Change in the Uniform.

It is determined that somewhat of a change in the uniform of the officers from the blouse and the garment is to remain perfectly plain except the insignia of rank, company and regiment

ment over the gingerbread trimming, No need of invalids going to the and will take away from the coat the iform of a military officer. The chasseur cap is to give way to a cap similar the bottom, and is rather high with a pointed, protruding visor, giving it a rakish appearance. While the change on the blouse will be a decided improvement, the cap is not likely to be improved. The visor should be left its present shape as a protection or shade for the eyes, but perhaps the inventor of the new visor had a notion John H. The Railroad Man, The Clergyman,

The Business Man, and all other men who have to look neat while at work, should know about "CELLULOID" COL-LARS AND CUFFS. They look exactly like linen, wear well and being waterproof do not wilt down with heat and moisture. They do not soil easily and can be cleaned in a moment by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. Do not confuse these in your mind with composition goods. Every piece of the genu-ine is stamped like this:

TRADE MARK.

Ask for these and refuse anything else if you wish satisfaction. Remember that goods so marked are the only waterproof goods made by coating a linen collar with waterproof "Celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. If your dealer should not have the "Celluloid," send amount direct to us and we will mail you sample post-paid. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs, 5oc. pair. State size and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. THE CELLULOID COMPANY, 427-29 Broadway, New York
