.

It Spoils the Effect.

When one goes to church and hears a most affecting and earnest appeal for money to spread the gospel through the world, and then looking around sees enough waste material on the ladies in that one church to keep a missionary in the field, he is apt to think of Hezekiah xiii: 18, "Woe to the women who sew pillows to their arm holes."

Brief Local Items.

For free grub all thro this month of March, read the complete list of public sales in another column.

Rev. Goodling goes to York to attend the United Evangelical conference of which he is a staunch adherent.

The last two weeks have produced more cases of sickness all over, than was had in two months previous.

Sucker Fishers.

Elk creek was lined with sucker fishers the other day. There were suckers in the creek and "suckers" outside the creek, and as suckers in the water were biting, the "suckers" outside were—using the nursing bottle. Fishing is both a science and an art, and altogether liquid.

A Sign Wanted.

Can't some one give us a sign of the coming summer, whether it is going to be hot or cold, wet or dry, stormy or calm. Speak out, ye folks of signs, and let us know what the sign is.

—Don't shiver; get one of those good storm coats at Lewin's, Bellefonte, and be comfortable. Low price.

—We are selling overcoats fit for a king at prices that cause our competitors excruciating pain. Get one while they last.—Lewins, Bellefonte.

FOSTER'S PREDICTIONS.

Warns Farmers of Storms this Month and of More Force than Usual.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from March 1 to 5, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 6th, cross the western mountain country by the close of the 7th, the great central valleys from the 8th to the 10th and the eastern states about the 11th.

This disturbance will be of more force than usual, but precipitation will be light except in a few limited localities. The most important feature of this storm will be the cold wave immediately following its warm wave, causing great extremes of temperature and frosts further south than usual.

Just here it is pertinent to repeat that the 1895 crop season weather will be uncommon and remarkable and every part of the United States may prepare for the unusual. The third storm wave of March will reach the Pacific coast about the 12th, cross the western mountain country by close of the 13th, the great central valleys 14th to 16th and the eastern states about the 17th.

The feature of this disturbance will be a very considerable increase of precipitation as compared with the first part of the month, and the temperature will average low during the two weeks following this storm wave.

Warm waves will cross the western mountain country about 6th and 12th, great central valleys 8th and 14th, and eastern states 10th and 16th. Cool waves will cross the western mountain country about 9th and 15th, great central valleys 11th and 17th, and eastern states 13th and 19.

The principal storms of March will be those to cross the continent from 7th to 11th and 24th to 28th, and the cold waves following these will be the most severe of the month.

The principal, most beautiful aurora will accompany the cold wave crossing the continent from 25 to 27th. A more brilliant aurora will accompany the cold wave crossing the continent 7th to 9th, but it will probably be observed by the full moon.

Pittsburg Times Vacation Trip.

The Pittsburg Times, with its well-known enterprise, has provided vacation trips for the five school teachers receiving the highest number of coupon votes, three of the teachers to be chosen outside of Pittsburg and Allegheny county. The successful teachers will be conducted on a European tour lasting 54 days, and in addition to the Times paying all the expenses each teacher will receive $100 in gold. The contest will be carried on for the three and a half months beginning March 1 and ending June 15. The contestants must be public school teachers of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio, West Virginia, and Maryland who receive the highest number of votes from readers of the Times. Precaution has been taken to insure an equal chance for all teachers in the territory mentioned, and an effectual bar has been put up against the purchase of votes.

The Grip Sicklist.

The Czar has influenza and sore throat—grip. Gen. Count Waldereese has influenza at Berlin—grip. James C. Boal took quite a serious attack of grip last week, and it still holds on to him.

Mrs. Flora Barefoot has been housed up by grip. Mrs. D. J. Meyer is quite ill of pneumonia starting with grip.

James Durst, several weeks seriously ill of pneumonia, is improving. Mrs. Isaac Smith, of this place, is making slow progress for the better.

A Crowded House.

The audience which greeted that popular young divine, Rev. Illingworth, last Sunday evening when he delivered a sermon on "Odd Fellowship," in M. E. church, was the largest that the edifice has held for years. Many were turned away, being unable to obtain seats. His remarks were short, but they were appropriately pointed, and his hearers were much gratified.

Bank Wreckers Sentenced.

William A. Sponser and Benjamin F. Junkin, proprietors of the defunct Perry county bank, who were convicted of embezzlement in November last, were sentenced by Judge Bell to one year's imprisonment each in the Eastern penitentiary.

Honor Speakers.

Honor Speakers for commencement at State College have been announced in the following order: Byron Barnes Horton, of Sheffield; Hugh McAllister Beaver, of Bellefonte; Budd Gray, of Tyrone; Melvin Jesse Kiefer, of Sunbury, and Ralph Lashalle MacDonald, of State College.

No Law for It.

