

THE STROLLER'S NET.

Caught up on a Stroll—The Pick-ups by the Sidewalks.

The once familiar figure of Johnny Neff was again seen on our streets the other day after an absence of half dozen years, his gait was familiar only evincing the hand of age that has put a decrepit move on his step. Mr. Neff is about to move back again to this his native place and will, no doubt, end his days in his old homestead—and may it be many days off yet before Time calls him away.

The Stroller is pleased to note that many of our townfolk have pride enough to put their outdoor premises in trim and taste by a general cleaning up of rubbish from winter's leavings proving they have an eye to the good appearance of our town and their own homes in particular. Upon the whole there are few towns of the size of Centre Hall in which the homes look cozier, yards neater and premises more cleanly.

The ladies of our town, as a general thing, show a great deal of taste in the cultivation of flowers, and we believe there is not a home in which these marks of refinement and a taste for the beautiful in nature are absent. For an all-the-year-round display the windows in Mrs. Minnie Richard's home always show out prettily for freshness and variety of its flowers.

The Stroller also learns of a rumor that Prof. Krise and family, now living in Johnstown, intend moving back to this place again; also that Peter F. Keller, who left this place some 18 years ago for Kansas, intends moving back again to this his native place. This naturally sets the Stroller to musing that persons who move away from Centre Hall always find it a very good place to move back to again.

Coming across a live granger within sight of the picnic ground led to an allusion to the coming picnic, and he informed the Stroller the next grange picnic would exceed any previous one in every department and in new features, with a lopping off of objectionable fakir stands. He thought the new county fair movement was dead and that the grange encampment would make such advances that another fair could not gain good footing.

Hanged Judas Iscariot.

The Greeks at Youngstown, Ohio, with delegates from Beaver Falls, New Castle and other cities, celebrated Easter in accordance with the orthodox Greek church ceremonies. At five o'clock in the morning they began to assemble in a quiet valley four miles west of the city. A barbecue was prepared, several lambs and a large number of chickens were roasted, and while they were cooking a large effigy of Judas Iscariot was hanged to the limb of a tree. Every insult was offered to it, concluding with firing guns at the figure. It had been filled with fire crackers and these were exploded. The remnants of Judas were then cremated, after which the Greeks and invited friends sat down to an elaborate banquet, washed down with an abundance of fine wine. The remainder of the day was spent in festivities, closing at dusk.

Making Preparations.

Bellefonte will be one hundred years old this year, and preliminary steps have been taken to celebrate the event in the most approved manner during the month of June. A public meeting was held on Tuesday and committees were appointed to make arrangements. The celebration of their Centennial will be held on one day and the day following the State Firemen's Convention will meet in session. Two days of celebrating we are afraid will be too much for the town on the hills and some of their citizens will be prostrated before it is over.

Singing Class.

The singing class will meet this Thursday evening, in the basement of the Evangelical church. Mr. Ed. Crawford, the teacher, will be here to give the first lesson. All who have subscribed, as well as those who wish to join the class will please come. The expense per member will be about 50 cents; Mr. Crawford will furnish all the books. This is something much needed in our town.

No Court.

Owing to the fact that the district attorney of Bedford county will not have any business to bring before the grand jury of that county this week, the sheriff has been instructed to notify the citizens summoned as grand jurors not to attend. This is without a parallel in the history of the county.

Owing to the fact that Lyon & Co., of Bellefonte, must make room for a large stock of spring goods, they now offer their entire winter stock at such prices never before heard of in this county. See their advertisement in another column on page five.

Extraordinary reductions in Winter clothing and overcoats by Lyons, Bellefonte, and this means a reduction from the wonderfully low prices they have had during the past season. The reductions last only a short time.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

Purify the System of Catarrhal Impurities and Cure is Certain.

Spring time is the most favorable to the cure of Chronic Catarrh. Hundreds of letters are received, testifying to extraordinary cures.

Wm. Mandel, of Sleepy Eye, Minn., writes: "I have been troubled with chronic catarrh for thirty-five years and had tried nearly every catarrh cure known, until by accident I was advised by a friend to give Pe-ru-na a trial. In one week from the time I took the first dose I began to feel like a new man. I kept on using it for some time and I am entirely cured. I have no symptoms of chronic catarrh whatever. I am 74 years of age and am sure Pe-ru-na is the best medicine I ever used and would not be without it in the house for anything."

The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio, are offering free, post-paid, two medical books, one on Catarrh and Catarrhal diseases, the other on Spring Medicines and Spring diseases. These books contain the very latest and most reliable information on these important subjects.