We have been asked whether it is lawful, during a snow blockade to open fences and drive over fields. No it is not—you can prosecute for trespass those who do it.

—A storm coat this weather is almost necessary if you wish to be comfortable. There is a big assortment at Lewin's, Bellefonte, and a sale made by him is bound to be satisfactory.

TO CALIFORNIA.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Second Tour to "The Golden Gate."

The large number of people who have leisure, and the growing desire of Americans to see the wonders of their native land, are the principal agencies in advancing a healthy sentiment in favor of travel.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's personally-conducted tours to California will be conducted in all respects as those of preceding years, with some added advantages, which cannot fail to attract the attention and enlist the interest of the tourist.

In addition to the high-grade accommodations and entertainment in transit, the Pennsylvania tourists are treated with the same liberality wherever the journey is broken. The choicest rooms in the leading hotels are always reserved for their use, for which regular rates are paid, so that the guests, although members of a large party, enjoy all the privileges of individuals who may have made their own selections.

The second tour in the 1895 series to the Golden Gate will leave New York and Philadelphia March 20, 1895, arriving at San Francisco March 29, and at New York and Philadelphia May 16, 1895.

Detailed itinerary will be sent on application to Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Horses Cheap.

Horses, once so high in price, are now almost cheap as dirt, and Centre county farmers find there is no money any more in raising horses. Almost like in South America where horses have been so cheap that the poor can afford to go begging on horseback.

Electricity is now doing the work of thousands of horses, and with every year more of these animals will be displaced by electricity and horses will keep going down in price. Electricity can do all, and far more, that is being done by horses.

Thirty years back Pennsylvanians raised the finest, noblest draft horses in the state; big, sleek and fat, and glistening under the liberal use of the curry-comb and brush of the proud farmer. We think we can still see the splendid appearance made by the four and six horse teams of those good old days; even the horses themselves seemed to feel as proud as their owners over the show they were making.

But, the glory of the horse is departing, and the noble animal is even being docketed of his beautiful tail.

Bound Over to Court.

Tuesday morning district attorney Singer held a hearing before 'Squire Boal, in a case of threats made by Jacob From against Samuel Rowe. Witnesses Ziegler living near the town water works testified that From had offered him $25 if he would fire Rowe's stable. Mrs. William Moyer testified that From told her he would, or could, lay Rowe low as he was laid. Other witnesses were also heard as to threats made by From. Justice Boal bound From over in $500 bail for his appearance at April term of court.

From's plea will likely be that these threats were only idle bravado and that he meant nothing thereby. The trial in court will determine the imprudence of making such expressions.

A Lively Dog Fight.

Tuesday evening a dog fight of no small proportions enlivened the street near the REPORTER office, and for the time was the sensation of the town. The honors were about even, and the fight was declared a draw, and could not be proceeded with, owing to outsiders jumping over the ropes into the ring. Three persons took hold of each dog and pulled. The dogs being of an affectionate disposition, did not propose to be thus ruthlessly separated, but finally agreed to part company. The only serious results of the fray was of Billy Smith being bitten through the hand by one of the curs. He promptly had his wound cauterized by Dr. Jacobs.

For Thirty Days.

Don't neglect to visit us during March. We are making you such offers during this month that you will not regret the coming. All Dry Goods reduced in price, many of them halved. A lot of fresh, new Muslins and Ginghams received this week and offered to you at lower figures than you ever knew of in this valley.

All other goods at reasonable prices. Let us have your patronage. We shall aim to merit it.

WOLF & CRAWFORD.

Again Granted a License.

Occasionally, or a most yearly at the license court there is some trouble with some applicant in having his license renewed, but that experience has not been necessary with the Centre Hall landlords. The court again granted Mr. Bartges license, without hesitancy. He conducts his house properly and orderly, without complaint, and the law is fully complied with by him.

—The merchant tailoring establishment at Lewins, Bellefonte, has a long-standing reputation of furnishing the best fitting clothes in this part of the state. When you see a well-dressed young man you can put it down that he gets his clothing at this store.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

I am out of debt, and thanks to the Dish Washer business for it. In the past five weeks I have made over $500, and I am so thankful that I feel like telling everybody, so that they can be benefitted by my experience. Anybody can sell Dish Washers because everybody wants one, especially when it can be got so cheap. I believe that in two years from now every family will have one. You can get full particulars by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa., and you can't help but make money in this business. I believe that I can clear over $3,000 the coming year, and I am not going to let such an opportunity pass without improvement. We can't expect to succeed without trying. MRS. B.

Refused a License.

There was a big fight against granting Mr. Decker, of Pine Grove Mills a hotel license. State College and a large number of others remonstrated. It was refused by the court.

—Why not go to Lyon & Co. and get yourself well supplied with good, warm clothing? The reductions made are wonderful. Look up the large reductions in another column, on page five.
